struck a large rock before plunging 90 feet to the bottom. Eye-witness to the tragedy was the Rev. R. E. Brown of Raleigh.

He and members of his family were en route from Knoxville to Augusta, Gâ. and had stopped at Dry Falls for sightseeing.

Sid Carter of Highlands was first to arrive at the scene and tried for an hour to recover the body. He was treated at Highlands Community Hospital for cuts and bruises received while diving into the falls.

Earl Baty, assisted by a number of other young men, recovered the body about 3 p.m.

Surviving, in addition to the widow and the parents, are one brother, Kenneth; one sister, Elizabeth; the paternal grandfather, John N. Kilby of Stocksville; and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L.J. Fox of Knoxville.

resting and playing golf. Mr. Kefauver arrived last Friday accompanied by Miss Lucile Myers his secretary. They will leave Highlands Friday and proceed to Chattanooga, Tenn, where he will meet Mrs. Kefauver and children who have been spending some time at their farm near Chattanooga.

"DOGBILLY"

Not to be overlooked on Hillbilly Day was Clyde Bolt's dog Brownie who was in costume for the day. Brownie was dressed in blue jeans, a polo shirt and a cap to match. Brownie seemed to enjoy the day as much as his master.

Congressman Henderson Lanham was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. McConnell of Highlands. He was on his way to Rome, Ga.

Gilbert Reed of the Marine Corps has been visiting his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Frank Reed.

Earl Baty of the U. S. Navy is home on furlough.
