A CHINESE FLAG.

The Chinese flag captured by Lieut. John Julius Guthrie of our Navy—and a native of North Carolina, born in Washington, Beaufort county—in an assault upon the Barrier Forts on the Canton River, three years since, has been presented by that distinguished officer to the State.

Governor Ellis has recently received the flag, and placed it in the capitol as a mementoe; thanking the gallant sailor in terms of high commendation.

The gallant Guthrie also captured a brass cannon at the same time, seventy-three feet in length.

We believe the Lieutenant is now stationed in the National Observatory at Washington.

Washington Star.

THE RECENT STORM.—Reports from several sections of the country have reached us, giving a gloomy account of the late storm, which broke upon us on the 12th inst.

The water courses throughout the country rose very rapidly and overflowed the low lands, washing off large quantities of produce.

The Catawba rose higher than at any date, and its turbid waters over-leaped every barrier, sweeping off upon its bosom, stock and every class of produce, not gathered, from the bottom lands.

Our planting interests have suffered severely, and it is feared, at the time of penning this notice, that the end is not yet, the heavens indicating as they do another storm is gathering.

Charlotte Bulletin.

LATER FROM THE PACIFIC.

St. Louis, Sept. 20.

The overland mail of the 12th August, has been received from San Francisco. It was reported that Capt. Walters, and 140 men of his command had been massacred by the Snake Indians.

Advices from the disputed Island, San Juan, are to the 20th August.

No change has taken place; the Americans were still in possession, and had increased their force.

A FEW TRUTHS.—There is one or more poultry thieves about town. Help to catch them. Did any one buy a gander last Saturday night? Does any one know of a goose or gander (dead or alive,) having been brought on their premises Saturday night or Sunday? Lodge the information with the Intendant.

FELLOW CITIZENS:

I APPEAR before you to-day to declare myself a candidate for popular favor, and respectfully invite you to

Draw Near

and listen to the words a high concern for your welfare impels me to enunciate. It affords me the most exquisite pleasure imaginable to address so large and respectable a number of you, and I sincerely hope that you will

Treasure up the information I design imparting to you, as it may prove more precious than silver and gold.

FELLOW CITIZENS! I feel utterly and strongly incapable of doing justice to the important subject which claims our attention on this occasion; and if it were not so

Acknowledged Truth

that every horse must switch his own tail, or be flybitten, I would instantly back down and employ some distinguished stump orator to visit you at the public mills and at the cross-roads, and make known the fame

That

HOFFLIN's carefully selected stock of Fall and Winter Ready-Made Clothing, comprising every shade and grade of every varied article of dress, has arrived; and that he, can exhibit the sublimest spectacle of Fashionable adornments to be met with in ten States—stack and packs!—enough to cover a thousand handsome forms in habiliments at one neat, rich, strong, beautiful and cheap. He should also make known that HOFFLIN's Store is on the corner,

MARCUS HOFFLIN,

at the Mansion Hotel,

abundantly convenient to every visitor of Salisbury, who designs visiting the most popular parts of town—well supplied with light and comfort, where he

Continues to Sell

Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, Coats, Vests, Hose, Gloves, Stocks, Cravats, Shirts, Drawers, Suspenders,—everything a man can want, and all of the best quality,

at Lower Prices

than any other Dealer in North Carolina.

Curiosity stimulates the powers of human nature, and leads judicious people to the discovery of many profitable facts that might otherwise remain sealed forever. Now just let it work you up to HOFFLIN's Store to see his new Stock, and to hear his prices. You are obliged to have Clothing—the law compels—but not obliged to buy from Hoffin. ☞ But suppose he should offer you the best bargains, then what?—that's the question. He knows what he can do, and intends to do what he can to accommodate every one, high and low, rich and poor, who may favor him with a call. ☞ Call and see me.

DAVID WEIL, Salisbury, N. C.

The subscriber would inform the citizens of Salisbury and surrounding neighborhood that he has located at this place, and has now on hand a large and choice assortment of fashionable

FALL AND WINTER CLOTHING!

AND GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS,

Purchased for cash in the Northern cities, with special reference to the wants of this neighborhood, and which he will sell at lower prices than have ever been sold in this place before. He is determined by selling GOOD CLOTHING at low prices to merit the patronage of this community. His stock consists in part of Coats, Pants, Vests, Over Coats, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Shirts, Drawers, Neck Ties, Collars, Shawls, &c. &c.

DAVID WEIL is now on hand,
With Goods—new, rich and rare, sir,
And facilities at his command,
To make the people stare, sir.

Sound the trumpet, beat the drum!
From house top and from steeple,
For WEIL is now "at home,"
With Cheap Goods for the people!

He has Clothing, goods of every kind,
Made strong and in the fashion,
For Gent's and Youth of humble mind,
And those of stylish passion.

Here grave and gay, and rich and poor,
May please their minds and purses;
From tip-top Coats, with mountings rare,
To common Linen Dusters.

He has Pants of old and newest styles,
And Vests—such brilliant patterns!
But Neck Ties—oh! such rousing piles
For Gent's to cut a dash in.

In Hats and Caps his stakes are rare,
Either beaver or light as a feather;
He has Drawers and Under Shirts in store,
For those who need such under.

He has Boots and Shoes, all shades and shapes,
And gaiters without number,
In everything he'll please your tastes,
Come, all he wants is a trial.

Sound the trumpet, beat the drum!
From house top and from steeple,
For WEIL is now "at home,"
To benefit the people.

And will sell 25 per cent. Cheaper than can possibly be sold any where else in Salisbury. ☞ REMEMBER THE HEADQUARTERS, the house formerly occupied by James H. Enniss as a Book Store. He respectfully invites the public to call, as it will be to their advantage, before purchasing elsewhere.
