THE HARP OF A THOUSAND STRINGS.—By far the most amusing book of the age has just been issued by Messrs. DICK & FITZGERALD, New York, and christened "The Harp of a Thousand Strings." It is a compilation of the best humorous stories ever perpetrated by modern wit, jester or comic sentimentalist. The immortal Sut Lovingood's yarns are given in full, and various "sermons," of Western stripe, brimful of whiskey and fun, help to add laugh giving point to the volume. The remaining stories and sketches are well selected, and complete a budget of really good things which can hardly be surpassed. The work is for sale at the bookstore of

GREAT WONDER

Of the Nineteenth Century,

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Says the St. Louis, (Mo.) Democrat: Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superlative merits of his hair tonic. Such testimony must have its effect, when coming from a reliable source. If certificates are guarantees of truth, the Dr. needs no encomiums, for modern gallery fame the press:

BATH, MAINE, Jan. 20, 1856.

Professor O. J. Wood & Co.:

GENTLEMEN: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial effects of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own hair, which had become quite gray, probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since I procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I soon found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used none. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its natural color, and I believe upon soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty-five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty-two, has used it with same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any one you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the beauties of nature in others as well as myself.

I am, truly, yours, A. C. RAYMOND.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 25, 1856.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Professor Wood—Dear Sir: Having had the misfortune to lose the best portion of my hair, from the effects of the yellow fever, in New Orleans in 1854, I was induced to make a trial of your preparation, and found it to answer as the very thing needed. My hair is now thick and glossy, and no words can express my obligations to you in giving to the afflicted such a treasure. FINLEY
