Former U. S. District Attorney Puts End To Rumors That He Might Be Candidate For Senate On Republican Ticket

TUCKER ANNOUNCES HE WILL NOT RUN

Harmonious Meeting Of 7th District Republicans Held In Elizabethtown Thursday Afternoon

I. B. Tucker, of Whiteville, former U. S. Attorney for the eastern district, announced before the seventh district republican convention in Elizabethtown Thursday afternoon that he is not and will not be a candidate for the U. S. Senate.

Mr. Tucker added that he thought the candidate for the senate should come from the western part of the state.

At the convention, E. C. Geddie, of Erwin, former U. S. marshall for the eastern district of North Carolina, was nominated for congress.

A. E. Howard, of St. Pauls, Robeson county, was elected district chairman. Mrs. Elsie Garton, of Coast, Harnett ccunty, was chosen vice chairman, and Fred T. Tucker, of Wilmington, was again named secretary.

Four members named to the state executive committee were Irvin B. Tucker, Mr. Geddie, W. C. Downing, of Cumberland, and Mrs. Louis Goodman, of New Hanover. The new plan of organization specifies that one woman member of the state committee must be named from each district.

The convention was called to order here at 2 o'clock this afternoon with more than 50 delegates and visitors attending. All counties in the district, composed of Bladen, Brunswick, Columbus, Cumberland, Harnett, New Hanover, and Robeson, were represented by delegates.

New Hanover county was represented by Fred T. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Goodman, and County Chairman D. R. Walker.

J. A. McLeod, of Dunn, retiring district chairman, called the meeting to order. Irvin B. Tucker was elected chairman of the convention and Fred T. Tucker, secretary.

The session was harmonious.

Junius Powell Files With Election Board

Three candidates paid the board of elections of North Carolina $45 each Thursday to enter the June 4 primary to seek nominations for solicitorships.

They were Junius K. Powell, of Whiteville, in the eighth district, F. Ertel Carlyle, of Lumberton in the Ninth, and W. H. Murdock, of Durham, in the tenth.

A man rushed into the newspaper office and demanded to see the editor. "Sir," he cried as he strode up and down the room, "your paper has libeled me. You have called me the lightweight champion."

"But that is true," returned the editor. "You are Mr. Fightwell, aren't you?"

"Yes, yes," cried the other, "but it's my brother who is the boxer. I'm a coal merchant."

It Is Dangerous

It is dangerous to sell a SUBSTITUTE for 666 just to make three or four cents more. Customers are your best assets; lose them and you lose your business. 666 is worth three or four times as much as a SUBSTITUTE. (Adv.)

A RESOLUTION with respect to the issuance of $1,925,500 Refunding Bonds, Series 1936, and $230,000 Funding Bonds, Series 1936, of Brunswick County, North Carolina.

WHEREAS, Brunswick County through resolutions adopted on October 5 and October 19, 1936, has heretofore authorized the issuance of $1,925,500 Refunding Bonds, Series 1935, and $175,000 Funding Bonds, Series 1935, of said County, and said bonds have been validated by Chapter 45 of the Public-Local Law of North Carolina, 1937, and it has been found necessary to make some changes in the details of said bonds by reason of the unexpected delay in the delivery of the bonds, and the Board of Commissioners has authority under the provisions of said Act to amend the original proceedings:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of Brunswick County, North Carolina, that the resolution adopted by the Board of Commissioners on first reading on October 5, 1936, and finally adopted on October 19, 1936, entitled,

"A Resolution with respect to the issuance of $1,925,500 Refunding Bonds, Series 1935, and $175,000 Funding Bonds, Series 1935, of Brunswick County, North Carolina,"

be and is hereby amended to read as follows:

"BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Commissioners of Brunswick County, North Carolina, as follows:

SECTION 1. That the following described outstanding indebtedness of Brunswick County, being indebtedness originally incurred by said County or assumed by said County by refunded:

Road and Bridge	6	November 1, 1928	100,000
Revenue Anticipation Notes	6	January 14, 1931	85,000
Revenue Anticipation Notes	6	May 23, 1932	45,000

all of which indebtedness was incurred either for necessary expenses of Brunswick County constituting special purposes within the meaning of Section 6 of Article V of the Constitution, or else for providing the uniform system of public schools for the six months' term as required by the constitution and all of which indebtedness is expressly recognized as the valid and binding indebtedness of said county.

Section 2. That to refund said above described indebtedness there shall be issued refunding bonds of Brunswick County in the amount of $1,925,500 to be dated July 1, 1936, in denominations of $1,000 and $500, due July 1, 1966, optional for redemption on any interest payment date, bearing interest at one and one-half per cent (1½ per cent) per annum to June 30, 1939, two per cent (2 per cent) per annum thereafter to June 30, 1946, two and one-half per cent (2½ per cent) per annum thereafter to June 30, 1956, three per cent (3 per cent) per annum thereafter to June 30, 1961, and four per cent (4 per cent) per annum thereafter until paid. Provided, that after any refunding bond has matured as to principal, by declaration or otherwise, such bond shall bear interest at the rate of interest borne by the bond in exchange for which said refunding bond was delivered. If default is made in the payment of interest when due and such default continues for six months, the entire principal of all of the refunding bonds then outstanding may be declared immediately due by written instrument signed by the holders of not less than fifty-one per cent (51 per cent) in principal amount of all of the refunding bonds at the time outstanding, and delivered to the Clerk of the Board of Commissioners. Said bonds shall be registerable as to principal.

Section 3. That for the purpose of funding interest on the above described indebtedness due and unpaid in the total amount of $460,000 there shall be issued funding bonds of said County in the principal amount of $230,000. Said funding bonds shall be dated July 1, 1936. Funding bonds totaling $175,000 shall be coupon bonds in the denomination of $500 each, and the remaining $55,000 funding bonds shall be in such denominations as are necessary to accommodate the holders of outstanding interest coupons and accrued interest in varying amounts at the time the funding bonds are delivered in exchange therefor. Said funding bonds shall become due July 1, 1966, and shall bear interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent (1½ per cent) per annum to June 30, 1939, two per cent (2 per cent) per annum thereafter to June 30, 1946, two and one-half per cent (2½ per cent) per annum thereafter to June 30, 1956, three per cent (3 per cent) per annum thereafter to June 30, 1961, and four per cent (4 per cent) per annum thereafter until paid. Interest on the coupon bonds shall be paid upon presentation of the proper coupon, and interest on the remaining bonds shall be paid by check or draft mailed to the registered holder. All of said funding bonds shall be optional for redemption on any interest payment date. In event of default in payment of interest and continuation of such default for six months, the entire principal of all of said funding bonds then outstanding may be declared due immediately by written instrument so electing, signed by the holders of at least fifty-one per cent (51 per cent) of all funding bonds then outstanding, delivered to the clerk of the Board of Commissioners. The non-coupon funding bonds shall be fully registerable.

Section 4. To pay principal of and interest on said refunding bonds and funding bonds, unlimited ad valorem taxes shall be and are hereby levied on all taxable property in Brunswick County, and said tax shall be annually levied and extended at a minimum rate sufficient to produce at least $60,000 per year for each fiscal year beginning July 1, 1936, and ending June 30, 1946; $65,000 for each fiscal year thereafter to June 30, 1956, and $70,000 for each fiscal year thereafter to June 30, 1966. All of said taxes and taxes levied for operating expenses during the same years are to be paid in money and the proceeds of such taxes are to be kept in separate bank accounts fully secured by collateral. So far as it legally may, the Board of Commissioners agrees that the total operating expenses of the county (not including Social Security obligations) will not exceed $50,000 per annum unless the amount of taxes levied for such year for payment of principal of and interest on the above funding and refunding bonds is proportionately increased. Money in the sinking fund shall be used to pay interest on said refunding and funding bonds and to retire said bonds by purchase, redemption or payment in the manner to be hereafter provided by the Board of Commissioners, and the Board of Commissioners may hereafter enter into such collateral covenants and agreements for the security of said funding and refunding bonds as may seem necessary and desirable to said Board.

Section 5. After approval by the Local Government Commission and validation as above provided, said funding and refunding bonds are to be delivered in exchange for the outstanding obligations hereinabove authorized to be funded and refunded pursuant to simultaneous cancellation of the latter.

Section 6. A statement of the county debt has been filed with the county clerk and is open to public inspection.

Section 7. That all resolutions and orders in conflict herewith are hereby repealed, and this resolution shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its adoption, and shall not be submitted to the voters of the county.

The foregoing resolution has been introduced and a sworn statement has been filed under the County Finance Act, showing the assessed valuation of the county to be $7,008,435.00, and the net debt for school purposes, including the proposed bonds to be $376,000.00, and the net debt for other than school purposes including the proposed bonds to be $1,779,000.00. A tax will be levied for the payment of the proposed bonds and interest, if the same shall be issued. Any citizen or taxpayer may protest against the issuance of such bonds at a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners to be held at 10 o'clock A. M., March 28th, 1938, or an adjournment thereof.

R. I. Mintz, Clerk of Board of Commissioners.
