Friends and Fellow-Citizens!!

TAKE this opportunity to inform you, my friends and fellow-citizens, that I have become your most humble candidate for selling

CHEAP FANCY & STAPLE

DRY GOODS,

BOOTS AND SHOES,

CLOTHING,

HATS, CAPS, &c., &c.

In doing so, I would beg leave to say that in order to be able to carry on business on my own account in these hard times, but better coming ones, I am obliged to sell strictly for CASH. This will enable me to buy and sell far cheaper than I could afford on the credit system. Everybody knows that. Please don't ask me for credit for I won't give it. Cash and small profits shall be my motto. Should you feel disposed to select me for your candidate, you would oblige,

Yours, most respectfully.

EAGLE CITY!

THE GREAT POINT OF ATTRACTION!!

DESTINED TO BE THE GREAT CENTRE OF

Manufacturing Interests in WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA, and perhaps of the UNITED STATES.

I INTEND to have a railroad from SALISBURY to EAGLE CITY. People may laugh at the idea, if they choose, as I doubt not many will. But didn't they laugh at Fulton whilst he was talking about propelling boats by steam, at the rate of six miles an hour? Didn't they laugh at Columbus, when he talked of discovering a new world in the West? Didn't they laugh at the colonies when they grew a little rebellious, and hinted at independence? I know I'm a small potato compared to Fulton or Columbus; or to the Franklins, Washingtons, Putnams, &c., of revolutionary memory—glorious, whole-souled men and patriots as they were—worthy sires of men a better race than we. But haven't people laughed at me a thousand times when I have seen fit to talk of things which they thought I couldn't do? I'm none of the "can't" stock. I say I intend to have a Rail Road from Salisbury to Eagle City. I don't wish to get in the way of Charlotte and her Western scheme, nor in the way of Salisbury and the Western extension. Mine is to be a North Western Road from Salisbury. It must be built. Why, there are millions of dollars worth of produce in that direction, and mines of mineral wealth beyond calculation, which this Road will bring to the Markets. It must come out. It shall come out. Eagle City shall be the terminus of the Road, unless the people above are proper to carry it on. But Eagle City must rise! Like that heaven aspiring tree, it must soar aloft. It is worthy of being the home of the greatest and best of mortal men, as it is now the abode of peace, plenty and happiness. Why not build a great manufacturing city there? It has the water power, timber, stone and everything else in abundance. There are productive farms, pure water, pure air—no chills and fever there—and willing hearts and ready hands. There may be found waving harvests, rich meadows, lovely vales and enchanting hills. Primeval forests, cool springs and numerous rills. All inviting, all smiling, all cheering and all delighting. And shall these great blessings remain forever locked up? I tell you nay. The North-Western Rail Road will open the gate to this Eden of America; and if Eagle City be the terminus of that Road won't it be a place? Won't people then want to buy lots there? And won't lots bring a price? Lots, five miles around the city, and all along the line of Road—won't they rise in value? The increase on their value alone, will double the cost of the Road. Who doubts these things? There is a mint of money in Hunting Creek alone. Every pound of its crystal waters will turn to money, and this great agent of commerce and enterprise will soon turn to good account the abundant resources of this abundant region. Let's build the Road. I'll take help if I can get it; but if no one else will take hold, I'll attempt it on my own responsibility. The work shall be done.

Railroad Hotel,

CHESTER, S. C.,

By J. R. NICHOLSON.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that his house, known as the "Railroad Hotel," opposite the Chester Depot, is still open for the reception of regular and transient boarders and the travelling public; and that he is making every exertion to deserve and secure a continuance of the kind and liberal patronage which has hitherto been extended to him. He flatters himself that every needed arrangement has been made to promote the comfort of all who stop with him—his rooms are airy and well-furnished, his servants are attentive and obedient, and his table constantly supplied with the best of the season, so that his friends will not want any attention necessary to make their sojourn pleasant and agreeable. His stables are furnished with good hostlers and an abundance of provender, and he is prepared at a moment's notice to supply his customers with private conveyances of every sort, to any part of the surrounding country.

He desires to return his acknowledgements to the public for past favors, and solicits for the future an equally liberal share of patronage.

CHARLOTTE HOTEL.

THIS Hotel situated in the centre of the town of Charlotte, convenient to all the places of business—is still kept open for public accommodation. The proprietor has been engaged in keeping a public house at this stand for fourteen years. He now offers to the use of the public a new edition of his former house greatly enlarged and improved, presenting in front a two story VERANDA 100 feet in length by 12 feet in width, handsomely shaded by trees in the side walk, affording a pleasant promenade at all hours of the day.

The house is thoroughly furnished throughout, and in every part of it creature comforts are abundant and tangible, especially in the DINING ROOM, where the inner man is renewed day by day.

Connected with this Hotel are stables affording room for 100 horses, abundantly furnished with grain and provender, attended by faithful and obliging hostlers.

The proprietor feels confident that with his long experience and many new advantages added to his own native disposition to be pleasing and agreeable, he is prepared to offer his friends and the rest of mankind, as many comforts and as much good cheer as will be found anywhere, perhaps a little more so.
