Oxford Academy.

THE Trustees have employed Mr. Ransome Hubbell, of New-York, and a graduate of Union College, as the principal of this Institution, for the ensuing year—He comes recommended to us in the most flattering terms, by President Kooll, professor McCauley and several others—Judge Nicholas, formerly of Virginia, but now of Geneva, in N. York who has had a long and intimate acquaintance with him, recommends him to us as "every way qualified" to discharge the duties he has undertaken to perform. He was engaged five years as the Principal of the Academy at Geneva, and "quitted it very much to the regret of his employers, on account of his health." He lived two years in the family of this Gentleman, who adds "From the Academy and my house, he has sent a number of young men to College, who have uniformly obtained the station there they expected—have progressed with Credit, and where they have graduated, have invariably come out among the first in honor."

The Trustees wish to employ an assistant in the Male department, and solicit application for that appointment.

The Female department will continue to be conducted by Miss Griswold, and Miss Halcomb Miss Mitchell of the City of New-York will have charge of the Musical department This Lady is eminently qualified to discharge the duties confided to her

The first Session of the next year will commence on the first Monday of January next.
