IT gives the undersigned, Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Ebenezer Academy, unfeigned pleasure to be able to announce to the public, that the present Principal of the Institution, Gen. JOHN A. ALSTON, was, at a late meeting of the Board, unanimously re-elected; and that he has consented to serve in that capacity at least for the ensuing year. Gen. Valuable Catawba Lansd For sale.

ON Tuesday, the 8th day of January next, Gen. J. A. Young, as my agent, will sell upon the premises, my Land, lying on the Catawba river and Cathey's creek, in Mecklenburg county, 1 mile below Beaties Ford, known as the Cathey Land. The tract contains about 550 acres, about 175 acres of which is river and creek bottom. About 200 acres of the tract is cleared and in cultivation, the balance is the first quality of well timbered upland, lying favourable for cultivation. Mr. Joseph Wilson living upon the river one mile below the land will at any time show the same to persons wishing to purchase. This has always been considered one of the most desirable Farms on the Catawba or in Mecklenburg county, not only on account of the quality of the soil, but also because of its being situated on a healthy locality and in a most desirable neighborhood.

Any information respecting it can be obtained from Mr. Joseph Wilson, near the land, or from Gen. Young or myself in Charlotte.

Terms will be accommodating, and made known on the day of sale.

Brattleboro Hotel,

CHESTER, S. C.,

By J. R. NICHOLSON.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public generally, that his house, known as the "Railroad Hotel," opposite the Chester Depot, is still open for the reception of regular and transient boarders and the travelling public; and that he is making every exertion to deserve and secure a continuance of the kind and liberal patronage which has hitherto been extended to him. He flatters himself that every needed arrangement has been made to promote the comfort of all who stop with him:—his rooms are airy and well-furnished, his servants are attentive and obedient, and his table constantly supplied with the best of the season, so that his friends will not want any attention necessary to make their sojourn pleasant and agreeable. His stables are furnished with good hostlers and an abundance of provender, and he is prepared at a moment's notice to supply his customers with private conveyances of every sort, to any part of the surrounding country.

He desires to return his acknowledgements to the public for past favors, and solicits for the future an equally liberal share of patronage.
