DOINGS OF THE Y.M.C.A.

The regular monthly meeting of the Management Committee of the YWCA met at the YW last Monday evening with the chairman, Mrs. Nora E. Lockhart presiding at the business session. The devotional thought was led by Mrs. Alberta Livingston.

Miss Mae Ligon, Advisor of the Younger Girls Club, gave an interesting report of the Planning Meeting held in Durham last Thursday for the District Neighborhood Conference which will also be held in Durham. She reported a well attended meeting and stated that much discussion was made on the proposed annual dinner meeting of all representative YWCAs. In the more detail report of the Girl Reserves, Miss Ligon said they were planning a Tea honoring Mothers at the Washington High school on next Sunday at 3 o'clock. She also stated that completed arrangements for Camp this summer would be announced following the next meeting of the Advisory Board.

In response to the chairman's request for reports of other committees, it was reported from the WOMENS ACTIVITY COMMITTEE that their group is functioning actively under the leadership of Mrs. H. C. Perrin, who is also vice-chairman of the Committee of Management of the YW. The slip covering class and Child Care class both sponsored by that group were well attended. The slip covering class will continue longer. The annual Garden Tea will be in June.

Favorite impressions of proposed work for the summer were made by the various committee chairmen and the chairmen were urged to get their publicity to the committee chairman, Mrs. M. H. Freeman for publication regularly.

The Executive Secretary, Miss Ruby Stroud, reported more classes had met in the YW during the month of April than any other month since the organization of the branch. She asked for more cooperation from the new committees.

Mrs. Lillian Cannady, chairman of the health program gave an outline of her group.

Atlanta Citizens Register 955 Persons In Three Hours

ATLANTA, Ga. — In a last minute effort to reach their goal of 25,000 registered Negroes before the books closed here Saturday, 955 persons were registered within three hours here Friday, according to satistics released Monday.

With the registration books closing at 5:00 p. m. Saturday, and with an average registration of 1,000 daily during the past week, an all time record has ben established for Fulton county, which includes Atlanta.

According to the All-Citizens Registration Committee, 250 Negroes on Friday and 396 Saturday were in line for registration before the books opened at 8:30. It was estimated Saturday that the number of Negroes on he books was around the 25,000 mark.

In an effort to counteract the heavy Negro registration the Democratic Executive Committee of the Fifth Congressional District has voted to abandon its effort to nominate a Congressman by plurality and is returning to the county-unit system.
