Charlotte Chapter Of Hadassah

Where should important papers be kept?

What steps can a woman take now to protect herself in the event of an unforeseen catastrophe?

These are just a few of the questions that will be answered from "A Check-List of What Every Woman Needs to Know" Wednesday, March 28, at Rain-tree Country Club at 11:30 a.m. This important topic, on Hadassah's Education Day, will be discussed by Marguerite Tracy, insurance agent Tom Woolen and trust officer Mack Upchurch. Co-chairing the event are Anita Grey, Jeri Gertzman and Judy Sutker; they may be contacted for more information.

Hadassah Bible Study, led by Gladys Lavitan, will be held on March 13 and 27 at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Judy Perlin, 311 Glen Oaks Rd.

The 1979 Hadassah Directory will be available in March from the JCC, the Temples, or from distribution editor Arlene Karp. This is the Charlotte Chapter's main fundraising project.

Hebrew Cemetery Association

Wherever Jews have settled, one of the first things they did was to purchase some small plot of land as a sacred resting place for their dead. Over 100 years ago, the few Jewish families who were then living in Charlotte purchased about 20 acres of land which has since been used as the Jewish Cemetery of this area. The Cemetery is available to all of us, regardless of our station in life. It dramatizes the Evening of Elegance

The Sisterhood of Temple Beth El is having "Another Evening of Elegance" (progressive dinner) on Saturday, March 24, 1979. roots which many of our families have established and which, as time goes on, will become even more sacred in the hearts of our Jewish community.

However, the physical facilities of our Cemetery require constant upkeep and financial support. In this effort, we need your help. First of all, we are appealing to you to join the Hebrew Cemetery Association. The dues are $20 per year per member (tax deductible). If (as the tradition says) after 120 years, a beloved one goes to his or her reward, there are, of course, special rates which apply only to members in good standing (for at least six months).

If any reader should be interested in more information about the Hebrew Cemetery Association, call Hilbert Fuerstman - 523-2795, Nat Roberts - 542-0095, or Morris Speizman - 372-3751.

Oops

In our last issue Marta Garlik's name was misspelled; under the contributors to the Hebrew Academy it should have said Mr. and Mrs. A.L. Melasky; it was Daniel Brenner, not his brother David, at the dreidle factory. Our apologies.

Pay your J.C.C. dues.

Ort -A-Thon

This month the Charlotte Chapter of ORT will be joining the 135,000 members in Women's American ORT in 1,000 chapters from coast to coast in bringing the ORT message to each community via phon-a-thons.

During the week of March 5th the Charlotte Ortists will be calling you! This is the time for you to come forward and become part of ORT, where education today means freedom and dignity for the future. This belief in education has played a major part in the survival of the Jewish people.

DID YOU KNOW???

•ORT is a century old movement in Jewish life, committed to fostering and strengthening Jewish identity.

•ORT is the largest, non-governmental vocational education and training program in the world.

•ORT operates in 30 countries, on 5 continents.

•There are presently 55,000 students enrolled in 86 centers in Israel, the largest ORT network.

•The world ORT network of schools, workshops, and laboratories represents 83,000 students learning 90 different trades and skills.

WHAT ARE OUR GOALS???

•ORT's continuance as an integral part in Israel's achievement as a technological nation.

•ORT educated young people combining Jewish heritage and course study.

•Service to the American Jewish community as a force against anti-semitism.
