Miscellaneous.

THE SQUIRE AND HIS WIFE.

The Squire had a friend to visit him on business, and was very much annoyed to be interrupted by his wife, who came to ask him if he would not have some refreshment. The Squire impatiently said "No!"

Business detained his friend till dinner time, and the Squire urged him to remain. The Squire was a generous provider, proud of his table; and he complacently escorted his friend to a seat. A little to the surprise of both, they saw nothing on the board but a huge dish of salad, which the good wife began quietly to serve up.

'My dear,' said the Squire, 'where are the meats?'

'There are none to-day,' replied the lady.

'No meats! What in the name of poverty? The vegetables, then? Why don't you have the vegetables?'

'You didn't order vegetables.'

'Order! I didn't order anything!' said the amazed Squire.

'You forget,' coolly answered the housewife. 'I asked you what we should have, and you said, lettuce alone!' Here it is.'

The friend burst into a laugh, and the Squire, after looking lurid and lugubrious a moment, joined him.

'Wife, I give it up. I owe you one.—Here is the fifty dollars you wanted for that carpet, which I denied you.' The Squire forked over. 'Now, let's have peace and some dinner.'

The good woman pocketed the paper, rang the bell, and a sumptuous repast of fish, poultry and vegetables was brought in.

A few days afterwards, the Squire remained working in the garden some time after the usual tea hour. His wife grew impatient of delay, and went to find him. His excuse, when she asked what he was waiting for, threw her into a flutter of excitement.

'Some one's to come to supper!' he exclaimed.

Why didn't you tell me? I declare you are the provokingest man!'

And without asking which of his friends was expected, she hastened to change her dress and 'slick up' her hair on the occasion. This done, she came out and found the Squire seated at the table, reading his newspaper.

'Where's your company? I hadn't any company.' 'But you said you expected somebody to supper!' exclaimed the indignant wife.

'My dear, I said no such thing. You asked me what I was waiting for, and I said, 'Summons to come to supper.' That is what I was waiting for, my dear. And I came at once.'

'And you have made me go and change my dress! Oh! I'll pay you for this.'

'No matter about it, my dear, I owed you, remember, for that lettuce.'

THE BROKEN SWING.

"Father, may I go and play to-day with the swing?" said a little boy, just as he was getting ready to go out.

"No, my child, not to-day," answered the father, "to-morrow you can go."

To-morrow—it was too long for the impatient child.

A little later, when his father had gone out, the child, standing at the window, saw right before him the swing hanging between two trees at the bottom of the garden.

"If I swing a little," he said to himself "nobody would know it. I will only have just one turn."

So he ran into the garden, and climbed into the swing. Great was his joy for a few minutes, and he could not help crying between each swing, "I wonder why father said this morning that I must not swing!"

All at once the cord broke! The child fell to the ground. His mother, terrified, ran out with a servant; they lifted him up and carried him into the house. The poor little fellow had broken his arm.

His sorrow was very bitter when he saw his mother's grief; he had, too, to bear a great deal of pain when the doctor reset the arm; but what cured him most was to see his father come home at night, bringing a beautiful rope, quite new, intended to secure against accident the beloved one whom that day he had been obliged to deprive of a pleasure that had become dangerous.

Dear children, your parents also find themselves sometimes obliged to refuse your requests. Have confidence in their love and in their wisdom, without always seeking to know the wherefore of their refusal.

When you are older, you will see that our kind Heavenly Father does the same with us. He does not always grant us all we ask, because He knows that it will be hurtful to us. Trust, then, and with greater reason, His love and His wisdom, when you cannot understand the motives of His dealings with you.

We often ask for things which, if they were granted, would prove to us what the swing was to the little boy; and our disobedience is sure to produce only bitter fruit.

MORAL AGENTS.—A ring of the door bell, and a simultaneous and unusually furious bark of his dog, informed the Rev. Mr. T——, one day, that a stranger stood at his door. He opened the door himself, and a gentleman bowed and said:

"The Rev. Mr. T——, I presume."

"Yes sir."

"My name is Jones, and I am an agent of the Moral Reform Society, or as some are pleased to call me a Moral Agent."

"Will you walk in, Mr. Jones?" said the hospitable Mr. T——, inviting the way.

"Thank you, sir," said the man, walking in. "I was rather roughly greeted by your dog here, just now, and there is a certain passage of scripture, brother T——, that I shall have to recommend to your attention—"

"Beware of dogs."

"Oh, sir," said Mr. T——, turning round, and speaking with earnest simplicity, "you misquote the morning. That passage was not intended to apply to those who are called Moral Agents."

—A man could [illegible] the man who [illegible] the house to sin not even his sick.

—What is life? A short journey through time to eternity; then keep your eye and your hearts to the end of your race.

—I have a good ear, a wonderful ear, and a remarkable memory in the course of conversation.

"So has a jackass," replied a bystander.

—Why is a muff like a fool? Because it holds a lady's hand without squeezing it.

We speak in this matter—WHAT WE DO KNOW, after long years' experience, AND PLEDGE OUR REPUTATION FOR THE FULFILMENT OF WHAT WE HERE DECLARE. In almost every instance within the child is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found to follow in twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most EXPERIENCED and SKILLFUL NURSES in New England, and has been used with NEVER FAILING SUCCESS in

THOUSANDS OF CASES.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

Griping in the Bowels and Wind Colic

CHEROKEE REMEDY.

CURES FROM ONE TO THREE DAYS.

AN UNFAILING CURE FOR

Gonorrhœa & all Diseases of the Urinary Organs.

THIS REMEDY cures when all other preparations fail. It is entirely unlike every other compound; containing no MINERAL POISON or NARCOTIC DRUG; as it is prepared solely from ROOTS, BARKS AND LEAVES, and has been handed down, from one generation to another, by the CHEROKEE INDIANS. It is offered to the public on its own intrinsic merits. It performs its duty quickly and thoroughly. The UNFORTUNATE, of either sex will be cured by using this REMEDY, instead of placing themselves at the mercy of some Quack or Poisoner. This REMEDY strikes at the very Root of the disease; its tendency is not simply to suppress the poison, but to REMOVE THE CAUSE on which it depends.—Full directions in pamphlet form, accompany each bottle.—The speedy and permanent relief afforded by this Remedy, in all cases of GONORRHŒA, GLEET, GRAVEL, STRICTURE, FLOUR ALBUS, (WHITES IN FEMALES), and all Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, has astonished the most scientific men of the age. This Remedy not only eradicates all Poisons from the SYSTEM but INVIGORATES the most delicate constitution.

Heimstreet's Inimitable
HAIR COLORING!

PERFECT HAIR RESTORER,

promoting the strength and growth of the Hair, and giving it all the beauty of youth. Do you doubt it?

SCHUYLER LAKE, Essex Co., N. Y., February 6, 1858.

W. E. HAGAN, Troy, N. Y.—Dear Sir:

Having used your Hair Coloring or Restorative, and being much pleased with it, I take pleasure in making the following statement: From the effects of a very severe fever of sickness, when about 18 years of age, my hair commenced turning grey, and so continued to grow until it became perfectly white, being very harsh and coarse. Last Summer I had recalled my fifty thirty-eight, when I was induced by a friend to purchase two bottles of Heimstreet's Hair Restorative prepared by you. I commenced using it according to directions, and in a few days was surprised to find that my hair from the roots outward was returning back to its original color. It so continued to grow until it was as truly brown and glossy as it was in my youthful days, and is now fully restored to its original color.

MYLA SEAMAN.

Essex Co., ss.—Myla Seaman came before me and was duly sworn, and says that the above statement is true, this 6th day of February, 1858.

JOEL F. POTTER, Justice of the Peace.

PITTSFORD, VT., Aug. 1, 1857.

I hereby certify, that my hair having become quite grey, I used Heimstreet's Hair Restorative, prepared by W. E. Hagan, of Troy, N. Y., for four weeks, and my hair was in that time restored to its original color. I can fully recommend the article to be all it claims.

WM. KINGSLEY,
Pastor of the Baptist Church, Pittsford, Vt.

Mr. W. E. Hagan: I have used Heimstreet's Hair Restorative for three years, and have found it to be a most excellent article. It not only restored the color of my hair, giving it new life and strength, but it cured myself and wife of a most obstinate eruption on the scalp, which nothing else seemed to benefit. I fully believe it to be the best article in use. Yours Respectfully,

SNOWDON HOWLAND.

The above are but a few of the many letters of recommendation which have been tendered to the proprietors of Heimstreet's Hair Coloring or Restorative. It has been used by thousands of people, and it never fails to restore the color and growth of the hair. This singular effect is not produced by what it is applied, but it acts upon the natural secretions of coloring matter at the roots, and gives effects the change. The color produced is not a counterfeit, but the natural color of youth. It does not color the skin.

Price 50c and $1.00 per Bottle. Sold everywhere.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THE Proprietor of this Hotel is still at his post ready to fall in the footsteps of "none but" to the travelling public and others who may call on him, and he flatters himself that comfortable quarters can be found with him as any where in this vicinity. Being situated nearly in the centre of Charlotte, Business Men will find this Hotel a most convenient and desirable location. He has been engaged in the business at this stand nearly eighteen years, and in that time he has made several additions to his former house, and it has been greatly enlarged and improved, presenting in front a two story VERANDA 100 feet in length by 12 feet in width, handsomely shaded by trees on the side walk, affording a pleasant promenade at all hours of the day.

The House has been thoroughly furnished throughout, and in every part of it creature comforts are abundant and tangible, especially in the DINING ROOM, where the "inner man" is "renewed" day by day.

Connected with this Hotel are Stables affording room for 100 horses, abundantly furnished with grain and provender, attended by faithful and obliging hostlers.

The Proprietor believes confident that with his long experience and many new advantages added to his desire to please, he is prepared to offer his friends and the "rest of mankind," as many comforts and as much good cheer as will be found anywhere, perhaps a little more so.

☞ At any rate try the Charlotte Hotel.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

A compound remedy, in which we have labored to place, in the most efficient and active form, only such alterative and tonic medicines as are universally recognized as the best of their class, and to combine with other substances of still greater alterative power, such as shall exert a decided influence for the cures of those complaints for which it is intended. It is believed that such a remedy is wanted by those who suffer from Scrofulous complaints, and that one which will do reliable duty in these cases will be welcomed by the profession and those who suffer from the terrible maladies which it controls. It is believed that such a remedy has been produced by experiment in many of the cases to be found of the following complaints:

SCROFULA AND SCROFULOUS COMPLAINTS, ERUPTIONS AND ERUPTIVE DISEASES, ULCERS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, TUMORS, SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, SYPHILIS AND SYPHILITIC AFFECTIONS, MERCURIAL DISEASES, DROPSY, NEURALGIA OR TIC DOULOUREUX, DYSPEPSIA, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, DEBILITY, DISEASES AND DISORDERS OF THE LIVER, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from IMPURITY of the BLOOD.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which foster in the blood at this season of the year. By the timely expulsion of these many troubling disorders are spared in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and obstinate sores, through which the system will strive to free itself of its impurities, if not assisted to do so by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is sluggish and clogged in its velocity; cleanse it whenever it refers, as it will, by telling you when. Even those in particular health, or who think they enjoy better health and live longer by cleansing the blood, keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this possessing of life-blood, with every sore to be healing within, disease is later something more or vitiating, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

The specific has, and deserves much, the reputation of a most efficient blood medicine. But this would not have universally obtained by proclamation of it, partly because the drug alone is but one of the sorts. But it should be, it was more honest money proposition, pertaining to its concentrated extracts of it, without including all the virtues of Sarsaparilla, or any thing else.

Trusting to prove the public have been solicited by large bidding, partly to give a quart of bills, or of strong words for one dollar. Much of those has been beside the mark, for they had only common bills, if any, for quantity, but of extraordinary properties, which, of course, fitted and yourself disappointment. Sarsaparilla is one of our medical extractives, therapeutically which fixed the number, since the time it is in use, and has been [illegible] with the compound for months, and [illegible] to supply such a want by a short course. It comes from the hand of nature, which is a source from the hand of nature, which is [illegible] and [illegible] by the ordinary powers of the system. It is not to be sold at a price. In order to ensure their complete administration from the very first, the remedy should be judiciously taken according to directions on the bottle.
