THE ROANOKE NEWS.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 30 1879.

Gov JARVIS has issued his proclamation appointing Thursday the 27th inst. The President has also appointed that day for the same purpose.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The Democratic party has a work to do next year, which will require all of its talent, time and labor to accomplish. It will have to bend every energy to establish the fact that this is a government of the people and that the people intend to rule. The Republican party is rushing on to monarchy in spirit if not in name; and success to them in 1881 is abolition of all Republican institutions, so far as those institutions interfere with any object they may have in view whether it be to steal or keep in power. The failure of the Democrats will lose them all they have gained during years of trouble and almost hopeless struggling. There can be only one way for us to maintain the ground we have gained, and that is, to be united and keep so. No party can please each individual member, and we should be personally dissatisfied, let us not bolt and impede the fight. Let us rather pocket our disappointments for the good of the whole. Any lukewarmers or obstinacy will not advance our personal wishes, nor soothe our individual grievances. Every good Democrat is willing to do whatever the party may think best for its success. We have seen enough of family quarrels in New York and Virginia to deplore them and strive to avoid them. They are serious, and the consequences may be ruinous. Let us beat the enemy first and then adjust our own differences, if there be any; that some chances might be just we do not deny, but that they are just now expedient is very doubtful. At all events there is plenty of time for quarrels inside where there is no evening in front.

The convention of the people must mark out the course of the party and the party must abide by it. Don't stay away from the convention and then say it didn't do right.

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

By authority of law, I, Thomas J. Jarvis, Governor of North Carolina, do set apart Thursday, Nov. 27, 1877, as a day of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God for the manifold mercies and blessings He has vouchsafed to us during the year now passing away.

And in order for its proper observance I request the people on that day to close up their places of business, and abandoning all secular pursuits to attend their respective places of Divine worship to return thanks to the Great Ruler of individuals and nations for the peace and tranquility which we have enjoyed; for the exemption from pestilence and disease which he has given us; for the kind and friendly relations that have existed among all classes of our citizens, for the general and growing prosperity that has pervaded the whole state, and for all His varied blessings bestowed upon us, and to invoke a continuance of His watchful care and protection over us during the coming year. And while it will be becoming on that day to remember the widow and the orphan, and the poor and needy everywhere among us, and to minister to their wants, I especially commend to the prayers and gifts of the people the orphans in the Asylum at Oxford, who are now dependent for a support solely upon the charity of the people, the State appropriation for that purpose being entirely exhausted.

Done at the city of Raleigh this the 11th day of November, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine; and in the one hundred and fourth year of our American Independence.

By the Governor:
THOMAS J. JARVIS.
LEE S. OVERMAN,
Private Secretary.

CROOKED RETURNS.

EGREGIOUS ERRORS IN THE NEW YORK COUNT.

New York, November 14.—The returns from all the sixty counties in the State, with the exception of four, have been canvassed by the county supervisors and sent to the State board of canvassers at Albany. The four yet to be heard from, officially, are New York, Kings, Allegheny and Greene. That the entire Republican State ticket, with the exception of Mr. Soule, as State Engineer and Surveyor, is elected, there can be no doubt. The majorities already officially declared being sufficient to establish that fact without Allegheny and Greene, which will still further increase the Republican vote. The canvass has developed the most egregious errors on the part of the inspectors in almost every county in the State, whether designedly or not, and more trickery has been resorted to than at any general election held for years. For instance, in West Chester county 1,660 persons voted for Mr. Soule for State Engineer, instead of for "State Engineer and Surveyor," and the county canvassers, in pursuance of the law regulating such matters, have counted them as scattering. Some Republicans claim when the returns for West Chester come before the State board to be canvassed that these votes will be allowed Mr. Soule, but this is not the case, as the duties of the State board are purely ministerial, and they cannot, like the famous returning boards, go behind the returns. The most reliable figures show that in round numbers the majorities for the various candidates will be as follows: Cornell, Republican, Governor, 49,300; Hoskins, Republican, Lieutenant Governor, 1,200; Carr, Republican, Secretary of State, 4,500; Wadsworth, Republican, Comptroller, 7,700; Ward, Republican, Attorney General, 8,000; Wendell, Republican, Treasurer, 4,700; Seymour, Democrat, Engineer and Surveyor, 10,000; Kelly's vote, 77,500.

The county canvassers met again at the City hall this morning and resumed counting the election returns, beginning with the Fourth assembly district. The figures varied very slightly from those already published. The ballots in many cases were not correctly certified, and the inspectors in every instance were summoned to rectify the omissions. Judge Waterbury was to represent the Irving Hall Democracy. The canvass is going smoothly and quietly. The attendance in the chamber to-day was quite slim. The derelict inspectors of the assembly districts already canvassed appeared in a body at the city hall today, and were taken to the Governor's room, where the committee on corrected returns were in session, and there made such corrections of irregularities as appeared on the ballots. The returns seemed to be very much muddled. A communication was received from the board of county canvassers, asking the board to instruct the clerk of the bureau of elections to send them copies of the election returns as filed at police headquarters, the reason given being that the returns forwarded to them are deficient;

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 14.—Our tables this morning show the following pluralities: Cornell, 39,172; Hoskins, 1,116; Carr, 2,213; Wadsworth, 7,657; Wendell, 3,287; Ward, 7,195. We have yet to hear officially from the counties of Allegheny, Kings, New York, Ontario and Westchester.

(Signed) S. C. HUTCHINS.
Albany Morning Express.

THE RESULT IN NEW YORK.

At last the New York Sun has received the official returns from fifty of the sixty counties in the State. A close comparison between these and the unofficial returns from the other ten counties indicates that Mr. Hoskins, republican, for Lieutenant-Governor, has defeated Mr. Clarkson N. Potter, by about 1,100 majority; that Mr. Carr, republican candidate for Secretary of State, is elected by the same majority; that Mr. Wadsworth, the republican candidate for Comptroller, will have an increased majority over that of Mr. Hoskins, and that Mr. Ward and Mr. Wendell, republicans, are also elected as Attorney-General and Treasurer. The majority for Horatio Seymour, Jr., democrat, for Engineer and Surveyor, will be over 10,000. John Kelly's vote is increased over the previous estimates will reach 75,000.

The election of Seymour for Engineer and Surveyor, in spite of the schism in the democratic party, demonstrates beyond all questions that New York is safe for the democratic presidential candidate next year.
