YWCA ACTIVITIES

The Public Affairs Committee held its last public forum of the season on Sunday, May 15, at the Congregational Church with Miss E. Hicks, chairman presiding.

Charles S. Pempleton, superintendent of St. Agnes Hospital, was guest speaker and discussant lead. He gave a brief history of St. Agnes.

Mr. Tampleton said St. Agnes is in need of additional equipment, buildings and a steam plant. He also said that about $22,000 worth of new equipment had recently been purchased and that St. Agnes death rate is lower than other well known hospitals located near Raleigh.

The Y-Teen Sommite held its last meeting of the season at the YWCA on Monday night, May 16. Miss Lipon, Y-Teen chairman and coordinator, gave a review of the year's activities. She also stated how money was needed to help send the girls to Camp Eleanor Young in June.

YW CLUB

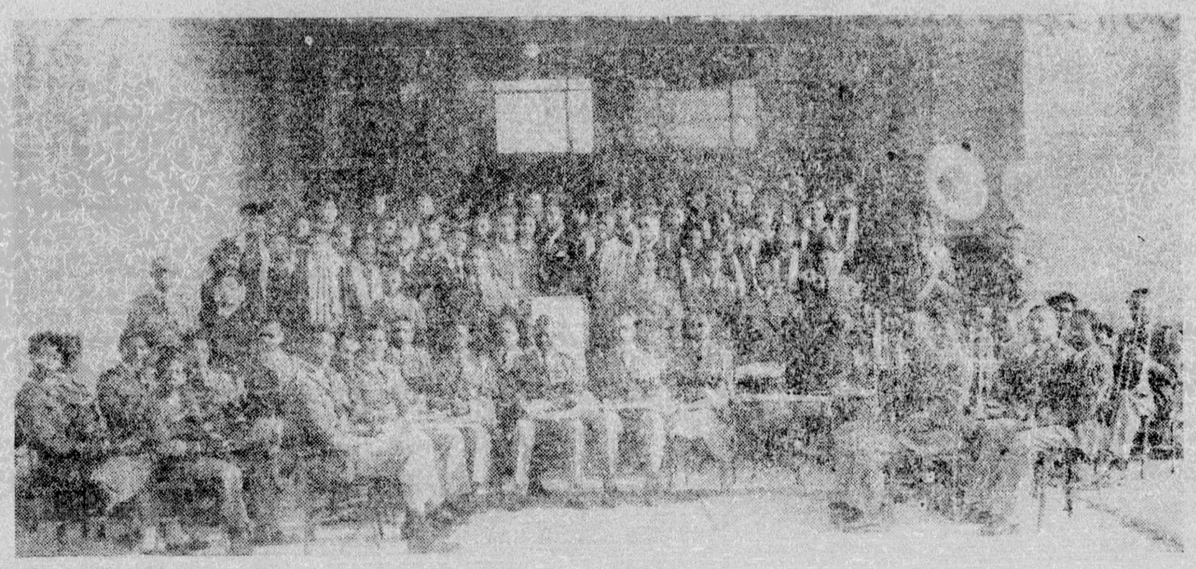
The Y. W. Club at Central Y. W. C. A., 226 South Salisbury Street was hostess to the Y. W. and B. and I. Clubs from Sojourner Truth Branch YWCA on Tuesday night, May 17. The United Nations was analysed and discussed by members of all three clubs. Miss Jean Jernigan who was "Y" representative at the San Francisco Conference was leader of the discussion. A fellowship hour followed and refreshments were served.

The Religious Emphasis Committee held its regular monthly meeting at the YWCA on Tuesday night, May 17, with the chairman presiding. The group reviewed its activities and plans for the year. A fellowship hour followed. Mrs. H. S. Jones is chairman; Mrs. W. S. Leckhart is organizer.

The Young Ladies of the B. and I. Club will attend a dance at Ft. Bragg on Monday night, May 23. The bus will leave the "Y" at 6:30 P. M. Only young ladies receiving cards will be permitted to go. Miss Laura Brown is chairman. Ms. Marjorie Williams is secretary.

Watch this column for summer activities at the "Y". We plan to offer several classes that will be of interest to you. Plan now to attend the summer activities at the YWCA.

Have you joined the YWCA? You owe it to yourself and the community to become a member. A YWCA membership costs you only $1.50 and it is honored by all YWCA's throughout the U. S. A. Join now!



APPEARED AT DEDICATION — Above are shown members of the Washington High School Choral Club and band who provided music for the dedication of the new Washington High School gymnasium which was held Sunday.

Others who appeared on the program included Mayor P. D. Snipes, Superintendent of Raleigh Schools Jesse O. Sanderson, School Board member F. J. Carnage, W. J. Kennedy of the N. C. Recreation Commission, Mrs. G. E. Cheek, president of the Washington High PTA, and Leonidas Frazier and E. L. Ratford of the Raleigh Citizens Association.

The band is under the direction of Leon Thompson, director of band music in the Raleigh Negro schools, while the chorus is directed by Mrs. E. M. Kelly.

CHAVIS HEIGHTS

BY MAY L. BROADIE

Charlie Jeffries of 311 East Cabarrus Street is spending his vacation with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jones in Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Lillie Timberlake of Baltimore, Md., has returned home after visiting her brother, Alfred Brown of 6 Dare Terrace.

Willie Little of New York City has returned home after visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Miss Violet Carr of 8 Grandville Terrace, who has been ill with measles, is able to be out again.

Master Lavern Hinton of 6 Dare Terrace has been confined to his home with measles. Hurry and get well, darling.

Little Miss Evelyn Wesley of 10 Ashe Terrace celebrated her 4th birthday recently. She received many useful presents. Happy birthday darling.

Mrs. Ola Brown, Baltimore, Md., and daughter, Mrs. Emma Taylor of New York City, are visiting Mrs. Brown's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown of 6 Dare Terrace. They are the house guests of Mrs. Brown's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Diallo, 721 West South Street.

Mrs. Vivian Moore, a long time resident of Raleigh, who moved to Goldsboro, has returned to the city. She lives at 801 South East Street.

Mrs. Arnetta Brown of 6 Dare Terrace was elected delegate for the Progressive Council of Elks in the Elks Staff Association which will convene in Wilmington, N. C., on May 23 to 24.

Mrs. Ruth Davis of 606 South Washington Street has returned home after spending several days in Winsboro, S. C., with her mother-in-law. She also attended the funeral of Joe Mack, a former resident of this city. His funeral was held last week in Winsboro, S. C.

The Booker T. Washington Club will meet Sunday, May 22 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Reids, 527 South East Street. All officers and members are urged to attend. The president is Joan Chis.

The Tenants League of Chavis Heights met Monday night in the Administration Building where several Tenants were present with the president, Eddie M. Saunder. All Tenants are invited and urged to be present at the next regular meeting the 3rd Monday evening in June at 8 P. M.

Mrs. M. Saundersl of New York City has returned home after visiting her mother, Mrs. James Watkins of 6 Iredell Terrace.

PERSONALS

Clifton Grandy of 216 Heck St. has returned home from the hospital Uteen, N. C.

The Fuel Club of St. Paul AME Church met at the home of Mrs. Catherine Williams, 204 Heck St.

Miss Frances Birdsall wishes to express her sincere thanks to the teacher and members of the Fannie O'Kelly Peace Bible Class of St. Paul Church for the gift of a tool chest.

During the vacation of Reverend Coains, pastor of the Davie Street Presbyterian Church, the pulpit is being filled by Reverend G. R. Perry of the AME Church.

The city-wide Junior and Senior Missionary Union sponsored a Mother and Daughter Tea May 12 at the YWCA.

Mrs. A. B. Johnson was mistress of ceremonies for the program which followed.

Home to Mother, Mrs. Alleyl Sanders' group singing, accompanied by Mrs. June Thomas; Reading, "The Master," Mrs. Susie Wilcox; Duet, Miss Luverna Rouse and Mrs. Hayzel Houston, accompanist Mrs. Purdy; Address, Mrs. Ellen Alston, dedication, "To Mothers," Mrs. A. B. Johnston, Essaying mothers to their special gifts, Mrs. June Thomas, Miss Ag[illegible] honoring Mrs. Mary Burwell and Mrs. Cora P. Thomas, mothers in Missions"; To Mrs. Mary Burwell word of honor by Mrs. Effie Redgers, word of honor to Mrs. Cora P. Thomas by Mrs. Harriett Smith Jones.

Gift presented by Mrs. A. A. Morrisey, remarks by the Rev. A. B. Johnston.

Miss Margrett Parker, chairman and hostess; the color scheme was red and white. Candle rose formed lovely decorations. Sandwiches, punch, cookies and mints were served by the Junior Supervisors and Junior Missionary [illegible].

Dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Annie E. Johnson at 228 Bledsoe Ave. were Misses Lucille Brown, Raleigh; Catherine Judd, Raleigh; Dot Elliott of Vass, N. C. who is now finishing her last year college work here in Raleigh at Shaw University and Clarence Elliott, brother of Miss Elliott of Vass, also a student at Shaw U. now doing his practice teaching at Berry O-Kelly school.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rogers Jr., baby Antoinette Eileen Rogers, and sister Mrs. Elizabeth Schmoke spent Mother's Day with their mother, Mrs. P. B. Freeman of Cabarrus St. Mrs. Rogers was before her marriage Miss Hermine Schmoke. Miss Elizabeth Schmoke is a teacher in the West Cabrlotte High School.

Annual Prom Held At New WHS Gymnasium

BY LILLIE MAE WATSON

On Friday night at the Washington School Gymnasium, the Senior Class of the annual Junior-Senior Prom where approximately 300 guests including parents and friends were present. The new gymnasium was beautifully decorated with tall columns and illumined with multi-colored bulbs. The guests were given an impression of fairyland enchantment. Behind the lighted columns was the orchestra which was surrounded by trees and flowers. Extending from the ceiling decorations. Among these were Mr. Scotty, coach of the Washington High School, Mr. Kelly, music. Those not present were the guests of the evening.

The music furnished by the Wright Paradise Night Hawks was both danceable and pleasing. Extending from the ceiling decorations. Among these were L. T. Wright, physical education, Mrs. E. Kelly, music. Those not present were the guests of the evening.

The guests were welcomed in the corridor by Robert Adams, Janet Fields, James Wallace and Joetina Doe. As each female guest entered the building she received a beautiful souvenir booklet containing the entire program of the evening made by Junior students the Earlene Ross, under the guidance of Miss Janice Gray. During intermission the guests were served punch and cookies and Wolcott Wall. Entertaining a special group from Communities in the sophomore and junior classes, the new gymnasium was dedicated by the new president of the club.

The committees under the last meeting of the club were: Robert Adams, James Wallace, Boykin Jordan, class was hostess to the Senior Class at the annual Junior-Senior Prom where approximately 300 guests including parents and friends were present. The new gymnasium was beautifully decorated with tall columns and illumined with multi-colored bulbs. Wednesday the students were given an impression of fairyland enchantment. Behind the lighted columns was the orchestra which was surrounded by trees and flowers. Extending from the ceiling decorations. Among these were L. T. Wright, physical education, Mrs. E. Kelly, music. Those not present were the guests of the evening.

The music furnished by the Wright Paradise Night Hawks was both danceable and pleasing