"There's something in a flying car.
There's something in a huge balloon;"
and if the Poet Woodworth had given to his sick horse or cow a certain popular remedy, he would undoubtedly have added in conclusion—
There's something in a dose of powders.
Every dose of these powders speak for itself. It cures all the diseases of horses and cows, and its effects are daily perceptible. If you have a sick horse or cow—haggard, broken down and worm out with diseases—administer the powders, and watch the result. It is, without any equivocation, the greatest horse and cattle medicine in the world.

REWARDS.

FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.
$500. A REWARD of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS will be paid out of the Town Treasury, for the apprehension and delivery at the Jail in this place, of the negro man BILL WANET, now running at large, who has recently committed a foul murder. Said negro is the property of Dr. T. B. Carr; is about five feet eight inches in height, aged about fifty five, dark copper colour, bowlegged, thick set, and bald head—has a wife in Wilmington, the property of Alfred Martin, Esq. Said BILL has been a runaway for three years past, during which time he has been lurking in and around Wilmington, frequently passing off as a woman, and is full of schemes for dodging arrest.
The above reward will be paid immediately on his delivery as above. JOHN DAWSON, Mayor.
