ABOUT TO WN

With Sarah Virgo

Hi there, here we are again with a bit more chatter on the happenings "About Town". Give me a listening ear won't you and don't forget now, whenever something happens out your way either to your friends or to you, just drop us a card to Saint Augustine's College or give us a call at 2-4567. We'll be waiting to hear from you. Don't forget us.

Well, I guess you take I will be raving over "King" Cole, Sarah Vaughan, Illinois Jacquet, Ralph Moore, Peg Leg Bates and George Kirby, all members of the fall edition of the "Big Show", for many seasons to come. It was wonderful, don't you think? I went simply wild over that great sax player, Jacquet, so wild in fact I went out and bought one of his records. I'll bet you did too. Why not admit it? I just hope the group won't wait so long before they come this way again.

Well, I know there's one thing that I'm not raving over and that is the game, St. Augustine played on Saturday afternoon with Johnson C. Smith. Our dear old "Famous" lost by a score of 14-9. They played a great game but it seems not quite great enough. Better luck next week.

On Friday morning, Mrs. Marcella Ford, assistant professor and director of the Christian Education Department of Shaw University, spoke to the students and faculty members in Greenleaf Auditorium on Observations from a European Tour.

She told of many job opportunities in foreign lands in many departments. She stressed the importance of becoming familiar with the languages of other countries to help in overcoming the barriers of friendship.

"People of other countries," Mrs. Ford said, "are asking us to go along with them and treat mankind in kind for democracy."

A series of conferences for Negro principals and supervisors will begin next week, announced by the State Department of Public Instruction.

Mr. G. H. Ferguson, director of the Division of Negro Education, said the first of the six conferences will be held at Edenton High School, October 12.

PERSONALS

Seen "about town" during the week end were Messrs. Bobby Gene Crossling, James "Bobby" Dave, Louis "Teeter" Spencer, James Greene, all members of various divisions of the armed forces. It was grand to see these former classmates.

President Hollis F. Price, LeMoyne College of Memphis, Tenn., spoke to an audience in the First Baptist Church on Sunday afternoon. The occasion was the first Freedom Day Observance in Raleigh. President Price listed the following as the six basic principles of democracy:

"Minorities must think in terms of the total good," Price said. He emphasized that Negroes in Raleigh, as elsewhere, must work out the problem of citizenship through our Democratic processes. He listed these processes as the intelligent use of the ballot, through the courts and contributions to social programs of the community.

The all girl chorus of the Berry O'Kelly school sang "America." The Rev. G. A. Fisher, minister of St. Ambrose Church led the invocation and Charles Jones, president, introduced Mr. Price.

Social Club Celebrates Its Second Anniversary

RALEIGH—One of the most enjoyable events of the season was the Anniversary Box Party given by the Hunter Park Social Club Saturday night, September 26 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Ellis on Coleman Street. The club had decided a unique way to celebrate the second anniversary of the club would be in the form of a Box Party and it proved to be true.

The first part of the evening was spent in various games which kept everyone full of laughter, expectancy and fun. The president, Mrs. Geneva Brown, greeted the guests along with Mrs. Thomas H. Wilcox and Mrs. Bessie M. Wesley. Mrs. Wesley became a member of the club last spring was given welcoming ceremonies. Then those wonderful boxes, laden with all sorts of goodies were opened and enjoyed. The charming hostess served delicious punch, fried chicken and all the trimmings, predominated most of the box lunches.

Those enjoying this unusual affair were Mesdames Rogerline Gay, Lucy Farrar, Frances Autry, Nannie Belle Robinson, Ruth M. Lawrence, Lovie Ellis, Bessie M. Wesley, Geneva Brown, Alma Harrison and Catherine Williams; Messers. Walter Farrar and Zack Ellis.

Queen Of Hearts Club Holds Business Meeting

On Friday evening, October 2nd, Mrs. J. E. Cofield was hostess to members of the Queen of Hearts Club at her home on Smithfield Street. Since this was the club's first meeting since the summer vacation, there was quite a lengthy business session.

Highlighting the business session was the election of the following officers: Mrs. Sarah Speed, president; Miss Vivian Irving, secretary; Mrs. Ruth Davenport, treasurer and Mrs. Allie Peebles, reporter.

At the beginning of the social hour, Mrs. Cofield and her assistants served a delightful repast which was quite enjoyable.

Following the serving, members and guests enjoyed sessions of Canasta and pinochle. At the close of the evening, the amiable hostess awarded prizes to Mrs. Ruth Linton for high club pinochle, to Mrs. Florence Turner for high guest pinochle, to Mrs. Pauline Parker for low club pinochle (booby) and to Mrs. Ruth Davenport for high club Canasta.

Special guests present were Mrs. Roberta Lightner, Mrs. Florence Turner and Mrs. Martha W. Wheeler. Members present were Miss Vivian Irvin, Mesdames Ruth Davenport, Ruth Hinton, Vesnelle Lassiter, Marguerite Lightner, Pauline Parker, Allie Peebles, Sarah Speed and Merce L. Williams.
