

Chai

The past couple of months have been busy ones for the Chai group. The art class did some clay modeling and through the help of Garland Henderson the group was shown how to glaze them.

At one of the recent afternoon meetings the group was entertained with a slide presentation of the "Restoration of Fourth Ward" by Kimm Jolly, executive director of the Berryhill Preservation.

Elsie Bergen, coordinator of the Chai group, recently appeared on Channel 36 in a panel discussion on aging. She was interviewed by Art Norman, with emphasis on Chai's activities. Several pictures done by the art class were exhibited.

A special thank you is extended to Beverly Howard who has been instrumental in securing the interesting programs each week.

A unique happening will take place from May 3 to 6, 1979 at Wildacres, a picturesque moun-
