Yiddish Institute

taintop in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Western North Carolina, when the first Yiddish Institute presents a full program of Yiddish culture. This Institute is dedicated to the memory of I.D. Blumenthal.

The guest speaker-in-residence for the Institute will be Professor David Miller of the Yiddish department at Queens College, New York. Professor Miller has conducted workshops and seminars on the west coast as well as in New York City, and has been scholar-in-residence at various Yiddish literary gatherings. He is now at work on his doctorate.

Registration will be on Thursday, May 3 from 2 to 5 p.m. Dinner will be at 7 p.m. followed by a welcome program, guest speaker and singing. Each day will have lectures and workshops in language, poetry and literature and programs of folk singing and theatre. The Institute will be in session until Sunday morning breakfast.

A gift shop will be open, featuring books of Yiddish and Jewish content and gifts for every Yiddish "simcha" and every Yiddish home.

Found Guilty

Jerusalem Post Staff

A reserve soldier has been sentenced to 20 years in prison by a military court for murdering an Arab last April in what was described as a "private act of revenge" for the terrorist killing of another soldier.

Yisrael Lederman, a 43-year-old father of four from Jerusalem, has been found guilty of the premeditated murder of Samir Tuhani of East Jerusalem, shooting 14 bullets at him.

Tuhan was standing in the same spot where Avraham Deutsch, another reserve soldier, had been killed a day earlier. Lederman told the court that he acted in self-defense when Tuhani tried to grab his gun.

WHO CARES?

You don't know Reba...or Yacov... or Yael...or Nissim...or Sara.
Yet they and many others like them look to you: the elderly, the troubled, the disadvantaged here and overseas...thousands of new immigrants from crisis areas...300,000
still trying to get into the mainstream of creative life in Israel.

All those numbers. All those faceless people.

Does it really matter if the people of Israel are unable to absorb new immigrants from distressed areas?
Won't they manage somehow?

Does it matter what happens to youngsters
cut off from society because there's not enough money to guide them and help them?
Won't they grow up anyway?

And what does your gift matter to the aged and the young in remnant Jewish communities scattered through Eastern Europe, Asia and Africa?
Won't time tell their story?

You know it matters. It matters in their lives...and inside you. Your sense of who you are depends on your being part of the Jewish lifeline reaching around the corner and around the world to the Rebas, the Yacovs,
the Yaels, the Nissims, the Saras.

Make your pledge today to the 1979 campaign. Renew yourself as you renew Jewish life everywhere.

Who cares?
We do. You do.

Year of Jewish Renewal
at Home and Overseas
