The Old North State

SALISBURY, FRIDAY, MARCH 24, 1871.

LOCAL AND STATE ITEMS.

REASONS NOTICED.—We are requested to give notice that Rev. F. M. JORDAN, of Hillsboro, will preach in the Court House, in this place, on Friday night of this week. Mr. Jordan is a minister of the Baptist Church.

We assure our esteemed contemporary of the Washington, N. C. Express that it is not our fault that the Old North State has failed to teach him. It has been mailed to the Express regularly.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Dissolution of Partnership—Ring & Coblens.

Raleigh National Bank.

Prospectus of the Washington PATRIOT.

Pension Notice—J. A. Jones.

Bankrupt Notice—S. T. Carrow.

Assignee Notice—J. T. Caldwell.

A correspondent of the Raleigh Telegram urges the reorganization of the University of North Carolina with GOV. GRAHAM as President. We believe that no better selection could be made. He was long ago urged for the same position by this paper.

It is downright extravagance to buy music in sheet form, when you can get nearly twenty times your money's worth by subscribing to PETERS' MUSICAL MONTHLY. The April number is to hand, and contains the following beautiful selections.

Send the Little Ones Happy to Bed. Song and Chorus. Persley.

Alone by the Sea. Song and Chorush. Henry Tucker.

Building Castles in the Air. Scotch Melody.

Somebody Loves me Dearly. Song and Chorus. Persley.

Go, Pretty Flower, with Eyes of Blue. German Song. Hass.

Beautiful Days that are Dead. Quartet. Hollister.

Blue Eyes Galop. Harmistown.

Indiana Polka. Kinkel.

Take me Home. Transcription. L. Tonel.

The above pieces, if purchased in sheet-form, would cost $4.75. You can get the lot for thirty cents, by sending to J. L. PETERS, 599 Broadway, New-York, for the April Number of PETERS' MUSICAL MONTHLY.

MUSICAL.—"Among the thousand and one Pianos offered to the public, we scarcely know any instrument so fully uniting all the desirable qualities sought for as the Knabe Piano. The reputation of the Knabe Pianos is an infallible guaranty of excellence. In the houses of the most accomplished and wealthy of our citizens, and in our best seminaries and colleges, these magnificent instruments may be found. Nor is this any wonder, for, in purity, depth and constancy of tone, they are unsurpassed. Their gradation of scales is so exquisitely, and, at the time, comprehensively attuned, that they are capable of expressing every emotion of the human heart heat and soul. Their tone is exquisitely pure and unique, and so even, sweet and sympathetic that it inspires all who listen to it, while at the same time the action is perfectly free, and the keys resound to the touch with such sensitiveness and intelligence, so to speak, as to make one almost think that the wind of the manufacturer lingers in his work.—*Ij.

MASS MEETING IN DAVIDSON POSTPONED TO 8TH APRIL.—Owing to the heavy rain and violent wind on Saturday, the 8th March, the general meeting which was to have been held on that day in the court house to consider the Convention question, is put off until Saturday the 8th day of April, 1871, at which time and place the Hon. A. M. Scales and others will address the meeting.

March 8th, 1871.

ALFRED HARGRAVE, DAVID LOFTIN,
GEORGE RILEY, M. H. PINNIX,
C. F. LOWE, J. D. BODENHAMER,
N. B. ORRELL, WM. H. BERRIER,
S. S. JONES, PETER M. TICE,
And many others.

KILLED.—W. H. Reeves, son of Geo. Reeves, late of Orange county, N. C., was shot and instantly killed on the 1st inst, in a rencounter with N. R. Word, in the streets of Somerville, Tenn. Reeves was caning Word when shot, and received the contents of four or five barrels—Reeves returned one fire, which hit Word on the thumb—then staggered, fell and died.—Reeves was a graduate of the University of N. C.—Hillsboro Recorder.

STABBING AFFRAY.—On last Saturday afternoon an affray occurred near Hendersonville between Pinkney Robinson and Alex. Hollingsworth, in which the latter was dangerously, if not fatally stabbed. Robinson fled, but was pursued and overtaken on Sunday morning, when near the South Carolina line, and carried to Hendersonville, where he was tried and acquitted. The origin of the disturbance was the settlement of an old debt.—Asheville Pioneer.

BOUND OVER.—The case against A. J. Jones, late President of the Western Railroad, for failure and refusal to account with and transfer to his successor in office, closed yesterday afternoon, and Mr. Jones was bound over for his appearance at the next term of Cumberland Superior Court. The Chief Justice remanded him in the custody of the Sheriff until this morning, when he will name the amount of bond required; the indications were that it will be very heavy. It is said that the evidence was conclusive and positive, bearing strong indications of fraud and conspiracy between him and other parties. The investigation caused the contractor on the road to surrender the contract, (which had been let to Greensboro) together with $900,000 mortgage bonds of the road, which it was claimed had been surreptitiously issued and held, to the great detriment of the road and State.—Telegram.

AN OLD HOUSE.—The Vindicator says:—There is a substantial dwelling house (log) near Rutherfordton, which was of respectable middle age when George Washington's rebellion first began. It is in fair condition, and is still occupied as a dwelling house. It has a single brick chimney in the centre, with eight fire places in it. This house was the headquarters of Pat Furgeson, when he camped at Gilbertown, just before his disastrous defeat at King's Mountain, Oct. 7, 1780. One of Furgeson's officers was assassinated in it, and the stains of his blood still disfigure the floor.

GOV. GRAHAM.—The argument of this distinguished son of North Carolina yesterday, before the High Court of Impeachment, was the finest effort in behalf of constitutional government ever made in Raleigh. To the defense of constitutional liberty, and the law abiding citizens of the country, it was positively refreshing to listen to "the old man eloquent," and in the dignified presence of this representative man of a long line of great political masters, and old-fashioned statesmen of America, one could hardly realize the political degeneracy of the times, and scarcely help fancying that the immortal "Harry of the West" stood before him in all the fervor and eloquence of the "mill-boy of the slashes.—Telegram, 16th.

We learn from the Patriot that the Greensboro Axe handle factory received an order the other day direct from "United Germany," with King William's seal on it for a number of cases of sledge handles.

The Leaksville factory shipped during the war a number of pick handles to Paris where they were used in the fortifications.

North Carolina hickory is becoming famous, not ranking any other that shows itself in the market. Such institutions as these factories are of vast benefit to the people among whom they are established.

We are glad to learn that both of those mentioned are doing well.

JUDGE JONES.—The committee of the House appointed to examine into the alleged disgraceful conduct of Judge Jones, in Washington county, recently, have returned to the city—They have not officially reported as yet, but it is said that they ascertained that it was another Jones other than the Judge, who figured in the affair. We hope the report is true.—Telegram.

The Eclectic Magazine for April is at hand, and presents, as usual, a varied and attractive table of contents. Its leading article is an essay written in popular style on "Philosophy, Psychology and Metaphysics,"—a very lucid explanation of the distinctions between the subjects covered by these terms. The second article on the list is a fine criticism on Robert Browning's last great poem, followed by an interesting paper on "The Recent Solar Eclipse." Among the miscellaneous articles are "The Monastery of the Sumelas," a charity paper on "Tea," "Three Days with the Franc-Tireurs," and a couple of fine poems, one by William Morris and the other from the French of Alfred de Musset. The fascinating story, "Patty," is continued, and the magazine is embellished with the best portrait of Gambetta that has yet appeared. The Editorial Departments are, as usual, full of interest, and as the Eclectic is the only one of the eclectic publications that attempts any thing of the sort, they are worthy of mention. The editor does not content himself with clippings, but in Literary Notices gives accurate and impartial criticisms upon current home literature. "Foreign Literary Notices" are extremely valuable and suggestive to readers of all kinds. "Science" presents a complete resume of scientific progress the world over; and "Art" and "Varieties" over their special departments very fully. There is scarcely another magazine that condenses so large an amount of interesting and instructive information into so small a space as the Eclectic.

Published by E. R. Pelton, 108 Fulton Street, New York. Price $5 per year, single copies 45 cents.

DRUNKENNESS AMONG WOMEN.—The Tribune says on this subject: There are certain facts which it is high time should be taken at once into the gravest consideration by both the pulpit and the press. Among these is too large a proportion of female patients in insane asylums, who have become so from the use of stimulants. Inebriate asylums for women have been lately established in this State and Pennsylvania, and are filled out of the higher ranks of society. There are certain quiet "ladies' restaurants" in all the seaboard cities, so quiet and modest in appearance that gentlemen are not tempted in them, where respectable women resort for the stimulant which is probably inaccessible at home. Deaths from mania-a-potu have occurred this winter, and that not in the debased lower classes, but among cultured, delicate reared women; some of them young, generous, lovable girls. This is an ugly and almost incredible story. If we did not feel that the danger is imminent, we would not drag such foulness out from its hidden corners into the public air.

A New York paper says of a man who exhibited a fire escape in that city: "During the time it took him to make the descent, a fire would have consumed a block of houses."

MARRIED:

Dr. SCHENCK advises Consumptives to go to Florida in Winter.

Having for the last thirty-five years devoted my whole time and attention to the study of lung diseases and consumption, I feel that I understand fully the course that ought to be pursued to restore a tolerably bad case of diseased lungs to healthy soundness. The first and most important step is for the patient to avoid taking cold, and the best of all places on this continent for this purpose, in winter, is Florida, well down in the State, where the temperature is regular, and not subject to such variations as in more Northern latitudes. Palatka is a point I can recommend. A good hotel is kept there by Peterson. Last winter I saw several persons there whose lungs had been badly diseased, but who, under the healing influence of the climate and my medicines, were getting well.

One hundred miles further down the river is a point which I would prefer to Palatka, as the temperature is more even and the air dry and bracing. Mellonville and Enterprise are located there. I should give a decided preference to Mellonville. It is two miles from river or lake, and it seems almost impossible to take cold there. The table in Florida might be better, and patients complain at times, but that is a good sign, as it indicates a return of appetite, and when this is the case they generally increase in flesh, and then the lungs must heal.

Jacksonville, Hibernia, Green Cove, and many other places in various parts of Florida, can be safely recommended to consumptives in winter. My reasons for saying so are that patients are less liable to take cold there than where there is a less even temperature, and it is not necessary to say that when a consumptive person exposes himself to frequent colds he is certain to die shortly. Therefore my advice is, go well down into the State—out of the reach of prevailing east winds and fogs. Jacksonville, or almost any other of the localities I have named, will benefit those who are troubled with a torpid liver, a disordered stomach, deranged bowels, sore throat or cough, but for those whose lungs are diseased a more Southern point is earnestly recommended.

For fifteen years prior to 1869, I was professionally in New York, Boston, Baltimore and Philadelphia every week, where I saw and examined on an average five hundred patients a week. A practice so extensive—embracing every possible phase of lung disease—has enabled me to understand the disease fully, and hence my caution in regard to taking cold. A person may take vast quantities of "Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Seaweed Tonic, and Mandrake Pills," and yet die if he does not avoid taking cold.

In Florida, nearly everybody is using Schenck's Mandrake Pills, for the climate is more likely to produce bilious habits than more Northern latitudes. It is a well-established fact that natives of Florida rarely die of consumption, especially those of the Southern part. On the other hand, in New England, one third, at least, of the population die of this terrible disease. In the Middle States it does not prevail so largely, still there are many thousands of cases there. What a vast percentage of life would be saved if consumptives were as easily alarmed in regard to taking fresh cold as they are about scarlet fever, small pox, &c. But they are not. They take what they term a little cold, which they are readily enough to believe will wear off in a few days. They pay no attention to it, and hence it lays the foundation for another and another cold, until the lungs are diseased beyond all hope for cure.

My advice to persons whose lungs are affected, even slightly, is, to buy in a stock of Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Schenck's Mandrake Pills, and go to Florida. I recommend these particular medicines because I am thoroughly acquainted with their action. I know that when they are used in strict accordance with my directions they will do the work that is required. This accomplished, nature will do the rest. The physician who prescribes for cold, cough or night-sweats, and then advises the patient to walk or ride out every day, will be sure to have a consumptive on his hands before long.

My plan is to give my three medicines, in accordance with the printed directions, except in some cases where a freer use of the Mandrake Pills is necessary. My object is to give tone to the stomach—to get up a good appetite. It is always a good sign when a patient begins to grow hungry. I have hopes of such. With a relish for food and the gratification of that relish comes good blood, and with it more flesh, which is closely followed by a healing of the lungs. Then the cough loosens and shakes, the creeping chills and clammy night-sweats no longer prostrate and Sheogy, and the patient gets well—provided he avoids taking cold.

Now there are many consumptives who have not the means to go to Florida. The question may be asked, is there no hope for such? Certainly there is. My advice to such is, and ever has been, to stay in a warm room during the winter, with a temperature of about seventy degrees, which should be kept regularly at that point by means of a thermometer. Let such a patient take his exercise within the limits of the room by walking up and down as much as his strength will permit, in order to keep up a healthy circulation of the blood. I have cured thousands by this system and can do so again. Consumption is as easily cured as any other disease, if it is taken in time, and the proper kind of treatment is pursued. The fact stands undisputed on record that Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Mandrake Pills, and Seaweed Tonic have cured very many of what seemed to be hopeless cases of consumption. Go where you will, you will be almost certain to find some poor consumptive who has been rescued from the very jaws of death by their use.

So far as the Mandrake Pills are concerned, everybody should keep a supply of them on hand. They act on the liver better than calomel, and leave none of its hurtful effects behind. In fact they are excellent in all cases where a purgative medicine is required. If you have partaken too freely of fruit and diarrhea ensues, a dose of the Mandrake will arrest your. If you are subject to sick headache, take a dose of the Mandrakes and they will relieve you in two hours. If you would obviate the effect of a change of water, or if a too free indulgence in fruit, take one of the Mandrakes every night or every other night, and you may then drink water and eat watermelons, pears, apples, plums, peaches or corn, without the risk of being maidenstruck by them. They will protect those who live in dampnitions against chills and fevers. Try them. They are perfectly harmless. They can do you good only.

I have abandoned my professional visits to Boston and New York, but continue to see patients at my office, No. 15 N. SIXTH Street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged five dollars. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not. But I desire it distinctly understood that the value of my medicines depends entirely upon their being taken strictly according to directions.

In conclusion, I will say that when persons take my medicines and their systems are brought into a healthy condition thereby, they are not as liable to take cold, yet no one with diseased lungs can bear a sudden change of climate without the liability of greater or less irritation of the bronchial tubes.

Full directions in all languages accompany my medicines, so explicit and clear that any one can use them without consulting me, and can be bought from any druggist.

CHEERING FACTS FOR THE BILLIOUS.

Every day demonstrates more clearly that liver complaint, in all its distressing forms, can be controlled and cured without difficulty or inconvenience. It is an obstinate disease, but its obstinacy is not proof against the pertinacious remedial and restorative operation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. That genial corrective compels the organ to do its duty. It must secrete regularly and healthfully under the influence of the Bitters. Their action brings it back from a state of rebellion into perfect harmony with the laws of health. If there is costiveness, it disappears; if there is side-ache or back-ache, it ceases; if the skin and the whites of the eyes are tinged with superfluous bile, they recover their natural hue; if the appetite is gone, it returns; if the digestion is impaired, it is restored, in brief, whatever the symptoms of the complaint may be, and whatever the phase it has assumed, a cure is certain. Such are the uniform effects of this preparation where billious disease has been already developed; but in cases where there is merely a constitutional tendency to liver complaint, it may be prevented throughout life by the regular use, in small quantities, of this palatable antidote. These are proven facts, and should be seriously pondered—or, rather, they should be promptly acted upon—by all persons of billious habit.

DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT FOR COUGHS, COLDS, &C.

For the Speedy Relief

AND PERMANENT CURE OF

Consumption,

BRONCHITIS,

ASTHMA, COLDS,

AND ALL DISEASES OF THE LUNGS, CHEST, or Throat!

THE EXPECTORANT is composed exclusively of Herbal and Mucilaginous products, which

Permeate the very Substance of the LUNGS, causing them to throw off the acrid matter that collects in the Bronchial Tubes, and at the same time forms a soothing coating, relieving the irritation which produces the cough.

The object to be obtained is to cleanse the organ of all impurities; to nourish and strengthen it when it has become impaired and enfeebled by disease; to renew and invigorate the circulation of the blood, and strengthen the nervous organization. The EXPECTORANT does this to an astonishing degree. It affords Oxygen to vitalize the blood, and nitrogen to assimilate the matter—

It equalizes the 'Nervous Influence,' producing quiet and composure

To Consumptives

It is invaluable, as it immediately relieves the difficult breathing and harrassing cough which attends that disease.

For Asthma

It is a specific—one dose often relieving the distressing choking, and producing calm and pleasant repose.

For Croup

No mother should ever be without a bottle of the EXPECTORANT in the house. We have numerous certificates of its having relieved, almost instantly, the little sufferer, when death appeared almost inevitable.

MOTHERS BE ADVISED!

KEEP IT ON HAND!

This dread disease requires prompt action; as soon as the hoarse, hollow cough is heard, apply the remedy, and it is easily subdued;

BUT DELAY IS DANGEROUS!

☞ The properties of the EXPECTORANT are demulcent, nutritive, balsamic, soothing and healing. It braces the nervous system and produces pleasant and refreshing sleep

It Exhilarates and Relieves Gloominess & Depression.

Containing all these qualities in a convenient and concentrated form, it has proven to be the

MOST VALUBALE LUNG BALSAM

ever offered to sufferers from Pulmonary diseases. Prepared by

THE TREMAINE PianoFortes

are acknowled by all who have them in use, and by the First Musical Talent, to be equal and in many respects,

Superior to any Manufactured.

They combine Immense Power, Equality, Sweetness and Brilliancy of Tone, Elasticity of Touch, and Great Durability.

Dealers, Teachers and others desiring to purchase a first-class instrument are invited to examine these Pianos before making their selections elsewhere.

PATENT AGRAFFE TREBLE,

Together with all modern improvements. The most thoroughly seasoned timber the market affords if selected, regardless of cost, as we feel assured it will be the cheapest in the end.

The great increase in the sale of our instruments, enabled us to reduce our prices for First Class Pianos, from ten to twenty-five per cent. less than any other house (offering the same class of instruments) in the United States.

While we act upon the maxim of "quick sales and small profits," we make it, at the same time, a special object to furnish our customers with instruments in no way inferior to the best in the market.

Many families have had a desire to obtain a Piano, but could not afford to pay the dealer a profit of from $100 to $300, neither do they wish to purchase a cheap made instrument, that would cost more to keep in repair than it is worth, hence a large class of our music loving people have been obliged to do without.

We can furnish New Seven-Octave Pianofortes from 275 to 950 dollars. Second hand Pianos from 40 to 250 dollars.

☞ Parties ordering by mail may rely upon the best selections.

Our Pianos are fully warranted for six years

Descriptive Circulars sent to all parts of the country upon application.

THE BURDETT Combination ORGAN.

(With Carpenter and Burdett's New Improvements.)

The disagreeable reedy tone entirely overcome in this instrument.

The Verdict is Unanimous!

The Greatest Success of the Age!!

We Challenge the World to Equal It!!

And cordially invite the profession, dealers and the musical world generally to examine this truly wonderful instrument.

The Burdett Combination Organ

As its name indicates, is an ingenious union of all our standard improvements, combined with many new features never before introduced or attempted in Reed Organs, together making this Organ the SUPERLATIVE of instruments, and one that has already created a revolution in the public mind in the decided favor of the general adoption of Reed Organs, both for secular and sacred music, where an instrument is required either to accompany the voice or to produce orchestral effects.

With the multitudinous and surprising combinations that are contained in this instrument, the most intricate music of the "great masters," can be rendered as on a grand organ; or the most simple music for the melodeon can be played by a child.

All the various improvements on the Burdett Organ are protected by patent, belong exclusively to the Company, and can be used on no other organ.

The present Burdett Organ has received the most cordial and highest encomiums from those ranking among the first of musicians and organists.

The New York Independent says of the Burdett Organ: "It is by far the most perfect reed instrument we have ever seen."

The Christian Leader says: "We had no idea that a reed instrument could be brought to such perfection."

The New York Observer says: "Its purity of voicing, richness of tone, and wonderful orchestral combinations, together with a number of new and original stops, render it an instrument of such perfection as to be beyond competition."

The press and public everywhere who have had an opportunity of listening to its beautiful strains, not only give it their unqualified approval, but unhesitatingly concede that it stands without a rival.

The Burdett Organ ranges in price from $135 to $1000.

We have also New Cabinet Organs at $45, $75, $100, &c.
