Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah

The Southern Seaboard Region of Hadassah will hold its eighteenth annual Conference May 14 thru 16 at the Sheraton Center in Charlotte. The theme of the conference is "Pathways to Peace." Linda (Mrs. Joel) Fleishman, president of the Southern Seaboard Region, will be attending the entire conference.

Highlight of the conference will be a banquet Tuesday evening with Major General George J. Keegan (USAF, ret.) as the guest speaker. General Keegan is attached to the Pentagon and will speak on "Israel Today." Mr. Rolfe Neill, publisher of The Charlotte Observer and The Charlotte News, will be the recipient of the "Myrtle Wreath Award."

Gail (Mrs. Edward) Green is president of the Charlotte Chapter of Hadassah, and local conference chairmen are Judi (Mrs. Leonard) Strause and Deane (Mrs. Larry) Boxer. All members of Hadassah and friends are cordially invited to attend all the events.

Chai

The Pineville Theatre on March 10 was well attended and enjoyed. We owe our gratitude to Ethel Goodhart who so graciously made the arrangements.

At the meeting on March 12th Marvin Bienstock paid tribute to Bertha Wand, one of our dearly beloved members, who recently passed away. Marvin was joined by many of Bertha's friends who sadly miss her.

A new member, Kate Shaner, joined our group being introduced by Leah Liss. Horthy Fogelson also introduced a new member, Anna Borabeck. We welcome both members and hope that they become active participants.

Ethel Person, a representative of Duke Power, attended our meeting on March 19. She showed a movie and explained to the group how to save money on our electrical appliances while using them for our daily needs. She also handed out a list of suggestions for this. Later, Channel 36 visited and showed us the signing of the Peace Treaty. Pictures were taken and some of the members were interviewed which was later shown that evening on TV.

On March 26, Sue Ferguson showed a movie of people of different nationalities whose handiwork consisted of weaving and other arts and crafts. She also showed us her own work, such as, appliqueing and weaving and a beautiful quilt which she designed.

We of the Chai group hope that everyone had a happy holiday.

— Horthy Fogelson
