Stronger Catholic — Jewish Ties

NEW YORK (JTA) — A letter from the Vatican Secretariat of State to Rabbi Marc H. Tanenbaum, national interreligious affairs director of the American Jewish Committee, has expressed satisfaction about "the growing relation between the Roman Catholic Church and the Jewish religion in the wake of the Second Vatican Council and its Declaration Nostra Aetate on the relation of the church with non-Christian religions."

The letter was signed by G. Caprio, the personal secretary of Pope John Paul II. According to the letter, written on behalf of the Pope, in response to a letter from Rabbi Tanenbaum to the Pope on the occasion of his election, the relation between the Roman Catholic Church and the Jewish people "will certainly grow even more strongly and decisively in the future, with the good will of the parties concerned."

Who cares

about Reba?

She came to Israel twenty years ago from Poland with her husband and three fine sons. Illness took her husband from her. Wars took her sons. Now she lives alone with her memories. The world is hardly aware that she is in it.

There are many Rebas. In Israel. Here. The world over. It is possible to forget them.

But to forget Reba, you must forget who you are. You must ignore a heritage of nearly six thousand years of shared joy and suffering—the oneness of all Jews everywhere. Reba is you—and her needs are your needs, with a different emphasis.

Renew yourself as you renew her life—and Jewish life everywhere. Make you pledge today to the 1979 campaign.

Who cares about Reba?
 We do. You do.

Yiddish Institute At Wildacres

May 3-6

Time is drawing near for the first annual Yiddish Institute at Wildacres. The response has been most heartening with reservations not only from Charlotte Yiddishists but from lovers of "Mameh Loshin" in Winston-Salem, Hickory, Augusta, Ga., Atlanta, Ga., Charleston, S.C., Beaufort, S.C. and St. Petersburg, Fla.

A full program of Yiddish culture is scheduled with lectures and workshops in literature, poetry, language and music.

The guest speaker-in-residence for the Institute will be Mr. Abraham Shulman - novelist, poet, essayist and musical playwright. Mr. Shulman has edited Yiddish publications both in Australia and Paris. Currently he is on the editorial staff of the Jewish Daily Forward and writes for many Yiddish and English magazines. He conducts frequent lectures throughout the country and is eagerly awaiting the publication of his next book Coming Home to Zion.

(Mr. Shulman replaces our previously announced speaker)

Registration will be on Thursday, May 3 from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Wildacres Retreat in Little Switzerland, N.C. The Institute remains in session until Sunday morning, May 6.

For further information contact: Baila Pransky - 704-366-5564 or Leo Hoffman - 704-365-1037.

Books In Review

"GOOD AS GOLD" by Joseph Heller. Simon & Schuster. $12.95

A third-rate intellectual the public thinks is first-rate is on his way to becoming "the country's first Jewish secretary of state." He's the ambitious, put-upon Dr. Bruce Gold, the schlemiel-antihero of Heller's newest novel.

Many "Catch-22" fans found "Something Happened" impossible to get through, but they'll delight in Heller's joyful return to the zany mode for this third novel.

There's a surprise: Though "Good as Gold" at first trains its comic cannons at American government, it turns into a corrosive satire on Jewish life in America. (And it is not based on a real person; Bruce Gold is not Henry Kissinger.)
