Charlotte Chapter B.B.W. Installation

Charlotte Chapter began its 28th year at an installation luncheon on May 2nd at Valentino's. It was a festive day and an unusual one. Loretta Barman will rank among the few presidents who chose to serve a second term.

Rabbi Richard Rocklin gave a very meaningful invocation. Terri Cathcart presented the beautifully completed quilt which was a major project this year of the chapter's Senior Women's group. Loretta then gave certificates of thanks to her outgoing board. The president's year end report was lengthy, due to its impressive content. It highlighted a year of outstanding service by the chapter, which was achieved by a feeling of cooperation and caring for one another.

Installing officer of the day was Susan Bruck, President of NC Avodah Council, BBW. Susan's creative theme was "How Does our Garden Grow?" Officers installed were Loretta Barman, president; Terri Cathcart, administrative v.p.; Wendy Cohen, communications cabinet v.p.; Joyce Levenstein and Barbie Weiner, fund-raising cabinet v.p.'s; Vicki Hopkins, membership v.p.; Beryl Fisher, financial sec.; Ruth Lubin, rec. sec.; and Elaine Schefflin, cor. sec.

Loretta's brief acceptance speech cited as one of reasons for serving a second term her dedication to BBW and its great priority to the broad spectrum of worldwide services.

The first business of the new board was presented by Joyce Levenstein in the form of the chapter's newest fundraiser, the "Simcha" cloth. It will be present at all chapter meetings. The cloth will be embroidered with the simchas the members write on it in their own handwriting, in return for a small donation.

Marvin Barman, Loretta's husband, and incoming president of Charlotte B'nai B'rith Lodge, gave a beautiful benediction at the close of the meeting.

Chai Group 65 & Over

Mr. Ed Lakin, our "current event" lecturer from Central Piedmont Community College, has been an inspiration at our morning sessions. He brings us up-to-date on the latest developments of worldwide news.

The afternoon programs are very entertaining. A film, "The Coral Jungle," was shown by Betty Place of the Charlotte Library, who explained "life" in the deep sea.

Mary Williams of the Mental Health Center discussed relationships, followed by a question and answer period. Ethel Person, a representative of Duke Power Co., explained how small electrical appliances can cut our electric bills 50%. She demonstrated the use of an electric frying pan and electric blender. During the meeting she baked a cake in the electric frying pan, which was passed around and enjoyed by all.

We are most grateful to Mr. & Mrs. Fred Stern, who donated to our members 20 season tickets for the Charlotte Symphony Orchestra.

Our "appreciation luncheon" was given by CPCC to honor the older adult program instructors. Horty Fogelson, who represented our art group, praised the technique of Beverly Howard, our art teacher. We welcomed two new members to the art class this month. They were referred to us by CPCC.

By this time the raffle books are ready for distribution. The prizes are a beautiful picture painted by Beverly Howard, and a lovely afghan crocheted by Mrs. Sadoff. Bessie Fagan, our ardent chairwoman of the raffle committee, urges everyone to sell as many books as possible. The raffle will be held in September.
