THE SENTINEL.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22, 1867.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

TO ADVERTISERS.—The public will find the Sentinel one of the best mediums of advertising in the State. Its circulation covers a larger area, perhaps, than any other paper.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—N. C. Dental Association: V. V. Turner, Corresponding Secretary.

Agricultural Ware House: Mitchell, Allen & Co., 22 Pollock St., Newbern.

Grand and Square Pianos: Branson & Farrar, Agents for Stieff, Baltimore.

RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT.—We failed to receive our Northern mail, at the usual hour, on Monday evening, owing to that most unusual occurrence,—an accident on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad. We regret to learn that the mail train ran off the track between Kittrell's and Henderson, and that Mr. Cardozo, the mail agent, was severely hurt, and Mr. Parham, the Express Messenger, and the baggage master, were also somewhat bruised. We hear of no further damage.

COMMITTEE ON THE UNIVERSITY.—In specifying the names of the gentlemen composing the Committee appointed by the Legislature to investigate the affairs of the University, we erroneously placed Capt. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, thereon. The Committee, on the part of the House of Commons, consists of Messrs. Peebles, Foard and Morehead. It is greatly to be desired, we repeat, that the Committee should have a meeting during Commencement week.

PIANOS.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Stieff's (Baltimore) 1st Premium Grand and Square Pianos in another column. Stieff is one of the most celebrated manufacturers in the country, and those who have used his Pianos speak of them in the highest terms of praise. His references are of the best character, and of themselves are sufficient to testify the excellence of his manufactures. We happen to know of several of our largest Female Seminaries that have bought his Pianos and bear the most flattering testimony to their superiority.—Branson & Farrar are the agents for this city.

QUICK RESPONSE.—It will be remembered that, a few day since, we published a sensible, earnest and manly letter from a disabled young Confederate soldier, J. J. Bennett, of Nash county, formerly of the 4th N. C. T., pleading for an opportunity of doing something for a livelihood suited to his mutilated condition. One of the most enterprising merchants in this State, and a gentleman of enlarged liberality, but who is of the sort that is unwilling to let the "left hand know what the right hand doeth," and therefore will not allow his name to be mentioned, writes us that if "the party only lacks a few months' tuition to enable him to teach school, I will send you $25 towards his expenses." This is noble. Who will do likewise? Which of our various Schools or Seminaries will give the young man free tuition, while the charities of the generous are being appropriated to board and incidental expenses?

BURGLARY.—On Monday night, the residence of our friend Jno. C. Palmer, Esq., was entered by a burglar, who conducted himself in a very cool and singular manner. A pane of glass was taken from a window, which enabled the thief to remove the fastenings above the sash. There are evidences that he went through nearly all the rooms in the house, except the sleeping apartments, but without disturbing anything, although there were many things to attract cupidity, until he came to a temporarily unoccupied bedroom. From it a trunk was abstracted, taken out into the yard and opened, where it was found, early yesterday morning, but, remarkable to relate, with none of the contents missing. The burglar was, doubtless, in search of money, or else his proceedings were of a very inexplicable character. No clue has been obtained to the affair.

COMMISSIONERS OF CLAIMS.—This body has been in session three or four weeks, and will continue to sit several weeks longer.—The Commissioners have embodied their principles of action in a set of rules, heretofore published in the Sentinel. These rules are based on the Constitution, and laws affecting the claims which are not, by the Convention, declared to be void—and which the Legislature are bound to provide the means of paying. A copy of these rules can be had on application to the Board.

Some claims have been already acknowledged by the Legislature as binding, while the consideration of many has been postponed, to await the action of these Commissioners, whose duty requires them to approve all such as are not repudiated by the Convention, and report them to the next session of the Legislature, that provision may then be made for their ultimate payment.

All who hold claims against the State, whether by bond or otherwise, which originated during the war, and which the claimants believe to be free from the war taint, should present them to this Board without delay. It may be that the Legislature will refuse to consider them, and provide for their payment, without the approval of this Board, which was constituted for the express purpose of relieving that body from the many perplexities which embarrass the subject.

The claims as yet presented are presumed to be but a small part of those outstanding, which are entitled to favorable consideration. There should be no delay in presenting these claims.

A HEART RENDING OCCURRENCE.

Yesterday evening, about dark, occurred one of those terrible accidents, which causes the heart to sicken in sorrow at its recital, which has thrown a happy household into speechless agony, and has enshrouded in gloom the feelings of an entire community.

Mr. John P. Jordan, the worthy and estimable Sheriff of this county, had just returned home, about two miles west of this place, after several weeks absence, having been detained on his return by a fearful storm at sea, and was receiving the greeting of overjoyed hearts, when a terrific explosion and the screams of children announced the sad and awful accident related below, as accurately as can be ascertained:

Miss Mary Jordan, aged about 12 years, daughter of Mr. John P. Jordan, Miss Ellen Gunn, her first cousin, aged 13 years, daughter of Mr. W. H. Gunn, Clerk of Liberty county, and a colored girl of about the same age, were at the door of a closet opening on the back piazza, pouring Kerosene oil from a five gallon can into what is called a feeder can. The colored girl held a small torch light. It is supposed the gas from the large oil can communicated with the light, and immediately the explosion took place, saturating with oil the clothing of the children, and enveloping them in flames. In a few minutes they were burned into a crisp, and this morning, between 7 and 8 o'clock, retaining perfect consciousness to the last moment, though in great suffering, and expressing a willingness to die, the pure and sinless spirits of these two lovely and interesting children, the adored at home, and the beloved of associates, winged their eternal flight. This is one of the saddest events that the pen is ever called upon to record.

The colored girl was alive at the latest accounts, though beyond all hopes of recovery.

The hands and arms of Mr. Jordan were badly burned in endeavoring to extinguish the flames. Quincy (Fla.) Commonwealth, May 15th.

Gen Mower, addressing the colored rioters in New Orleans, when two hundred passed his headquarters on their way to the new Basin, brandishing clubs, and threatening to lynch the contractors there, said: "If you feel yourselves wronged, you must apply to the proper authorities for redress, and you shall have it; but if you take this thing into your own hands, you may lose what rights you already possess. If you go on with this rioting, by the eternal God I will throw grape and canister into you. Now, disperse and go to your homes, or to your work." The mob immediately dispersed.

The Moniteur (French semi official journal here) tell its readers that "Mr. Davis, the heroic President of the late Southern confederacy, may be looked for to-day or to-morrow," and that "the city will be proud to give him its hospitality." No doubt the paper speaks by authority, and the Mayor being a Mr. Starnes, a man who is devoted to the party in power and shares their pro-Confederate (Southern) views, it is very likely that Davis on his arrival will receive something like the hospitality of the city.—Montreal Cor. N. Y. Herald.

Mr. Davis still remains at the New York Hotel. Is is stated that he has been labouring under an attack of indisposition, which, although not very severe, compelled him to defer his projected visit to his children in Canada. From the time of his arrival he has not once left the hotel, and has not even stirred from his rooms. Should he be well enough he will probably leave New York tomorrow evening for Montreal. N. Y. Herald, 19th.

In empannelling a jury in Houston, Texas, recently, a very large number of the freed men of the city said frankly that they could not take the oath required by General Griffin's order. The presiding judge, however, told them that they were not citizens until 1866, and any act prior to that of loyalty, voluntarily or involuntarily, would not disqualify them. Only three were taken on the panel.

The Mobile Tribune says fifteen hundred buildings have been put up since the surrender: that in ordinary times this fact would be taken as an evidence of prosperity; but it must be taken now as evidence of the extortion of landlords.

A "Paper Wedding" was celebrated in Waterbury, a night or two since—two years anniversary. The bride was arrayed in a paper dress, paper hat, paper gaiters, paper laces and paper everything.

Some of the Republican papers do not abuse Mr. Greeley for his generous conduct towards Mr. Davis. The Springfield Republican takes a friendly and practical view of the matter—and thinks it has fitted Mr. Greeley for the place of "grand pacificator" with the South, between it and the Republican party.

Portland, Me., is now the largest molasses importing place in the country, while its sugar trade is enormous. So say the Portland papers.

Candles are made out of bayberries, at Newton, N. J., and they are said to be superior to the best tallow.

As a specimen of Wilson's eloquence, he remarked in his speech at Atlanta: "Your Governor has got a maggot in his head about the Supreme Court."

It is said by those who have conversed with General Pope on the subject, that he intends to appoint two white men and one negro on the Registration Board in every county of his district.

Brownlow has threatened to challenge to mortal combat Hon. John Baxter, of East Tennessee, who has exposed some of the governor's misdeeds.

Brides now hire their diamonds for weddings in New York.

The Russian budget this year is 443,800,000 roubles.

Cucumbers sold in the Cincinnati market on Wednesday morning for fifty cents each.

Brigham Young says it is now as important to raise crops as saints.

ORDER BY GEN. SICKLES.

CHARLESTON, May 21.

Gen. Sickles has issued an order prohibiting the distillation of spirits from grain in the second Military District. Offenders are declared liable to trial and punishment by Military Commission.

The reasons assigned for the order are that the present scanty supplies of food in the Carolinas are seriously diminished by the large quantity of grain consumed in distilleries worked in defiance of the revenue law; that this unlawful traffic makes food dearer in places where large numbers are depending upon the public and private bounty; that the Government is defrauded of a large amount of revenue, the authorities brought into contempt, and that the mischief complained of tends to increase poverty, disorder and crime.

MEXICAN NEWS.

NEW ORLEANS, May 21

The Picayune's special correspondence, dated Orizaba, May 3rd, says that the City of Mexico is surrounded by 20,000 Liberals, and the bombardment has commenced in earnest. The garrison is 8,000. Commander Marquez announced his intention to resist to the death. No officer receives quarter from the Liberals.

Orders have been issued by Miramon that Marquez and Maximilian shall be shot, if captured. Since the surrender of Puebla the Imperialists are not over 16,000, all told.

ROBBERY NEAR WELDON—RECOVERY OF A PORTION OF THE STOLEN GOLD IN THIS CITY.—We announced, several days ago, the arrest of a negro man in this city, by officer Matt Peterson, under circumstances which induced the belief that he was either a thief or the possessor of stolen property. The name of this negro is Frank Moody. Upon his person was found a bill made out against Col. N. M. Long, who resides near Weldon, N. C., for certain articles of hardware purchased from a firm in Petersburg. This bill furnished some clue to the negro's identity, of which advantage was at once taken. Col Long was at once communicated with and responded that he had been robbed some months ago. He came on to Petersburg and on Monday morning appeared before Mayor Collier, when Moody was identified as having been in his employ at the time of the robbery, and when the bill aforesaid was declared to be correct. Col. Long stated that he had collected about $750 in gold four or five months ago to pay for some land he had purchased in his vicinity, and kept it in a bag in his drawer until it should be called for. One day, intending to go to Weldon, he went to his drawer to get the money to take it himself to the man from whom he had bought the farm. He found that about one half of the gold was missing, and thus learned that he had been robbed. The money was in $20 gold pieces. The prisoner, he said, while on a visit to Petersburg some time ago, spent $90 in clothing. The amount recovered from Moody is eleven $20 pieces, $220. The prisoner acknowledges the money to be the property of Col Long, but does not give a clear idea of how he got possession of it. He will be kept in jail here until sent to Weldon on a requisition from Gov. Worth. Pet. Express.

The Rural World says the most accurate way to ascertain the age of a horse, is the following:

"After the horse is nine years old, a wrinkle comes on the eyelid, at the upper corner of the lower lid, and every year thereafter he has one well-defined wrinkle for each year over nine. If, for instance, a horse has three wrinkles, he is twelve; if four, he is thirteen. Add the number of wrinkles to nine, and you will always get it."

A Kentucky paper says Emerson Etheridge's platform in the coming canvass will be emancipation in the three remaining slave States, Tennessee, Missouri, and West Virginia.
