PSU HOMECOMING SCENES

Former Student Body Presidents who returned for the alumni homecoming banquet are shown with their present residence and the year they served as president listed: [left to right] front row-- Fred Lowry, Pembroke, '48; Elrie Locklear, Aiken, S.C., '53; Ralph Hunt, Lumberton, '55; Ambrose Chavis, Pembroke, '56; second row--Earl Hughes Oxendine, Raeford, '57; Dalton Brooks, Pembroke, '61; John C. Ray, Red Springs, '62; Mike Moree, Dublin, '68; back row--Gary Murry, Newton, '74; Derek Lowry, Pembroke, '76; Ken Kennedy, Laurinburg, '77; and the current president, Bill Whittington, Durham. It was a profitable trip for Ray, who won the chain saw in a special drawing.

Dr. Ed Crain, national - "Cross Country Coach of the Year" whose Pembroke State won the national championship in November, was the guest speaker at the alumni banquet. He received a standing ovation as he was introduced.

Mrs. Martha Beach of Fayetteville, outgoing president of the Pembroke State University Alumni Association, is presented a special plaque commemorative of her services by the new alumni president, John A. Locklear of Pembroke.

Gene Warren, [illegible] of public affairs at Pembroke State University, was honored along with Chancellor English E. Jones with an Honorary Life Membership to the PSU Alumni Association at the banquet. Both men received the certificates in special presentations. Warren led in the planning for the homecoming, the largest in PSU history. He edited the Alumni Newspaper which was mailed to 4,000 alumni, arranged for and introduced the speaker at the banquet, and personally contacted all past PSU student presidents and former "Miss PSU's" through his Public Affairs Office.

PSU Wrestling Tourney Begins

Pembroke--Eight teams will be in competition this Saturday in the 1979 Pembroke State University Braves Wrestling Tournament. The tournament begins at 10 a.m. and lasts through the day.

Teams participating include Elon, The Citadel, Pembroke Wrestling Club, Pembroke - State, Washington and Lee, Winston-Salem State, Duke and Barber Scotia.

All matches will be eight minutes in duration except the consolation match which will be six minutes in length. Individual trophies for the first second, third, and fourth place wrestlers will be awarded as well as trophies being awarded to the most outstanding wrestler, wrestler with the most pins, and wrestler with the quickest pin.

Duke and the Citadel had three wrestlers each win the championship round last year while Pembroke State and Campbell each had two champions.

Tournament director is Mike Olson, wrestling coach at pembroke State.
