THE SENTINEL.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 29, 1870.

Mr. Geo. N. Mamray, as Business Clerk, is authorized to make contracts and give receipts, &c., &c.

New Ads, Yesterday.—Besides the new advertisements which appeared yesterday morning and were noticed at the time, we call attention to the following:

Candy, Axes and Dry Goods—the sweet, useful and ornamental, by B. F. Cheatham & Bro.

A. D. Taylor, offers a variety of fresh and desirable family groceries.

Auction sales of a variety of household furniture and other articles, to-day at J. M. Towles'. Nice white corn meal there also.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. announce extraordinary bargains in Dry Goods. The Tuckers do a tremendous trade, wholesale and retail and anything you cannot find in their line, need hardly be looked for elsewhere.

House-keeping goods at the hardware store of Julius Lewis. There are many people getting married now, and we direct them to the advertisement.

To-day.—Organ for sale at Fayetteville. W. H. Jones & Co., offer washing powder, family flour, and three thirteen shooters. See Report of the State National Bank. Also, or the Raleigh National Bank.

Tucker Hall.—Our citizens will have the opportunity of enjoying a succession of entertainments at this pleasant and popular Hall, for the next week or two.

On Monday night, as will be seen by the announcement in another column, Prof. S. Adams Lee, the popular and eloquent lecturer, who so pleased our citizens by his Lectures, "God in the Ocean," in November or December last, will deliver a Lecture, "Battle of Hampton Roads," for the benefit of the Rescue Steam Fire Engine Company. Two considerations ought to operate on the occasion; first, the merits of the Lecture, and second, the object, to raise funds to pay for the new Steam Fire Engine.

On Wednesday night, the La Rue minstrels appear, and will repeat Thursday and Friday night.

At an early day, the Ladies of the Baptist Church will open a Festival and Fair, at the same place.

To be followed soon after by the exhibition of a Tableaux and, perhaps, a Feast, and, certainly accompanied by a concert of excellent music, given by the Ladies of the Methodist congregation.

Lecture at Commons Hall.—Prof. Dixon, an English Quaker, we understand, delivered a lecture at Commons Hall, last night, on the subject of Agriculture, the application of gypsum to our soils, &c.

It is said friend D. now has been elected Professor of Agriculture and kindred subjects, in the University of North Carolina; whether this be so or not we are not certainly advised.

Nor So.—We understand that L. C. Linton, who was a member of the Convention from Stanley, is in town, seeking, it is thought, the appointment of census taker for that county. He says, the people of Stanley are highly pleased at the passage of the military bill. This is a misrepresentation of the intelligent people of Stanley. We are authorized by a gentleman, well acquainted with the sentiments of the people of that county, that not a dozen intelligent people of the county but condemns that act as unnecessary and tyrannical, and that Morton lies.

Come and Gone.—We learn that Morring came back Thursday night, got a new boarding house, left it Friday morning, from the same old cause, and went home again.

Hard on Lassiter.—The Standard of yesterday says, "The Republican party has no sympathy with dodgers;" and again, "We call upon the Republicans of North Carolina to mark the votes of their representatives—to see who stands up for the party, who votes against it—and those who dodge—the worst class of all." This is very hard on Lassiter, Cherry, Etheridge and others in the Senate, who dodged the question, every time, on the resolutions requesting the Governor to dismiss Littlefield, last Thursday. Unless they make another dodge, the Standard will hit them square between the eyes.

Gen. Brogden.—As soon as we can make room for them, we intend to republish some of the communications of Gen. Brogden, of Wayne, written for the Sentinel, in 1865 and 1866, criticising Gov. Holden, (very peppery,) and Yankee generally. They will be refreshing reading matter to the General himself, perhaps, about this time.

The Dodgers.—In the Senate on Thursday, when the resolutions requesting the Governor to dismiss Littlefield as State Printer and Binder, were under consideration, Mr. Low offered an amendment setting forth the reasons for the action taken. The yeas and nays were ordered and the amendment rejected—yeas 10, nays 24. The following Senators, though present, dodged the vote, Messrs. Beasly, Cherry, Etheridge, Flythe, Hawkins, Lassiter, Long, and Moore, of Yancey.

On the original resolution the yeas and nays were called, and resulted, yeas 15, nays 25. Messrs. Beasly, Cherry, Etheridge, Flythe, Lassiter, Long, and Moore, of Yancey, again dodged, though they were present in the Hall.

Prof. Mewaay, Lecturer and Operator on boot and shoology, has removed his office and testing room, also shoe shop, to the room over Messrs. W. B. Hutchings & Co's., Harness establishment, where he is prepared to take measures and put up shoes, boots, gaiters &c., in quality and workmanship unsurpassed in this region.—Let those who may doubt this give him a call and they will be convinced; those who do not doubt it will, of course, call any how.

OPPRESSION.

The Sheriff from a heavily taxed county, came in recently to make his returns, he said he had sold some men out of house and home to satisfy the Government's demand for taxes, and he knew women and children were suffering for bread, and the money he paid into the Treasury for taxes should have gone to supply their wants.

Most persons are cursing the carpet-baggers for this distressing state of affairs, but Holden, Settle, Reade, Rodman, Pool, Dick and Barringers, (both of them,) are entitled to a little more cursing (if men, like the Governor will curse,) than the carpet-baggers.

What cares the thief, Judge Alden, (now about Richmond) if the houses of the poor and oppressed are sold for taxes to pay Sinclair, Laflin and Cuffy Mayo and Moring seven dollars a day? When the house is sold, Laflin drunk in Washington, can't hear the children cry for bread!

In the districts where the crops failed last year, the Sheriffs will have to sell homesteads for taxes; they have told us so.

In these districts, under executions, the Sheriffs are selling out men who could have met their engagements and paid their debts, if the last year's crop had been an abundant one. But executions can't wait for crops.

Holden, with his Leagues and 70,000 negroes, fastened the swindlers, Littlefield, Laflin and Deweese, upon us. For a time, on his reconstruction staff, he fastened the thief, Judge Alden, and the rogue, Tatten, upon us. Having had the people down, with the feet of such swindlers and rogues upon their necks, is it to be wondered at, that he now wants a military bill to keep them down? Let the Sheriffs sell, but we say, "rise fellow-men, our country yet remains." These carpet bag thieves shall yet be gone, this land shall yet be free!

PRINCE LAFLIN.

[illegible] mentioned for the Legislature only a few months ago, [illegible] attendance not more than three days of this session.

Churchill, of the Standard office, was heard to say, on the street, that he hoped the Grand Jury would find a bill against him and Deweese, the carpet-bag member of Congress, for he was satisfied that they were to be benefitted or had interest in the note made to "James Smith," the fictitious man. A. W. Shaffer, who sued on the note, thinks and says it is his opinion that Deweese and Laflin had guilty knowledge of this note.

Mr. Shafter received the note from Deweese for money due the Bankrupt office.—He had no knowledge of the illegality of the note.

It is reported that Littlefield gave his bonds amounting to more than 40,000 dollars, for corrupting the Legislature; this note to "James Smith," was one of the bonds. Laflin was to have the benefit of it; he is said to have passed it to Deweese and Deweese to Shafter.

Now there is talk of expelling Laflin from the House. A colored member was heard to say he would vote to do so. If any colored member will call on us, we can give him evidence, we think, sufficient to expel Laflin.

If the white "hands" are willing to sit with such members as Laflin, we hope the negroes are not. No member who has not received money from Littlefield, or notes payable to "James Smith," as Laflin is said to have done, should be willing for Laflin to remain a member of the Legislature of North Carolina.

Go it Blind.—The Standard says, "The Republican party has no use for men who do not dare to stand up for their party under any and all circumstances." That means, if it mean anything, that, should the treasurer prove a defaulter, Pilgrim Ashley procure the interpolation of a school law, or any other officer should do any other rascally act, (which, of course, every body knows there is no probability of any of them doing,) yet, if they should happen to such an accident, the Standard has no use for any man that would not stand up to them. That is just the construction the language of the Standard bears, and there isn't a word in the context to change or modify it.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Thursday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Jan. 28.—House—A bill establishing certain Steamship lines was introduced. The Secretary of the Treasury was asked why he allowed collection of certain harbor fees in New York; after the supreme Court decision them illegal.

The bill allowing Virginians who have conscientious scruples to affirm, passed. Porter, after a long debate, was seated. The Speaker announced the special Committee on Postal Telegraph, as follows: Washburn, of Wis., Lawrence, Dawes, Davis, Palmer, Woodward and Beck. The bill abolishing the fencing railroads passed by 114 to 14. The bill repeals all laws and parts of laws giving to any officer or Department of the government, or other person, the right, either to send or receive, through the mails free of postage, any letter, document or other matter whatever. Dawes made a successful defence against Butler's attack on him regarding extravagance. Among other statements, Dawes said, after visiting departments and remonstrating against the expenses, he visited the President, who said he knew little of any other than estimates of the War Department, which he (the President) was satisfied could not be cut down.

Gen. Terry officially communicates to the War Department the organization of the Georgia House of Representatives. After a careful examination of the law, Terry says he is convinced that no authority exists for giving the seats of ineligible members to those receiving the next highest vote.

Members from newly restored States get no back documents, they having heretofore been distributed.

Senate.—A joint resolution forbidding assessments upon officeholders for presents to superior officials, passed and goes to the President. A motion to call up the bill creating Omaha a port of entry, brought forth expressions in favor of the abolition of many unimportant ports of entry now in existence.

The bill making Omaha a port of entry finally passed.

The currency bill was discussed up to adjournment.

Corbin, the President's brother-in-law, was before the Gold Panic Committee to-day.

Lewis, Senator from Virginia, has been seated. Porter, after a struggle was seated.

The President replying to Mayor Bowen and others regarding Washington, denied any intention of recommending appropriations for the improvements of Washington now; such recommendation would be disregarded. Western members were especially tenacious on this subject, but the year closing March 3rd would shows great reduction of public debt and less expense, and Congress by that time might see the necessity of improving the Capitol. He had no doubt the time would come, when cabinet ministers would be furnished with houses free of rent by the government. To suppose that men representing the nation, could on the pittance of $8,000 per year, give grand dinners and receptions, was simply absurd.

The Senate then went into executive session on the Judiciary question, and soon after adjourned.

VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Jan. 27.—Gen Canby to-day issued an order that all Military Commissions, acting under the reconstruction laws cease, and all citizen prisoners be tried over to the State Courts, and that all citizens undergoing sentence of Military Commission, serve out such sentence, unless released by the U. S. Court; and that all civil officers, appointed under the Provisional Government, shall vacate when successors are elected or appointed under the new Constitution.

Gov. Walker issued a Proclamation convening the Legislature Tuesday Feb. 8th.

John S. Marye of Fredericksburg, was to-day appointed Lt. Governor, by Gov. Walker, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the election of Lewis to the U. S. Senate.

FOREIGN.

London, Jan 27.—An agent will leave soon for New York to protect foreign stockholders in the Erie R. R., by voting stock held abroad.

Madrid, Jan. 27.—The authorities classify deputies elected to fill vacancies as follows, Progressionists 18, Republicans 4, Unionists 3, Abolitionists 1.

MARKETS.

Wilmington, Jan. 27.—Spirits Turpentine firm at 42½; strained Rosins firm 1.25; Crude Turpentine steady 1,65 to 2,85; Tar [illegible]

Friday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, Jan. 28.—A somewhat sensational Washington correspondent says regarding Corbin's evidence before the Gold horror Committee, that Corbin admitted that he was engaged in speculations with Jay Gould, and the impression produced on some of the members of the Committee, was that he led Gould to believe that he (Corbin) had influence with the President through Mrs. Corbin, the President's sister and thus got Gould embarked in the speculation.

In the senate, Johnston, the Virginia Senator was seated.

The House passed a resolution making the Public Printer elective in joint session. Gibson of Virginia was sworn in and seated.

MARKETS.

New York, Jan 28.—Stocks unsettled and dull; Money easy 6 to 7, exchange, long 9, short 9½; Gold 2 52's coupon 15½; Tenn. ex coupon 54, new 45½; Va. ex-coupon 57, new 52½; La. old 70; Loves 6s 63½ 8s 77; Ala. 8s 35 5s 42; Ga. 6s 80, 7s 91; N. Ca old 41½, new 21½; S. Ca old 81½, new 75½.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER! WITHOUT SEDIMENT!! OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

Phalon's "Vitalia" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

The Vitalia is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.
