MRS. ARTIS PLUMMER, JR

Miss Phyllis Ann Massenburg is Bride of Artis Plummer, Jr.

Miss Phyllis Ann Massenburg and Artis Plummer, Jr. were married Nov. 24 at 2 p.m. at Ebenezer Baptist Church. The Rev. J. C. Harris, uncle of the bride, and the Rev. W. E. Daye officiated. Miss Paula Harrell was organist and Miss Gina Bullock was soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Zollie Massenburg of Durham. Mr. and Mrs. Artis Plummer of 713 Bacon St. are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a crepe gown which featured long sleeves and lace trim. Her three-tiered veil was attached to a hat and she carried white roses on a white Bible.

Mrs. Glyndola Wilkerson of San Diego, Calif., was her sister's matron of honor, along with the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Carolyn Williams of Durham.

Attendants were Miss Dorice Whyte, Miss Bevedine Terrell, Mrs. Linda Brodie, Miss Lillian Martin, Miss Debra Holloway, Miss Pamela Hardge, Miss Sharon Wilkerson and Miss Yvonne Davis. Junior bridesmaids were Miltrinia Brodie and Terryl Williams.

Charlie Plummer was his brother's best man. Ushers were Dwight Barnes, Edward Boyd, Gary Gibbs, Otis Gill, Claude Harris, David Plummer, Kenneth Plummer, Dwight Pettiford and Alphonza Timberlake.

Flower girls were Melanie D. Wilkerson, Gia Wilkerson, Patrice Mitchell and Brenda Mitchell. Herbert Gray Jr. was ringbearer.

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a student in the School of Architecture at Howard University. Her husband is district manager for Kirby Company in Alexandria, Va., where the couple will live.

Auxiliary Day Held at Oak Grove Church

Sunday afternoon Dec. 2, was a high day at the Oak Grove F.W.B. Church with all auxiliaries coming together to celebrate the 9th Anniversary of this annual affair.

Headed by Miss Theressa Hodges this proved to be a most successful occasion both spiritually and financially.

A plaque was awarded to the Sunday School for taking first place in contributions. Individuals receiving awards were Mr. Lucy Harris, Pastors Wife, First Place; Mrs. Emma Harris Second Place and Mrs. Zenobia Mangum Third Place.

Music for the occasion was furnished by The Junior Choir. The Male Chorus and The Melody Chorus all of the church.

Each club and choir were lovely dressed in their individual robes and outfits.

As each group made their presentation, their remarks included their purpose in the church and what the churhc meant to them. The Melody Chorus concluded their remarks by giving a receipe for, a happy church:

An abundance of love
Heaps of loyalty
Tons of faith
A generous amount of tenderness
Much friendship
A wealth of hope
Loads of forgiveness
And lots of laughter

Take love and loyalty, Mix it thoroughly with faith. Blend with tenderness, kindness, and understanding. All friendship and hope, sprinkle abundantly with laughter. Bake with sunshine. Serve daily with generous helpings.

Our pastor, The Rev. Z. D. Harris, was like a proud shephard fussing over his flock. May God ever bless him.

When you're at leisure won't you come by and worship with us at The Oak Grove Freewill Baptist Church. 801 Colfax St.
