RALEIGH COTTON MARKET

REPORTED BY A. G. LEE & CO., CROCKER-WILMINGTON STREET

Raleigh, March 14.

Receipts	48 bales
For shipment	67 "
For storage	0 "

Market very dull still, stains 10 to 11, white 11 1-2 to 12.

☞ To Postmasters.—In reply to an enquiry growing out of the refusal of the Hillsboro' postmaster to receive mutilated currency in payment for postage stamps, Treasurer Spinner replies that postmasters are authorized to receive such currency.

Col. L. C. Edwards has been absent from his seat in the Senate for a day or two, confined to his room by acute rheumatism. We are pleased to learn he is improving and will be able to attend to his duties to-day or to-morrow.

Baptist Festival.—The ladies of the Baptist Church will hold a Festival at Tucker Hall on the 21st and 22d inst. for purposes connected with their Church. We trust they will be liberally supported as their preparations are extensive.

Judge Jaybird Jones arrived in our city to-day for the purpose of consulting with members of the Legislature in regard to his late imprisonment. We learn he says that there are a good many ready in the Legislature, as well as in Washington, and there is a most hellish conspiration to drive him from his position. We have no doubt he thinks hard of his lot.

[illegible] Mr. Boyd, not long ago, the minister [illegible] the seats, looking as though he needed a [illegible] or a good square meal, so he [illegible] up to him and asked if he were a christian. "No, sir," he replied. "I am editor of the Republican paper in this place." "Then you are past praying for," repeated the devout minister.

New Patent Cotton Press.—Robert J. Harrison, of Raleigh, has secured a patent for a new cotton press. The date of the patent is Feb. 14, 1871. We are not able to give a description of the press, but from an inspection of the drawing accompanying the certificate of the Commissioner of Patents, it seems to be a simple effective contrivance, possessed of extraordinary power, and most convenient. Mr. Harrison is having one of his presses made and will shortly have it on exhibition. We welcome all inventions of our native sons and hope to see them patronized and sustained.

Skating Rink.—We omitted yesterday to notice the arrival, in this city, of Maj. Briggs, who has so successfully catered for the public in Wilmington and throughout the South and West, and who comes here to establish the now popular and fashionable skating rink. He has secured Tucker Hall, where he will give two opening nights Thursday and Friday next, consisting of promenade concerts and exhibitions of what can be achieved on the roller skates. On these occasions Maj. Briggs will introduce his daughter on the skates, and will also appear himself, with a professional skater, Mr. McClure, who accompanies him. Next week Maj. B. will commence his classes. Due notice will be given.

Second Lecture of the Course.—Rev. Wm. E. Munsey, D. D., of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, has consented to deliver a Lecture (the second of the course) in this city on Wednesday the 29th inst.—subject "The Moral Art—Music."

Dr. Munsey has a national reputation as a man of profound learning and powerful oratorical abilities. He is justly regarded as the most eloquent lecturer in this country.

The undersigned, President of the State Council, Friends of Temperance, feels highly gratified in being able to announce this engagement and hopes the public will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear this truly able orator. His subject is one of interest to all, and all may feel assured of a dissertation worthy of the occasion and the subject.

THEO. N. RAMSAY.

Raleigh, N. C., March 14, 1871.

The New Jersey Mutual Life Insurance Company, of Newark, New Jersey, has appointed Messrs. Corley & Martin managers of the Southern department of that company.

Col. James L. Corley served on the Staff of Gen. R. E. Lee until the surrender at Appomattox, and has, until recently, represented the Southern Life Insurance Company in this State. Capt. James M. Martin was formerly General Agent of the Widows and Orphans, in North Carolina.

We have been shown the fifth annual statement of the New Jersey Mutual Life, and it exhibits a degree of careful management and of progress highly commendable.

"The Best Ever Made."—"Can not use any other." "Never could use Baking Powders until I tried yours." "My family will not use any other." It is perfectly splendid." "I find it much cheaper than others." "Think it superior to any I have ever tried." These are a few of the many expressions in favor of Dooley's Yeast Powder which well deserves the rapidly increasing sale it has attained for making sweet, light, and healthy biscuits, rolls, pastry, &c. For purity, strength, and economy it has no equal. It can be obtained at your Grocer's. Dooley & Brother, Proprietors, 69 New Street, New York.

IMPEACHMENT.

TRIAL OF W. W. HOLDEN.

THIRTY-SEVENTH DAY.

Senate Chamber, March 14, 1871.

Court met, Hon. Chief Justice Pearson in the chair.

Roll called and forty-one senators present.

The counsel for the respondent introduced two other witnesses, Carter Corsey, and Wilson Cary, (archives of gravity) both colored.

Corsey testified to having been very severely beaten by disguised men, knew none of them. Had heard that he had been accused of stealing a sheep, but it was not so. Cary stated the acting be[illegible] been parties in Caswell county, very bitter, but it was political altogether, not personal.

The case of the respondent closed here.

Messrs. Gibson L. Gibson, Jesse Hunt, and Wm. Wilkins, were each examined as to the general character of John W. Long, (hog thief.) They testified to his being generally regarded as a liar, thief, and bad in every way.

Mr. Greason testified to having been aroused the night Corlis was whipped, by Mrs. Corlis; that after she called him some half hour, went to his home, he gave him brandy, sent for Mrs. C., who carried him home. His head was shaved on one half, and blacked, and one entire half of his body was blacked.

John B. Neathery was called to the stand by the managers, and testified that there was no record of any meeting of the council of state relative to the military movements of last summer.

John R. Ireland, of Alamance, was put on the stand by the managers, and testified that he had never belonged to a secret political society [illegible] no connection [illegible] with the whipping of Sam Garrison, col. Garrison swore during this trial that he recognized Mr Ireland and Mr. Isley as two of the parties who whipped him.)

Mr Jacob Isley, sworn, and stated that he had no connection with the whipping of Garrison nor did he ever belong to any secret political society.

Jacob A. Long called and sworn by the Managers.

I was subpoenaed by the respondent. Have been here since the 14th of January. I belonged to the White Brotherhood, in Alamance. Was chief of camp No. 1, and by virtue of that was chief of the county. I understood the object to be [illegible] [illegible] the negroes [illegible] [illegible] frightening the negroes and keep them from prowling about stealing &c. The oath, by-laws &c., of the order were produced and read. No part of oath, or explanation required or suggested a violation of any law, or of an effort to overthrow the existing state and national governments—not to protect member by getting on juries and giving false verdicts, or giving false evidence. In initiating Mr. Boyd I told him nothing about overthrowing the republican party by force. Oath administered was such as just read. The explanations given him were as to the manner of holding meetings, of disguises, and such incidental questions as might have suggested themselves. Nothing whatever said about giving false verdicts or anything of that kind. In May, 1869, I called a county meeting, told them that I had heard that charges were being made against the order of criminal violations of the law, and that it must stop. The order must stop every thing of the kind. At that meeting I appointed a meeting of the chiefs of the camps in the county, to be held two weeks thereafter.

It was held out we all agree to dissolve the order entirely in the county, and then all my knowledge and connection with it ceased.

I heard of the death of Mr John W. Stevens. I think Mr. Boyd told me of it. Monday or Tuesday after it occurred. We were talking about it, and he expressed surprise at such a thing. I remarked to him, that I was not so much surprised as he was, that a few days before that Mr. Dickey was with me and stated that it was generally talked in Yanceyville that Stevens had been counselling and advising the negroes to burn barns, &c., if the kuklux were guilty of any outrages, and in consequence of this advice a number of barns had been burned; and that if any kuklux were in that county he thought perhaps they would attend to his case. This is all that was said about it. I never thought of it afterwards, it was merely an incidental remark. I presume there were between one hundred and fifty and two hundred members of the white brotherhood in the county, not more. I know the general character of John W. Long. It is bad, for stealing and lying. Joe Harvey generally reported to be a thief. I never gave an order for the committal of any crime. I gave an order countermanding a determination of a camp to drown Caswell Holt. John W. Long, I think, told me of it, and I told him to have it stopped. Twenty days after this we agreed to dissolve the order.

Cross examination by Mr. Boyden.

In Graham when Outlaw was hung, saw the disguised men, fifty or sixty in number, I thought. Did not know any, nor have I learned one of them since. I did not go out that night, to stop it. I have not said so before, but I do say that I think it would have been unsafe for me to have gone. As they were passing my house, I stepped to my door, and they threw some lightwood sticks at me, breaking several of my window glasses.

I was in Hillsboro last summer preceeding my studies of law, when [illegible] commenced and I waited to see what the action of the chief justice would be in the habeas corpus cases, and as soon as I found out the result of these cases before him, I left the State. I heard the prisoners were to be tried by a military court, and I determined not to be tried by any such tribunal. I also heard that the order had been made for my arrest. I don't know that Col. McAllister was a member of the order.

Senator James A. Graham, Jesse Gant, Col. McAllister, of the House, testified to the good character of Mr. Jacob A. Long.

Mr. E. T. Dickey called to the stand and gave substantially the same account of the conversation with Mr. Jacob A. Long, relative to the kuklux and Stephens as given in Mr. Long's evidence above. He joined the White Brotherhood in Graham in 1868. He lives in Caswell, is a lawyer. Never knew of the existence of the order in Caswell. Know the general reputation of Tilman Brown and Arch. Doll, col. Both very bad.

Mr. Sparrow announced the Managers were prepared to go on with the argument.

The court adjourned.

SEVERAL SPECIFIC

Needles of invalids are more sensitive to changes of season and variations of temperature than dyspeptics, and persons of bilious habit. Tender lungs are not more easily affected by these vicissitudes than feeble stomachs. If there is a tendency in the system to indigestion biliousness, or bowel complaints, the variable weather of early spring is almost sure to develope one or other of these ailments. In fact all fevers are also more prevalent in the spring months than at any other season except autumn. In view of these facts, it seems to be a proper time to invite especial attention to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a [illegible] [illegible] for the spring months (therefore and as a protection against the fevers and bilious complaints which are so prevalent at this season of the year, it was formerly the practice to give violent cathartics or "spring medicines" but to the enlightened [illegible] [illegible] Nothing however can be more [illegible] [illegible] and unphilosophical. The chilling moisture with which the air is loaded at the breaking up of winter, presses heavily upon the vital forces of the body, and reinforcement, not depletion, is what it requires. The Bitters is a genial and excellent tonic, a moderate alterative, and just enough of an aperient to regulate, without convulsing, the bowels. It is therefore, a specific peculiarly adapted for the present season.

It has been variable on the remaining Lakes, and in the Southern States. A very sudden fall in the barometer, with great increase of temperature, and brisk southerly winds are reported from the western plains.

Schnapps is a remedy in chronic catarrhal [illegible] I have great pleasure in bearing highly cred[illegible] it. Having a natural tendency to the mucous [illegible] with a slight degree of stimulation, I regard it as one of the most important remedies in chronic catarrhal affections, particularly those of the genito-urinary apparatus. With much respect, your obedient servant,

CHAS. A. LEAS, M. D., New York.

Gerrit Wolfe, Esq.: Dear Sir: I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your "Schiedam Schnapps," with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of deleterious substances which are sometimes employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself, nor to recommend to others, for medicinal purposes, the "Schiedam Schnapps" as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of gin. Very respectfully yours,

(8 good) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

The Pain Killer is by universal consent allowed to have won for itself a reputation unsurpassed in the history of medical preparations. Its instantaneous effect in the cradle to the extremities of Pain in all its various forms, recommends it to the human family, and the unsolicited written and verbal testimony of the masses in its favor, have been, and are its best advertisement.

The ingredients of a Pain Killer, being purely Vegetable, render it a perfectly safe and efficacious remedy taken internally as well as for external applications, when used according to directions. The stain upon linen from its use is readily removed by washing with alcohol.

This Medicine, justly celebrated for the cure of so many of the afflictions incident to the human family, has now been before the public over THIRTY YEARS, and has found its way into almost every corner of the world; and wherever it has been used, the same opinion is expressed of its medical properties.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time keepers.

More than 500,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enables them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

These time pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watch making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair-springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust, and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem winder, or keyless watch is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem winding Watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improv
