Mechanics, Manufacturers and Inventors.

A NEW Volume of the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN commences about the middle of September in each year. It is a journal of Science, Mechanical, and other improvements; the advance of industry in all its various branches. It is published weekly in a form suitable for binding, and consistent at the end of each year, a title and table of over 400 pages, with a copious index, and from five to six hundred original engravings, together with a great amount of practical information concerning the progress of invention and discovery throughout the world.

The Scientific American is the most widely circulated and popular journal of the kind now published. Its Editors, Contributors, and Correspondents are among the ablest practical scientific men in the world.

The Patent Claims are published weekly and are invaluable to Inventors and Patentees.
