THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

APPROACHING STATE CONVENTION.

The State Convention, to frame a Constitution for the old State of North Carolina, has been called by Gen. Canby to meet on the 14th. of the present month. We design to report the proceedings of that body as fully and as fairly as possible. The public will be interested in its proceedings, and it will add considerably to our expenses to report them. The presumption is that it will be in session a full month. The Daily Sentinel will be sent to any person who may desire it only during the session, for $1, cash in advance.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—See the advertisement of Young's Boarding House, Fayetteville Street,—an excellent and cheap place of accommodation.

"Boots" announces himself a candidate for Assistant Doorkeeper of the Convention.

Flour, Buckwheat, Bacon, Butter: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville Street.

Rhodes vs. Rhodes—Petition for Divorce: J. N. Bunting, C. S. C., Wake.

Cocktails, City Ale, Corn Meal, Mountain Apples, Tallow: W. H. Jones & Co.

J. H. Horner: Classical and Mathematical School at Oxford.

Geo. T. Cooke can accommodate members of the Convention, and others, with good board.

CITY FINANCES.—A full exhibit of the receipts and disbursements of the City Treasurer, for the last year, is posted at the Court House, according to law, for the information of the public. Those who feel interest in the subject can consult it there.

SUPREME COURT.—This Tribunal convenes this morning, and we learn that all the Judges have arrived. To-day will be devoted to the applicants for license to practice in the County Courts.

FATHER RYAN.—We learn, with pleasure, that the Young Men's Christian Association have invited this distinguished and charming Southern Poet and Scholar to deliver a lecture in this City, in furtherance of the charitable objects of the Association. We hope soon to be able to announce that the invitation has been accepted.

REV. T. H. KINSBURY has resumed the Editorial chair of the Warrenton Indicator. We are glad that his graceful pen is still to be employed in advancing the character of North Carolina journalism.

THE CONVENTION (SO CALLED.)—Already there have been quite a number of arrivals of delegates, and there will doubtless be more than a quorum in attendance to-morrow. Candidates (white and black) for the various offices are as plenty as blackberries, and electioneering, upon a co-larious system of equality, is progressing industriously.—Some of the greedy patriots are destined to disappointment.

COMPTROLLER'S REPORT.—We commence to-day, and shall continue in successive numbers until completed, the Annual Report of the Comptroller of Public Accounts, for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30, 1867.—The document possesses general interest, as an exhibit of the receipts and disbursements of the State government. It is compiled and arranged in a manner that reflects credit upon Mr. Durgin's efficiency as an Officer of State.

EXQUISITE SMOKING TOBACCO.—J. R. Green, Esq., the enterprising manufacturer at Durham's, is entitled to our thanks for a box of very superior Smoking Tobacco,—one of the finest articles we have ever seen or tried. It is put up with great neatness and the aroma is equal to a bouquet. We advise those, who would secure something that is indeed, A No. 1, to call on Mr. Green.

Durham's is famous the country over, for its Smoking Tobacco. Either Mr. Green, or our friends Morris & Son, will fill orders, large or small.

For the Sentinel.

DRAM LOCAL.—Public opinion, heartily coinciding with the views expressed in the Sentinel of the 11th., concerning the admirable impersonation of Rip Van Winkle by Maj. Manly, is clamorous for a more definite notice of the "Mischievous Nigger." It is universally admitted that the gentleman who impersonated Antony Snow displayed, on Friday night, an appreciation of the negro character, and a comic vein in acting, which have never been excelled, by any delineators who have ever visited Raleigh.

NO JUDGE.—We learn that Gen. John P. Poindexter, who was tendered the vacant Superior Court Judgeship, by Gov. Worth, declined the honor. It is very much to be regretted that Gen. Poindexter could not, under present positive circumstances, accept the office of judge, which he is so eminently qualified to fill.—Salem Press.

BOARD OF VALUATION.

The following important Circular has just been addressed, by the Public Treasurer, to the Chairmen of the several County Courts in the State:

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, Jan. 9, 1868.

SIR:—By the act to raise Revenue, ratified February 26, 1867, it is the duty of the County Courts, at the first term after the 1st. day of January, to appoint Boards of Valuation for the purpose of assessing the value of real estate in this State. The duties of the Court and of the Boards are particularly laid down in the act for collecting Revenue, ratified March 12th., 1866.

It must be remembered, however, that the taxes, payable in the Fall of 1868, will not be levied on the basis of the new valuation. By the act to raise Revenue it is provided that said new valuation shall be reported by the Clerks of the County Courts to the Public Treasurer, by him to be laid before the next General Assembly. For purposes of State and county levies the valuation of 1860, as modified in certain special cases of increase or decrease of values by reason of extraordinary causes, as provided in sections 28 and 29 of the act for collecting Revenue, will be retained until otherwise hereafter directed by law.

Very respectfully,
KEMP P. BATTLE,
Public Treasurer.

THE BOTTOM OUT.

Will Grant run upon a Republican platform, with the bottom out? That's the question. All eyes will soon turn upon the Supreme Court. The McCardle case, from Mississippi, is there. Not many days now will elapse before the case will excite more intense discussion and interest than anything in Congress.

The validity of the laws establishing military despotism in ten States of the Union is now brought directly in question, upon a habeas corpus case. McCardle was arrested, imprisoned, and arraigned for trial before a military commission, for publishing articles in a newspaper at Vicksburg, denouncing their acts as unconstitutional, and advising the people to vote against a Convention. It is a case involving personal liberty upon a writ of right, and it takes precedence before the Court.

The case presents the naked question of the validity of these laws. The Court must meet and decide it; and they will. These laws are such open, flagrant violations of the Constitution that it is impossible they will not be declared such by a majority of the Judges; and that decision knocks the bottom out of the Republican platform.

But the case is likely to present another interesting feature.

Upon the bench sits Chief-Justice Chase, a candidate for the Presidency, especially urged by the negro organizations of the South. President Johnson will be represented by the Attorney General, who must concede in open Court that those laws are unconstitutional; that will compel General Grant, who represents the War Department, and has the military reconstruction under his control, to come into Court also, by counsel specially employed for that purpose, or he must abandon the military supremacy sought to be established by those military reconstruction bills. And there will appear also the counsel of McCardle to represent the liberties of the people, and to maintain that the Constitution which expressly forbids the arrest and trial of American citizens not engaged in the naval or military service, by military courts, is still the supreme law of the land. But the curious inquiry now is, what immediate effect will it have upon candidates and parties?

Many sagacious men believe that General Grant, who has always expressed reluctance to leave his present high position to be a candidate for the Presidency, will say to the Radical politicians who desire to nominate him, "the bottom of your platform is gone. I have resolved to remain where I am upon the solid platform of General in-Chief of the Army, and shall adhere to that until I find a sounder basis than a Republican platform."

But for the Chief-Justice what a glorious opportunity to present himself in an elaborate opinion as the champion and defender of the negro and military despotism policy, and, par excellence, its best and representative. He may thus increase his chances for the nomination at Chicago. Let us wait patiently. We shall see.—N. Y. World.

DEPARTURE OF MR. DAVIS.—Hon. Jefferson Davis and wife left here last evening by the steamer Wild Wagoner for Natchez, Miss., whence they will proceed to visit in military friends and localities in that State.—The occasion of the departure attracted quite an assemblage to the vicinity of the steamer, and Mr. Davis was heartily cheered by a crowd of white and black as he stepped on board.—N. O. Crescent, Jan. 5.

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c.,

in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the State, having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

Jan. 9th, 1868. D. W. COURTS.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities North of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe, securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analysis of all minerals that may be sent to me,—thus determining the value of mines, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS:—For selling lands, five per cent. commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the State, with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

NEW RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11, P. M

The House Committee on Reconstruction this afternoon agreed upon a bill, to be reported on Monday, declaring that there are no civil governments in the lately rebellious States, and that the Provisional governments shall not be recognized as valid or legal either by the Executive or Judicial authority of the United States. In order to the speedy enforcement of the several reconstruction laws, the General of the army is authorized to remove all officers for employed, and appoint others, to the performance of all acts required by those statutes, to the end that the people of the said several States may speedily organize civil governments, Republican in form, and be restored to their political power in the Union.

So much of the reconstruction acts, as authorizes the President to detail the military Commanders or remove others, is repealed.

The bill declares it unlawful for the President to order any part of the army or navy to assist by force of arms the military of those Provisional governments, or to obstruct the authority of the United States.

The bill further declares that the interference by any person, with intent to prevent by force the execution of the orders of the General of the Army, shall be held to be a high misdemeanor, and that the party guilty thereof, on conviction, shall be fined not exceeding $5,000, and imprisoned not exceeding two years.

The bill repeals all parts of the reconstruction acts inconsistent with the above provisions.

Stevens voted against the bill in Committee, asserting that it was intended to elect Grant.

This Evening's Express has the following:

"The House Judiciary Committee will on Monday, report the Senate bill defining a quorum of the Supreme Court, with an amendment, providing that it shall be necessary that two-thirds of the Court shall agree, before any law of Congress shall be declared unconstitutional."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11, P. M.

The returns to the Department of Agriculture, relative to the cotton crop, indicate fully 20 per cent increase, in the aggregate, over the crop of 1866. The total estimate, made in view of all the Department data, as well as outside information, is placed at 2,340,000 bales.
