CROWDED OUT.—Several communication are crowded out of this issue. They will appear hereafter.

RURAL CAROLINIAN.—This excellent Agricultural monthly for September is to hand filled as usual with many articles of great value.

LOST.

A large gold Watch Key, on the street between the methodist church and Maj. Robbins." If any one has found it and will return it to me, a proper reward shall be given.
R. G. BARRETT.

ARRESTED.—A man calling himself Jacob Klutiz, has been arrested in Cabarrus county on suspicion of being a horse thief. He had in his possession, when arrested, a clay-bank mare, 6 years old, with light mane and tail, and 2 white feet, rather under size. The mare is thought to be the property of Mr. Monroe Barrier of this county. If so, he can get information which will lead to her recovery by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

Hogs having been turned loose on the streets, grape hulls and melon rinds disappeared rapidly yesterday.—Wilmington Star.

So it seems, after a fair trial, the Wilmingtonians have decided that it is better to let the hogs have the run of the streets. This is sensible. The streets must have scavengers of some kind. Hogs serve as street sweepers and cleaners, and prevent mud puddles from becoming stagnant and poisonous.

We are surprised that in a place as large as Wilmington hogs are allowed to run in the streets. Even Salisbury wont allow such a nuisance, so-called

NEW GOLD MINE.—We have been shown by S. J. Pemberton, Esq., of Albemarle, a nugget of gold weighing 28 penny-weights, the product of a newly discovered mine a little above Swift Island, Montgomery county, beginning to be known as Melton's mine, after the name of the discoverer and proprietor, Mr. John R. Melton. It is a deposit or branch mine, and the indications are that it is very rich

We are never surprised to hear of such discoveries in Montgomery county. There is a large portion of the Territory within her bounds where a man can scarcely set his foot without covering more or less of this precious metal.

Messrs. Craige & Craige, attorneys at Law and Solicitors in Bankruptcy, publish a card in another column to which we invite attention; and we will take liberty to add in this connection for the benefit of those who contemplate going into Bankruptcy that now is the accepted time. By going into Bankruptcy now persons irretrievably involved may save their Homesteads; and they should take advantage of the law while they may, for there is no telling how soon it may be repealed. We would advise every one who is ruinously involved to take advantage of the law and save their Homestead. It is the best they can do. Hereafter, if they should recuperate and become able to pay their debts then it will be a matter for them to decide with their consciences whether they should do it or not.

TAX ON PHYSICANS.—We think it very unjust to say the least, that a town tax of Ten Dollars should be imposed on physicians. There is no profession that contributes so largely to the alleviation of suffering humanity, or performs more charity labor, and at such unseasonble hours. Nearly all other professions and pursuits have laws to protect them against fraudulent debtors.—None but what have a better chauce to protect themselves than the physican.

We therefore think, that our physicans should be exempted from the extra town Tax of Ten Dollars, and we hope that the Board will take the matter under consideration with the view of removing this invidious and unjust imposition. In consideration of the immese amount of charity practice they have to do, we do not hesi on our motion to call the matter to the attention of the Board.

Hon. J. J. HICKMAN AND THE Independant Order of Good Templars, IN SALISBURY, AUG. 28.

Hon. J. J. Hickman, made us a very able, effecting and interesting lecture, at the M. E. Church, in behalf of the Temperance cause, after which he organized an Independent Order of Good Templars, known as the "Golden Star" Lodge, No. 8, with a membership of 32.

The following officers were then elected:

J. F. Ross, W. C. T.
Miss J. E. Summerell, W. V. T.
J. D. Gaskill, W. Secretary.
Rev. R. G. Barrett, W. Chaplain.
H. T. Burke, W. F. Secretary.
Mrs. Jones, W. Treasurer.
J. Alston Ramsay, W. Marshall.
Miss Annie Baker, W. I. G.
Thos. K. Bruner, W. O. G.
J. D. McNeely, W. L. Deputy.
J. A. Clodfelter, P. W. C. T.
Miss Annie Rowzie, R. H. S.
Miss Etta Broadfield, L. H. S.
Miss Sallie Scott, W. A. Secretary.
Miss Stella Cowan, W. D. M.

J. F. Ross, H. T. Burke, J. D. Gaskill, Miss Annie Rowzie and Miss J. E. Summerell, were elected delegates to the Grand Lodge, to be held in Raleigh, on the 2nd of Sep. '72.

Friday night chosen as the regular meeting night.

MEETING OF THE COMMISSIONERS SEPT. 2ND, 1872.—The Town Board held their regular monthly meeting this date, at which there were present, T. G. Haughton, Mayor, Robt. Murphy, John H. Verble, J. J. Bruner, John I. Shaver, Jas. S. McCubbins, John A. Snider, absent, J. M. Coffin and Jehu Foster.

A paper was read and signed by the Board, which is to be forwarded North for publication, as a refutation of the Slanderous charges telegraphed to Radical papers concerning the late street fights in this place.

The Board was notified by the Sheriff that certain creditors were urging him to push for money due themby the Town, and Mr. John Snider was authorized to make an effort to raise the amount needed for immediate use.

Mr. J. H. Verble was granted the privilege of repairing and using a stall at the Market-house without additional cost on what he is now paying.

Col. C. S. Brown was granted license to retail spirituous liquors at the Boyden House, one year from date.

The committee appointed to investigate the number of Graves dug in the Salisbury Cemeteries during the year, reported, and the Mayor was ordered to have a book provided in which to keep the number of graves dug, the prices paid, &c. &c., which shall be also a sort of account with the sexton.

Price for digging graves in the Cemeteries was not changed, and remains the same that it was last year: Five Dollars for those of adults, and Three Dollars for those of children under 12 years of age.

The following claims were audited and will be paid:

One by C. J. Miller for Police service	$30,00
" " the Mayor for colored Police on election day	10,00
" " H. Couble for Material and Building 2 stalls at the Market-house	32,00
" " R. Murphy for Lumber and service	6,00
" " Jas. S. McCubbins for service	4,00
" " R. J. West for service	4,00
" " Crawford & Heilig for Well chain &c	4,93
" " W. M. Barker for work	2,10
" " A. M. Sullivan & Co., for shovel and Bucket	1,35
Total	94,38

On motion, the Board then adjourned.

DRINKING.—No man ever became a drunkard, lived a drundard's life, died a drunkard's death, and filled a drunkard's grave, as a matter of free choice. No one ever become an excessive drinker who did not begin by the habit of being a moderate drinker. If it were the habit of all not to take the first step and thus not become moderate drinkers, the unutterable horrors and woe, the destitution and crime, which results from this master evil of intemperance, would cease. Wives and children and friends and communities would not mourn over loved ones thus dishonored and lost. But it is the habit of drinking becoming the law of their being and of their daily life, the lack of resisting power resulting from this terrible thraldom, the fever of habitual temptation and appetite, which causes that yearly death-march of sxty thousand of our people to the saddest of all graves, followed as mourners by half a million of worse than orphaned children.

Wonder when such miserable bosh will ceased to be published, and the lunatics who thus write will cease to have readers. Sensible people long for the time.

A NEW NORTH CAROLINA BOOK ABOUT NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.—We beg leave to return our sincere thanks to the author, Rev. G. D. Bernheim, Pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of this city, for a copy of his History of the German Settlement and the Lutheran Church in the Carolinas, just published.

A book that shall give us a true "History of the German Settlements of the Lutheran Church in North and South Carolina from the earliest period of the colonization of the Dutch, German and Swiss settlers, to the close of the first half of the present century," will supply a want long felt by educated men in all parts of North Carolina.

The simple fact that Mr. Bernheim was preparing the book, gave us such strong assurance of a patient, laborious, intelligent investigation and research, and of truthful statement of facts as well as of excellence in its literary execution, that we have been looking forward with much pleasure, and indeed with some impatience too, to its perusal ever since we learned of its intended publication.

The book having just come into our hands, we are not prepared this morning to say anything further than that it can be procured from Messrs. James Sprunt and Henry Ehrbeck, who are the authorized agents for its sale in this city.—Wilmington Journal.

THE CAMPAIGN WATCHMAN.

The election and excitement having passed away, we now propose to unite all our energies in laboring for the success of Greeley and Brown; and in order that our efforts may be effective it is important that the WATCHMAN should have as large a number of readers as possible. We therefore propose to furnish the paper for the Campaign at the following reduced rates.

One copy for three months	$ 75
10 " " " "	5.00
1 " " six "	1.00
10 " " " "	8.00

At these rates there will be no excuse for any one to be without a paper. Further more, the seasons have favored the farmers, the crops are good, and no one can well excuse himself for the want of means.

We regard the election of Greeley as of most vital importance to the whole country, and especially to the South. In North Carolina, we should by all means strive to secure his election, since Caldwell has achieved a victory by fraud and intimidation. The triumph of Greeley would prove a wholesome check upon the brutal lawlessness of Caldwell.

Let every one keep posted:—send on the clubs;—the public is deeply interested in what is to transpise in the next six months.

SAD STORY OF DEATH BY FIRE.—A man named James Fewing, near Amador, Calafornia, went to sleep in his wine cellar, about two hundred feet from his house, on the night of August 3, and waking at midnight and starting toward his house he discovered that it was on fire. On his way to it he noticed a burning object in his barn door, and threw this into the path to prevent its firing the barn. He then approached the house and finding it impossible to save it, started to a neighbor's, a mile and a half away. Returning hence he found that the object which he had seen burning in the barn door was probably a human body, and about daylight instituted such an examination as satisfied him that the burned body was that of his wife, who, it is supposed, had started to run from the house to the wine cellar to invoke the aid of her husband, with her clothes on fire, and that the intensity of her pain, together with the blinding effect of the flames from her garments, rendered her powerless to get further than the barn.

VALUABLE HINTS.

A regular habit of body is absolutely essential to physical health and clearness of intellect. Nor is this all. Beauty of person cannot co-exist with an unnatural condition of the bowels. A free passage of the refuse matter of the system through these natural waste pipes, is as necessary to the purity of the body as free passage of the offal of a city through its sewers is necessary to the health of its inhabitants.

Indigestion is the primary cause of most of the diseases of the discharging organs, and one its most common results is constipation. This complaint, besides being dangerous itself has many disagreeable concomitants—such as an unpleasant breath, a sallow skin, contaminating blood and bile, hemorrhoids, headache, loss of memory, and general debility.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters remove all evils by removing their immediate cause in digestive organs, and regulating the action of the intestines. The combination of properties in this celebrated preparation is one of its chief merits. It is not merely a stimulant or a tonic, or an antibilious agent, or a nervine, or a blood depurent, or a cathartic, but all these curative elements judiciously blended in one powerful restorative. It lends activity and vigor to the inert and enervated stomach, relieves the alimentary canal of its obstructions, and gives tone to the membrane which lines it, gently stimulates the liver, braces the nerves, and cheers the animal spirits. No other remedy possesses such a variety of hygienic virtues. It is to these characteristic virtues that it owes its prestige as a household medicine. Experience has proved that it is as harmless as it is efficacious, and hence it is as popular with the weaker sex as with the stronger.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are sold in bottles only, and the trade-mark blown in the glass engraved on the label is the test of genuineness. Beware of counterfeits.
