Devorah Group of Hadassah

On Sunday, July 29th, Bobby Pollard thought she was back in Piccadilly, former New Yorkers thought they were boarding the Fifth Avenue bus and the natives were astounded as the Devorah group of Hadassah with their families and friends, climbed on the WBT double decker bus for an outing at Tegã Cay. Don and Ronnie Herman served as host and hostess as well as Indian guides on the "Summer Interlude." The Herman's yacht, well, motor boat, took the attending Hadassah people around Lake Wiley after 'gesunde' picnic lunches were enjoyed by all.

On Wednesday, August 15 a newcomers coffee was held at the home of Mrs. Richard (Jane)

Goodman, Mrs. Ed (Gail) Greene, president of Hadassah chapter, and Mrs. Sam (Alice) Schreiber, president of Devorah (the evening group) spoke on the importance of Hadassah and told of the activities of the two groups. Anyone wishing to join Hadassah please contact Gail Greene (542-0308) for day meetings and Alice Schreiber (364-8824) for evening meetings.

Devorah meetings are held on the second Wednesday of the month. The first meeting of the year will be an entertaining skit welcoming the new members. The date for the membership meeting will be September 12, and we welcome guests. The meeting will take place in the Ivy Room of the JCC at 8 p.m.

Symphony Lovers

The Chai Group at the JCC has been donated 25 tickets for the coming symphony season by Fred Stern. This is a marvelous opportunity for the group to enjoy the wonderful sounds of our fine symphony. However, some of the members of Chai do not drive and need transportation.

If you plan to attend the concerts and could take a Chai member with you, it would be greatly appreciated. Please contact Ilse Bergen at 366-0300.

Ha Lailah BBW

Ha Lailah's Janet Rubin will be a TV star on Jim Patterson's show, "This Morning", Sept. 11, at 6:16 a.m. Janet will appear with Bill Duane, who is working with Ha Lailah Chapter on a fund raising project. Mr. Duane is a cosmetologist at Chere Amie Beauty Salon and will donate a percentage of his profits to the chapter if a client mentions BBW.

During the program Janet will explain what B'nai B'rith Women as an organization does, service projects and the necessary fund raising. Fund raising helps support the philanthropies of the national organization, such as the Children's Home in Israel.

Be sure to see the show and register for the class, "Make-over Magic" Mr. Duane will be teaching at the JCC. And, when you make an appointment with him at Chere Amie remember to mention BBW.

ORT

Women's American ORT will join with World ORT Union in celebrating its 100 years of service to the Jewish people. In the course of its existence over two million people in almost 50 countries were served by ORT. Its programs now enroll over 100,000 youth and adults as well as large numbers of Soviet Jewish refugees in 24 countries.

In Israel ORT serves as the national resource for the creation of the skilled and technical work-force that is basic to survival and economic development. ORT enrolls the greater part of Israel's high school generation, over 60,000 in 95 schools throughout the country.

The Charlotte Chapter of ORT is beginning to celebrate the Centennial Year by meeting membership goals early. Be a part of the largest non-governmental vocational training agency in the world.

Join now and be ORT's guest for crepes at our first paid-up membership function. The celebration will be held on September 19th at 6108 Bittersweet Lane.

For more information please contact Gayle Fein at 364-0711 or Pam Silberman at 542-0081.

Tennis News

Summer was great with Rebecca Barnette as our pro. The Junior Leagues in Queen City had fun and our Junior Boys Division II came out in first place. Congratulations guys!

Ladies and Men's Queen City Team Leagues start in September.

The Pat Mann Mixed Doubles Cancer Society Tournament will be held Saturday morning September 29th. More information on this will follow.

Women's Team

Queen City tennis matches will begin Thursday, Sept. 13th. A tennis clinic is being planned for the Women's B Team and will be held on a Thursday morning. Team members will be notified of the date and time.

There will also be a tennis meeting with the A and C teams before the matches being to discuss all pertinent information before the start of the season.

The tennis ladder is posted on the outside bulletin board and lists all positions. If anyone has questions regarding the team please call: Paula Musler (366-3602) or Elise Menaker (364-4643).

Anyone interested in participating in or learning more about the Women's C Tennis Team, call the Center, 366-0357. Competitive play will start the middle of September.

Farewell To Summer

On Sunday, September 16th the JCC will hold a "Farewell to Summer" FAMILY SWIM and picnic. This is the last week-end that the pools will be open and all JCC members are cordially invited to bring a picnic lunch (after Sunday School), and come for an afternoon of family fun to bid a fond farewell to summer.

Labor Day Festivities

The JCC will hold its Labor Day Festivities on Sunday, September 2nd, the CHAI Group, which is a self-supporting group of Seniors, will hold a BAKE SALE starting at 12 p.m. All items will be home-made by the Seniors and the proceeds will go to support their continuing programs. At 2 p.m. there will be a variety of family activities such as water-raft races, water-volleyball and the ever-popular water-balloon toss. At 3 p.m. the CHAI Group will hold its annual Raffle. The prizes include an original water-color donated by Beverly Howard, talented local artist, and a beautiful afghan and matching pillow made and donated by Sylvia Sadoff. If you have not already purchased tickets for the raffle, you may do so at the JCC. Tickets are 50¢ apiece and twelve for $5. The money raised by the CHAI Group will go directly to the Building Fund of the JCC. At 4:30 p.m. Jimmy of Deli-Town will serve a fried-chicken box supper at the incredibly low price of $2/adults and $1/children. Reservations must be in by Friday, August 31st, so call the "J" today to reserve your place. We're looking forward to the biggest turnout ever - so celebrate Labor Day at the "J" and remember the date: Sunday, September 2nd!

Bowling League To Form

The Jewish Community Center is currently forming a couples bowling league. It will begin in October, and will be held at Park Lanes on Sunday evenings at 8:30 p.m. The cost will be $6 per couple/per week. For further information please contact Michele Weinberg - 365-2300.
