VOL. III. RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, AUGUST 3, 1868. NO. 306

The Daily Sentinel.

WM. H. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

CONSISTENCY.

If any one of our readers desires to see how truly consistent and honest the Rev. George William Welker is, let him call to his mind his celebrated war speech delivered at the great dinner given by that now truly loyal citizen and son-in-law of brother Welker, Wm. Mebane, Esq., and contrast it with his speeches made and published in the late Constitutional Convention. If this does not satisfy him, we most solemnly urge upon him to get a copy of the preamble and resolutions drafted by him and passed by a public meeting held at Cobble's school-house, in July, 1865, if we mistake not, and compare them with the Police Bill, so-called, he has introduced into the Senate. This infamous bill is by far more unconstitutional and tyrannical than any bill ever introduced in the Confederate Congress, in the darkest and most despotic days of the late war, all of which Holden and Welker denounced as being both unconstitutional and tyrannical in the extreme. But now behold the change. Holden, the negro Governor elect, calls for a Picket, Partisan, Pensioned Police, in time of peace, to be organized, armed and equipped, and designated by a badge of honor and authority, at the expense of the State, and placed under the command and at the disposal of his royal highness King William the 1st, of the Scallawags. The message is no sooner read than behold the great defender of the Constitution, civil and religious liberty in 1863, the Reverend George William Welker, makes haste to devise and introduce the infamous, tyrannical and unconstitutional Picked, Partizan, Pensioned, Police Bill above referred to. When this outrageous bill is carefully read and contrasted with the Constitution and the preamble and resolutions passed at Cobble's school house, if every honest and intelligent man who reads and carefully contrasts them does not honestly come to the conclusion that the Reverend gentleman above named is a knave or a fool, then we are mistaken. And if he heard this man speak at the dinner given by Wm. Mebane, as many ladies and gentlemen of high character and respectability did, we incline to the opinion it will not take him long to decide as to which of the two classes the Reverend gentleman belongs. —Greensboro Times.

The latest purpose of the Radical party to arm the negroes of the South is so fraught with danger that some even of the newly admitted Representatives of the South have raised their voices against the monstrous design. Mr. Boyden, a member from North Carolina, in the course of a recent debate, deplored, in the following language, the mischiefs which would inevitably attend this arming of the negroes:

"Mr. Speaker, I am alarmed at the condition of the country. It is proposed to send arms to North Carolina that the people may use them against each other. Great God, we cannot afford to fight each other. Keep away your arms, do nothing to irritate our people, but do everything in your power to assuage and heal the excitement there; we want no arms. I warn the South if arms are sent there we will be ruined; we cannot live there. If we need anything in the way of arms, in God's name send us arms of the United States there, but do not arm neighbor against neighbor. There never was a more mischievous measure than this proposition to arm one class of our people against another."

But with their usual disregard of free speech, as soon as it was discovered that Mr. Boyden was opposed to this revolutionary measure, the Radicals effectually closed his mouth. Mr. Boutwell thought him out of order to speak against this measure, though Mr. Stokes had been permitted to advocate it, and the facile Colfax accordingly sustained Mr. Boutwell and administered the gag to Mr. Boyden.

The purposes of the Radical party are so apparent that the people must soon awake to the dangers which seriously threaten their liberties. The arms to be placed in the hands of Southern negroes are intended by the Radicals to be used not against the South alone, but also against the white race of the North. If the purpose of the Radicals is to distribute arms for the preservation of liberty, why do they not arm the white men of the North as well as the negroes of the South?

Their purpose is revolution and negro supremacy as a means of successful revolution. They have lost the confidence of the white man, and seek to win that of the negro. They cannot rely upon white troops, and they propose to arm a band of black janissaries, to be maintained by taxes levied upon the white race, and kept in pay as a means of trampling the superior race under foot. Their designs can no longer be concealed, let the people of the North awake to a sense of their danger, and secure their threatened liberties by electing and inaugurating into office as guardians of the Constitution those stanch patriots, Seymour and Blair.—Louisville Courier.

ANOTHER RADICAL SCHEME.—An important Radical movement was disclosed here to day, by which it is proposed to cast the entire electoral vote of the South for Grant and Colfax. The carpet-bag Representatives have got up a plan to have the Radical Southern Legislatures choose the Presidential electors in the mode which South Carolina exercised anterior to the war.—Even if new Legislatures be elected this fall with that issue involved, it will be at once seen how easy a matter it will be to secure them by fraud and violence; but beyond this, the unblushing cheat is announced that the Legislatures already in power shall choose the electors. A few days will doubtless fully develop this monstrous political iniquity.—Wash. Cor. N. Y. World.

A SPECIMEN OF SOUTHERN CONGRESSMEN.—The Charleston Mercury says of C. C. Bowen, who has just been admitted to a seat in Congress, that "a murderer, a forger, a liar, and a gambler, he admirably represents the brutal negro government now in possession of South Carolina."

A trooly loil darky in the Alabama Legislature, on Saturday, "arose and said: 'Mr. Speaker, I moves de char dat five hundred copies of dis 'ere Legislator be printed.' From such an anomalous and enormous representation, Alabama says: 'Good Lord, deliver us.'"

The Boston Post says: "Niles G. Parker, late of Massachusetts, State Treasurer of South Carolina, is one of 'em. When he is hunted up his old partner would like to know it."

[From the Meridian Gazette.]

The Mississippi Carpet-Bagger.

Air—"Joe Bowers."

I am a carpet-bagger—
I'm a brother, scallawag—
Come South to boast and swagger
With an empty carpet bag;
To rob the whites of greenbacks,
And with the blacks to "bunk,"
And change my empty satchel
For a full sole leather trunk.

I'm "some" on "Constitutions"
For a "late rebellious State,"
And I'm "some" on persecutions
Of disloyal men I hate;
I'm "some" at nigger meetings
When white folks ain't about,
And "some" among the nigger gals,
When their mamas don't know they're out.

I'm "some" on a Convention,
Where I draw an "X" per day
And opposed to all adjournments,
If I only draw my pay;
I drew it down at Jackson,
Where four months I kept my seat,
And I laid a heavy tax on
All you wear and drink and eat.

But now my day is over,
The Constitution's killed;
Again I am a rover,
And my pockets are not filled;
All my money has been spent on
An electioneering "bum"—
Farewell to Mississippi—
O, I wish I was in Kum!

BEHOLD THEIR MEANNESS.

A resolution asking Congress to remove the disabilities of certain men in this State was brought up in our scallawag Legislature a few days ago, when Mr. Hodnett asked to have the names of Hon. Bedford Brown and Wm. Long, Esq., included. But the carpet-baggers and scallawags voted it down! Now, either of these gentlemen, we undertake to say, pays more tax than the whole of these carpet baggers and scallawags combined, and are to-day better Union men. They were the friends to and advocates of the Union when Holden and many of these scallawags denounced it and labored to break it up. Colonel Brown stumped the County and plead for the Union, while Holden plead for secession and having precipitated them in the horrors of civil war, like men they favored a defence of their homes, while they deplored the dissolution of the Union. And yet they are deemed unworthy of trust, while rampant, before breakfast secessionists, and "war to the knife men," like Holden, are deemed marvelous proper Union men—the only sort fit to trust!—Milton Chronicle.

The great impeacher, Ashley, has a few days longer to live—politically. The Radicals of the Tenth Ohio district have called their convention for August 19.

Colonel Badeau, in his life of Grant, affirms that "between his nothing and what he says nothing," of course we can only infer from this that he never had anything to say.

Chief Justice Chase has acquiesced in the arrangement by which Mr. Davis is enabled to go to Europe, as it is not expected that the trial will take place until after the Presidential election.

"A Great Cave at the West" is the heading of an article in a Radical exchange.—Does it refer to the Oregon election?

John Minor Botts is at Saratoga, recovering, says a Radical paper. Not his character, certainly.

Sixty thousand people ratified the nomination of Seymour and Blair, in New Orleans.

The Radical politicks call themselves "The Grant and Colfax boys in blue." The blue will be changed to black in November.
