THE ROANOKE NEWS

SATURDAY JULY 20 1878

THE HARVEST OF PRIDE.

BY DELORE DESMOND.

Put your strong arm around me, darling,
  Tell me you forgive me now;
For I'm dying; see! the death damp
  Gathers fast upon my brow.
Let me hear the loving accents,
  And the words so sweet and low,
That you used to whisper, darling
  In the sweet time long ago.

I have caused you years of suffering,
  But I, too, have suffered, Paul
More than ever I can tell you,
  For you were my all in all,
Love and pride strove hard within me,
  But pride conquered, and the woe
That I since have felt and suffered
  May you never, never know!

Oh, how well do I remember
  When you came to me that night,
Humbly asking my forgiveness,
  Begging that all might be right,
But I spurned your tender pleading,
  Steeled my heart against your own,
And I've reaped a bitter harvest
  From the seeds of pride then sown.

Oh, the anguish that I felt, Paul,
  And the bitter tears I shed,
When I knew that you had left me,
  And for me your love was dead,
Then I knew what I had lost, Paul,
  Your fond heart so brave and true,
How in after years my heart yearned
  For one loving word from you!

But it never came, Oh, darling!
  Fold me closer to your heart;
For I feel death's chilling breezes,
  And I know that we must part
You forgive me; your caresses
  Tell me more than words can tell;
Now one last kiss on my lips love,
  Then a long, a long farewell!

TOO MUCH OF A GOOD THING.

Sympathy is a good thing in its place, and a very bad thing out of place. We are reminded of this by the frequent defalcations, etc., which are reported from all parts of the country, and the supplemental information that the defaulter, whoever he may be, "has heretofore stood high in the community, and much sympathy is expressed for him," etc. In cases of this kind we believe sympathy is out of place, and does a positive harm. It has come to that pass that if a man feels he is not appreciated, that his fellows do not "sympathize" with him as they should, all he has to do is to "default" or get away with the funds belonging to some one else, and immediately a strong tide of sympathy is poured in upon him. From an ordinary mortal he becomes a hero, and the next thing to it. He has "the sympathy of the entire community," and doubtless many tears are shed in his behalf by creatures of fine-strung organizations. This is a poor way to correct a very great evil. It is rather an encouragement to crime, and the Lord knows that the people now on earth need no encouragement in this direction. In view, therefore, of what appears to be facts, let us strive to be a trifle less "sympathetic" in our natures. Or, better still, let us reserve our tears of sympathy and compassion for those who need them and deserve them and not for the man who has misappropriated the funds of others and been caught in it.

"Only a tress of a woman's hair!"
  The lover musingly, fondly said;
"And yet it forms a halo for
  To-night above her sacred head."

"Only a tress of a woman's hair?"
  The maiden, smiling, sweetly said?
And laid it on the back of a chair,
  And went to bed!

A young lady having asked a gentleman the size of his neck, he sent the following:
"The size of my neck? That's remarkably strange,
And admits of a very significant range;
A neck-tie, a collar, a something, a halter,
And others enough to make a man falter;
Let this tender reply anxiety check,
The length of your arm will go round my neck."

A good mother was trying to explain to a young hopeful the other day about fighting against the devil. After telling the little fellow who the devil was, and how hard he was to resist successfully, he turned round and said: Mamma, I'd be scared of the old devil, but if I was to come across one of his little devils I'd knock the stuffin' out of him.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

OLD,
TRIED,
AND TRUE.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the

MEXICAN Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in America, where Nature provides in her laboratory such surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for 35 years, until now it encircles the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a matchless remedy for all external ailments of man and beast.

To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable.

A single bottle often saves a human life or restores the usefulness of an excellent horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot-rot, hoof-ail, hollow horn, grub, screw worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and bush life.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind gall, ring-bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure. Particularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, and a single application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.
