WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

'For Seymour and for Blair.'

BY SAMUEL S. SPINNEY.

The dear "Old Flag" regenerate,
As 'twas in days of yore;
Replace the Stars of every State,
Their brilliance restore;
Then round this Union Flag we'll range,
With patriot hearts we'll swear
That ruin's wasting rule we'll change
For Seymour and for Blair!

O'er all our broad and varied land
They join the glorious cause,
To make the country "heart and hand,"
The "Union" as it was.
Then fling the glittering Banner out,
And let it float in air,
And swell the patriotic shout
For "Seymour and for Blair!"

Let breezes lift the Banner high,
And with its folds sport;
What names thereon do we espy?
And what is their import?
It means we need a Statesman in
The Presidential Chair,
And will a glorious victory win
With Seymour and with Blair!

It means to bury "ocean deep"
The sections' jealous hate;
The Constitution sacred keep,
The Union reinstate;
It means that North and South agree
To treat each other fair—
To live in love and unity,
With Seymour and with Blair!

It means "Low Taxes," "Equal Rights,"
"One currency for all;"
That North and South and West unites
To heed their country's call;
And so peace shall designing knaves
The Constitution tear,
When Freedom's Flag in triumph waves,
With "Seymour and with Blair!"

And Trade and Commerce once again,
The Anvil and the Loom,
Our noble ships upon the main,
Their busy life resume;
The Farmer and the Artisan
Alike the harvest share
With Laborer and with Citizen,
With "Seymour and with Blair!"

To "Save the Country," nearly lost,
To its Flag we rally round;
To save the rights of dearest cost,
To reverence hallowed ground,
The poorest Laborer in the land,
And Bonded Millionaire,
Should join with earnest heart and hand
For "Seymour and for Blair!"

"One Country" we will be once more,
"One Union of States United;"
"One Flag," as 'twas in days of yore—
The Patriot's hope and pride.
Fling out the Banner, glittering bright,
And let it float in air,
And shout aloud, "Defend the Right!"
For "Seymour and for Blair!"

MAINE.

The New York Sun, a Radical sheet, says that the result in Vermont indicates the set of the current less surely than will the approaching election in Maine, where both parties are fighting the battle hand to hand, as once the great struggle of 1840 between Van Buren and Harrison, the September election in Maine has been found a pretty sure barometer of the condition of the political atmosphere in the Northern States. At the last election the Republican majority was 11,000. If the Democrats now succeed in reducing it, or even holding it to those figures, the Republicans must prepare for squally weather.

A correspondent of the Herald, writing from Portland, gives the following graphic account of the campaign and the prospect.

"For my own part I am sanguine of the success of the Democratic ticket if the friends of Seymour and Blair do their duty faithfully. I have now visited nearly all the towns in the Kennebec and Penobscot valleys, freely talked with the people and walked about the lumber booms, ship yards and farms, and I find the people not only willing, but sighing for a change of government that will lessen taxation, distribute the burdens equally among all classes, stimulate trade, reduce expenses of government, regulate the currency on a proper basis and give an impulse to the shipping and lumbering business that has been ruined by Radical rule. They frankly admit that to the Democratic party alone they can look for reform, and as that period has arrived when party sinks before more important issues of State policy, they are prepared to trust the Democrats with a brief trial.—Some few—perhaps one third—still adhere to party and declare that while they feel keenly the necessity of a change in the affairs of the nation they are afraid to trust the Democrats, lest they should precipitate the country into another war and thus still further increase their burdens. Such is a faithful reflex of the sentiment of the working classes, in brief, wherever I have traveled along the lines of railways and rivers of the State."

THAT TRIUMPH.

To read the jubilant articles of the Radical presses over the returns from Vermont, one would never dream that the Republican majority in the Green Mountain State had always been in all contested elections over three to one. It was idle for the Democracy to think of wasting much effort on such a State by outside help. Accordingly, the Green Mountain Democrats were left to work out their own salvation, and right nobly have they exerted themselves. On the other hand, the Republicans, extremely solicitous to drawn away the proof of a popular rese ion against Radical misrule furnished by the Democratic triumphs in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, California, and Kentucky, and the enormous gains in Ohio, Michigan, and elsewhere, strained every nerve. The result is before the country. The Radicals do not touch their large poll of 1864 by 417 votes, while the Democracy beat their poll of that year by 2,337. At no election since 1844 has a full vote been polled in Vermont. The Radicals have lost, while the Democracy have increased theirs 12 per cent. A like increase in the Democratic vote over that cast for McClellan would sweep all the North and West, and triumphantly elect Seymour and Blair.

These are the figures:

	1864.	1868.
Republican	42,422	42,005
Democratic	13,323	15,656
Republican majority	29,098	26,439
Full poll	55,747	57,557

If in a poll of 57,557 votes the Radicals lose 417, and the Democrats gain 2,337, it is plain to be seen that in States where parties are more evenly divided the issue of triumph is assured.—Nat. Intel.

From the Albany Argus.

THE MANIA OF DESPOTISM.

Congress voted to make it a penal offence, punishable with fine and imprisonment, for any portion of voters in Virginia, Texas, and Mississippi at the Presidential election.

Congress also proposed to arm the Southern negroes, and thus precipitate a war of races, and create some excuse for the further military occupation of the South.

They fear defeat. They see the people marshalling in force against them. Every movement made now that looks like the employment of force is an acknowledgement that they dare not submit their cause to the free and fair discussion of the ballot-box.

And thus we see the progress made in the onward march of despotism.

No election in Virginia.

No election in Mississippi.

No election in Texas.

No election in Florida.

In Georgia, the popular vote not being publicly declared to be for Seymour and Blair, the Radical caucus resolves to "bag" the electoral vote through the Legislature.

In North Carolina and Tennessee army bills have passed to give the Congressmen-manufacturers Governors the entire control of the election!
