OPINION IS UNSETTLED AMONG STOCK TRADERS

Wall Street Hasn't Yet Determined What is What.

New York, June 8.—There was some speculative hesitation reflected in the action of today's stock market, partly due to the rapidity of the advance of the day before and partly to the conflict of opinion over the situation created by the railroad rate settlement. The contrary views expressed by railroad executives themselves was responsible for the conflict of opinion, especially the announcement by President Brown, of the New York Central, that work calling for $5,000,000 expenditure and orders for freight cars which had been held up as a result of the rate injunction would be resumed, in contrast with the assertion of President Ripley, of the Atchison, that his company would not depart in any degree from the policy of retrenchment decided upon after the action of the government against the rate advance.

Quotations for copper were lower both in London and New York. Selling of the metal industrials, especially Amalgamated Copper, was a feature of the late backset in stocks which closed with prices generally at small declines.

A favorable view was taken of the government crop report. Money was easier, but foreign exchange recovered in response to selling of stocks for London account and in spite of predictions of a reduction in the Bank of England discount rate tomorrow.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $2,661,000. United States 2's registered advanced ½ per cent. on call. The total sales of stocks for the day were 760,000 shares.

SPREADING TRADES WAS THE FEATURE IN WHEAT

Prominent Elevator Concern Bought July and Sold September.

Chicago, June 8.—Spreading between the July and September options received most attention today in the wheat trade. Selling the latter delivery, while buying the earlier, was the favorite form of speculation. Leading in the movement was a prominent elevator concern which had issued a bullish circular after having been rather conspicuous on the bear side. The close was heavy with July ⅝@¾ higher and the other months up a shade to ⅛. Corn finished at an advance of ⅛@½ to ⅝ and oats showed a decline of a shade to ⅛. Final figures in provisions were 10@12½ to 27½ above last night's level.

THE CONSERVATION OF NATURE'S RESOURCES.

Applies as well to our physical state as to material things. C. J. Budlong, Washington, R. I., realized his condition and took warning before it was too late. He says: "I suffered severely from kidney trouble, the disease being hereditary in our family. I have taken four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy, and now consider myself thoroughly cured. This should be a warning to all not to neglect taking Foley's Kidney Remedy until it is too late." Howard Gardner.

THOUGH NERVOUS, COTTON SOLD AT HIGHER LEVEL

Unfavorable Crops Reports Caused Shorts To Cover.

New York, June 8.—The cotton market was very nervous today, but generally speaking ruled higher after an early break on covering of shorts, particularly for August delivery. The close was firm at a net gain of 2 to 16 points. The market opened steady at an advance of 2 points to a decline of 2 points, near months being higher on the firm cables, while late positions felt the influence of continued good weather in the south, and the whole list eased off right after the opening under realizing, southern selling and local bear pressure. July contracts quickly broke to a net loss of about 12 points, while August sold off to a decline of 10 points, but in spite of the relatively easy start and predictions for a bearish July bureau report, the new crop was relatively steady, selling only 3 to 5 points net lower. Offerings were not at all aggressive at the decline selling on the good weather being restricted by bullish Liverpool advices and the fears of an end season squeeze became a more prominent factor when it was seen that a large Wall street house believed to be heavily short of August had big buying orders in the market. This, together with the failure of the new crop to yield more readily to favorable weather reports, started general covering and the market sold at the highest levels of the day in the late trading with August making new high ground for the movement. The close was within 2 to 3 points of the top. Numerous reports are beginning to come in from the central belt reporting the appearance of boll weevil and the fear of damage from this source in connection with the small amount of old crop cotton to be carried over seems to be offsetting the improvement reported in the condition of the plant. Southern spot markets officially reported early were generally unchanged. It is claimed that one of the big southern mills has sold all but 4,000 bales of the cotton he took up on May contract.

Spot cotton closed dull. Middling uplands, 12.50; middling gulf, 15.45; sales, 1,853 bales.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

New Orleans, June 8.—Spot cotton steady, middling 14 15-16, unchanged. Sales on the spot 1,025 bales; to arrive 250 bales.

Cotton futures opened quiet and steady, 4 to 5 points up on the old crop months, and 1 off on the new. Cables were slightly better than expected, but were offset by an extremely favorable weather map. After the call the market fell off abruptly 12 to 16 points on the old crops and 4 to 5 points on the new, with the market showing considerable weakness, telegrams commenced to come in from points in Louisiana and Mississippi telling of the finding of the boll weevil in great numbers in cotton fields. Some crop experts wired in that the Brazos river bottoms in Texas never showed a greater number of the pests at this time of the year than some of the most important cotton growing sections of Mississippi are now bringing out. This news caused a rise of 21 points on July. Around noon the list was 1 to 9 points over yesterday's closing.

In the afternoon session nervousness over boll weevil reports increased and the old crop months were put 13 to 16 points over yesterday's closing while the new crop deliveries were put 9 points over. Freight brokers said that there are evidences of a severe storm in the west of the Gulf of Mexico, and this increased uneasiness among the shorts because of the fear that it might work northward into the cotton country. At 2 o'clock the market was quiet and steady.

The market closed steady at a net advance of 12 to 23 points on the old crop months and 8 to 10 points on the new.

Cotton futures closed steady. Closing bid: January, 12.29@12.30; June, 14.98 bid; July, 15.05 bid; August, 14.43@14.41; September, 13.07@13.08; October, 12.[illegible]; November, 12.29@12.31; December, 12.[illegible]
