THE RADICAL ORGAN'S ADVICE TO RADICAL CANVASSERS.

Here is the advice given by the Raleigh Standard to the canvassers of its party in North Carolina. Here is the PEACE to which we are invited by the election of GRANT and COLFAX. Here are the necessities requiring Holden's six thousand DETAILED MILITIA. MEN OF NORTH CAROLINA, read this! is suit to your mothers, your wives and your daughters, and learn the purposes of the cowardly adventurers who are now governing your State. Says the Standard:

"BUT WHEREVER HIDE YOU MORE, DON'T FORGET TO WORK AMONG THE WOMEN. THE CONFEDERACY WOULD'NT HAVE LASTED A YEAR IF IT HADN'T BEEN FOR THEM. OUR BOOT REBEL WOMAN IS WORTH A DOZEN REBEL MEN. GO AFTER THE WOMEN, THEN. THEY WILL MAKE THEIR HUSBANDS SHOUT FOR GRANT AND COLFAX EVEN THEY ARE HOARSE, IF YOU WILL MANAGE TO REPLACE SOME OF THE DIAMOND PINS AND LACES FRANK BLAIR STOLE FROM THEM WHEN HE WAS HERE. AND DON'T HESITATE TO THROW YOUR ARMS AROUND THEIR NECKS NOW AND THEN, WHEN THEIR HUSBANDS ARE NOT AROUND, AND GIVE THEM A GOOD—. THEY ALL LIKE IT, AND THE TAXPAYER, THE MEN, THE BETTER HALF THEM. OUR EXPERIENCE WITH FEMALE REBS IS, THAT WITH ALL THEIR SINS, THEY HAVE A VAST AMOUNT OF HUMAN NATURE, AND ONLY WANT TO HAVE IT APPRECIATED TO BE THE MOST LOVING CREATURES IMAGINABLE. SCALLAWAGS AND CARPET-BAGGERS! DON'T FAIL, THEREFORE, AS YOU GALLOP THE STATE—MEN, LIKE NEW ENGLAND GIRLS, THEY LIKE TO BE APPROACHED FIRST—DON'T BE AFRAID OF THEIR SEXES—THEY SELDOM LOOKED LONGWISE BY DAY LIGHT, BUT UNDER THE MOON SO BLUE DEATH-STRICKEN PAWNS IS HALF SO TENDER OR HALF SO DEEP. DON'T READ JUDGE PERSON'S LETTER TO THEM, BUT GIVE THEM BERGH AND SHELLEY IN PREFERENCE. AND YOU WILL HAVE THEM IN YOUR ARMS, IN NOT IN YOUR PANTS, IN LESS THAN A WEEK."

COMMISSIONERS AND SHERIFFS.

We learn that, in some of the counties, some of the Commissioners have not qualified, and others have not been appointed by "Gov." Holden, to fill the vacancy. In other counties, no Justices of the Peace have yet been appointed by the "Governor." Iredell, Catawba, and other counties, we understand, are among the number which have no magistrates. Why is this? The 15th of October is approaching, when the Registration must commence. The Registrars, according to the law, must be Justices of the Peace. If the "Governor" delays appointing magistrates, the ends of the law will be defeated.

Can any good reason be given why magistrates are not appointed in all the counties? Surely "Gov." Holden cannot design, by this, to let the elections in those counties go by default? So gross a dereliction of duty we cannot suppose, still we learn that the people of those counties are becoming restive under the delay of the Executive. Cannot "loyal" men enough be found in these counties to serve as Justices of the Peace?

We would suggest to the people of the counties, where no magistrates have been appointed, to hold meetings and suggest suitable men, such as would be acceptable, and call upon the Executive to appoint Justices for their several counties.

LEGISLATIVE VACANCIES.

There are a number of vacancies, both in the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly of this State, created by the action of such House, declaring the seats of sundry Senators and Representatives vacant, for the alleged reason that they were banned by the Howard Amendment. The seat of L. D. Hall, of Sampson, was vacated by death. If writs of election have been issued for filling these vacancies, we have not heard of it. We append a list of the vacancies, as far as we now recollect them:

SENATE.

12th Senatorial Dist.,	W. A. Allen.
18th " "	L. D. Hall, dec'd.
22d " "	Josiah Turner, Jr.
24th " "	Redford Brown.
41st " "	Ed. W. Jones.

HOUSE.

Caldwell, Jas. G. Harper.
Duplin, Isaac B. Kelly.
Harnett, Neill S. Stuart.
Clay, John G. Hicks.
Jackson, Joseph Keener.

The impression has prevailed that the elections to fill these vacancies would be ordered to take place on the 3rd of November, but we have not heard of the order to that effect. Is it not time it was done?

THE NATIONAL FINANCES.

The Radical party has shown itself utterly incompetent to conduct the government, and, at the same time, protect the rights and liberties of the people, and preserve the credit of the government, without financial ruin to the tax payers. The evidence is now palpable, that, since the close of the war, although there is not a man in the South in hostility to the government, not one who does not submit to the laws, except such as are abandoned to crime, the expenses of the government are kept up at a war footing. Not less than $1,500,000,000 have actually been collected by taxation, and, instead of the large National debt being diminished, it has been and is being increased.

The attempts of Radical financiers to bolster up the party are utterly futile, and their misrepresentations are exploded the moment the test of truth is applied to them. A fair exposition of the real state of the finances driven to the wall all the calculations of Mr. Wells and others, gotten up to cover the facts and conceal from the public view their actual condition.

Recently, several prominent gentlemen of New York, deeply interested in the financial condition of the Country, Messrs. Grinnell, Phelps and Hunt, addressed a letter to Mr. Alex. Delmar, the Director of the Bureau of Statistics, than whom no man has access to more correct information, making such enquiries as would draw from him the statistics desired by the public. Mr. Delmar has replied fully to the queries propounded, and his letter we find in our Northern exchanges. We regret that its length precludes its publication in our columns. This letter has spread alarm in the Radical ranks. We have just room for the following compilation from the letter:

The paper shows that the treasury is involved in the current year's finances, and will need to borrow a very large sum to complete its engagements up to next June. Mr. Delmar estimates the deficiency at $154,339,202.25, without reckoning the needs of the post office, or those matured claims which have been deferred. This deficit will, at the end of the fiscal year, be an addition to the present amount of the public debt, a result against which Congress was warned by the Secretary of the Treasury, whose letter Mr. Delmar quotes. According to the Treasury estimates presented to Congress, the expenditures of this fiscal year, if none are deferred, will amount to $475,959,202 23, as follows:

Ordinary expenditures, 1868-'9	$398 317,183 65
Alaska, 1868 '9	7,200,000.00
Private appropriations 1868-'9	583,609 81
Deficiencies, 1867-'8	19,275,706.97
Principal of loans, 1867-'8—1868 '9	8,582,611.80
Treasurer's exp. 1868 '9, estimated	42,000 0.0.00
Total	$475,959 202.23

Without including the Post Office deficiency, which will amount to $6,100,000.

ESTIMATED REVENUE OF THE CURRENT FISCAL YEAR.

To meet the $475,959,202.23 of expenditures for 1868 '9, we shall (Mr. Delmar says) give the following receipts:

Register's Receipts.
Customs	$160,000,000
Public Lands	1,000 000
Direct Tax	1,500,000
Miscellaneous (excluding gold prem.)	5 000,000
	$279,020,000
Treasurer's Receipts	42,000,000
Total	$321,020,000

Thus if the Treasury endeavors to meet its current expenditures this year, (to say nothing of matured claims deferred, or of the post office deficiency,) it will show a deficit of $154,939,202 25 at the end of the year, to be obtained from increased taxes or loans!

Mr. Delmar closes his lengthy exhibit with the following remarks:

"The reconstruction measures and tenure-of-office laws are the main cause of all the extravagant expenditures which, under economical management, I think could be diminished within a year $200,000,000 per annum, including gold interest on the public debt. Without a total change of policy, however, such retrenchment is impossible. A continuance of present measures means a continued heavy expenditure, and this can only be met by increasing the public debt."

"SPECIMEN BRICKS,"—WHAT THEY SAY OF EACH OTHER.

A gentleman, who heard a discussion, a few days since, between "Judge" Tourgee and "Jindy Billy" Henderson, the bolting and regular Radical candidates for Congress in the Fifth District, describes it as exceeding, in personal vituperation and billingsgate, anything which he ever heard on the stump before. It may be amusing, if not profitable, to hear what these specimen bricks of carpet-baggism and scallawagery, respectively, in North Carolina, have to say of each other.

We learn that Tourgee charged Henderson with having stolen the law-books of the late Benj. Kittrell, of Lexington; with having forged a note on the old Branch Bank of Cape Fear at Salem; and, also, with the male business.

In reply, Billy accused Tourgee of having been caned by a negro, and ejected from a tenement which he had rented, and for which he had failed to pay, and with disgracing the bench of North Carolina by partisan exhibitions and personal depravity!

And of such is Radicalism! There is an old adage that when "rogues fall out, honest men get their dues!"

MASS MEETING AND BARBECUE IN CABARRUS.

The various Seymour and Blair Clubs of Cabarrus purpose having a large Mass Meeting and Barbecue, in Concord, on the 15th inst.

Gov. Graham, Hon. William N. H. Smith P. F. Duffy, Esq. and Hon. Thos. S. Ashe, have notified their acceptance of invitations to be present.

The occasion will doubtless be a grand and imposing one.

A Kentuckian was poisoned the other day by chewing bark which he mistook for slippery elm. Prentice says he "barked up the wrong tree."

THE LOOKOUT!

We have been greatly gratified to see, within a week past, the cheering and confident tone of the Northern Democratic Press. Important and numerous changes are recorded in the States of Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania, and the Democrats and Conservatives of those great States are working with an energy and enthusiasm that presage success on the 13th of October.

The whole country awaits the results of these State elections with profound interest and anxiety. If any two of them shall vote with the Democracy, no power on earth can prevent the triumphant election of Seymour and Blair in November. We have the strongest hopes of success in all of these great States.

While the Democratic press is thus buoyant and sanguine, it is evident, by the frantic and desperate appeals of Radical journals and leaders, coupled with their idle bravado, that they are quaking in their shoes, and are terribly apprehensive as to the result. Well may they be!

NORTH CAROLINA.

The Centreville Club in Halifax Co., at a late meeting, adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the article in a late number of the Raleigh Standard, reflecting on the virtue of the women of the State, we pronounce to be false in every sense, and we pledge ourselves that such sentiments shall never be uttered in this county, and go unpunished.

About thirty-five Swiss immigrants, consisting of men, women, girls and boys, imported from Switzerland, by Messrs Thomas and W. F. Atkinson, of Wayne county, arrived at Goldsboro, on Tuesday. They went to the farms of the Messrs. Atkinson, about ten miles from Goldsboro, where they will be settled. The Dough Notes says: "It has been our luck to see many immigrants, as they arrive in New York and Baltimore, but we have never met a more sober, intelligent and healthy set than those which arrived here on yesterday."

The Wilmington Star suggests the propriety of holding an indignation meeting, irrespective of party, in that City, to declare the unqualified abhorrence felt by all decent men for the brutal article which lately appeared in the Radical organ here.

Maj. Jno. W. Graham, we are glad to see, is announced as a candidate for the State Senate in Orange, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the Hon. Josiah Turner being declared ineligible.

The Country Commissioners of Craven have appointed Inspectors of election for the various precincts in the County. Two Conservatives, two Radicals and two negroes have been appointed for each precinct. The Journal of Commerce says that this is more just than was generally expected.

The Fayetteville Eagle is hard on "my son Oliver." It says that Col. O. H. Dockery, in a speech at Carthage, to 1866, said: "I will never ask the negro to vote for me. I am no favorite of his. I have struck him too many hard licks; and if the negro ever has the right to vote in North Carolina, I

Seymour and Blair in Cherokee.

Messrs. Editors:—Yesterday was a glorious day for old Cherokee. True, it rained heavily during the whole forenoon, but our people had heard that our Senator, who had stood up so manfully between us and despotism, in the late General Assembly, would address us; and long before noon the town was crowded. Just after 12 o'clock, Dr. Love took the stand. This was in our new Court House,—the old having been burned down during the war by "foil" men. As this was the first political effort in the new building, it was regarded as a christening of the edifice. And a glorious christening it was! The Dr., on taking the stand, looked and acted like one conscious of being in the right. He began by saying, he was here to render an account of his stewardship in the Senate, and that, in so doing, he would necessarily have to allude to party; that he had no war to make on the mere voters in the Republican ranks, but should direct his attacks to the leaders of that party, who were carrying the country to ruin and bankruptcy.

For two hours, the immense audience stood as if spell bound, listening to Dr. Love's account of "eight weeks in the Senate," and his exposure of Radical rule, State and Federal. The exposure was plain and irrefutable. The waste ul extravagance of the party in power astounded our people, while Dr. Love's scathing denunciations of these purloiners fired his audience with indignation.

But a short letter cannot do his speech justice. It was a complete success. It has done much good. Many persons, to day, who were yesterday Radicals, say they are done with the corrupt party and are openly now for Seymour and Blair.

Dr. Love was followed by our Representative, Simons, (a Radical,) in a speech just four minutes long, and he by Col. A. T. Davidson, on Railroads and national politics. The Col. was sick and made only a short, but telling speech, for us, as he always does, when he gets a chance. P.

OLD CABARRUS FOREVER!

A meeting was held at "Coddle Creek," in this County, on Saturday last, the 26th inst. Some three hundred white men and four hundred negroes were assembled—but one white scallawag on the ground. Jos. William Holden made his appearance, according to appointment, and delivered himself. Maj. W. J. Montgomery, of this place, rep'ied to him and wore him completely out. W. M. Robins, of Salisbury, followed, paying special respects to Hon. Nat. Boyden and giving him a skinning. Mr. Boyden, however, was not present.

Seymour and Blair and F. E. Shober will get every white vote in this county except ONE. Boyden is as flat as a flounder, in Cabarrus.

The Radicals will have to send out a stronger team than Jos. William, Dick Wynne, Coleman and Pont. Taylord, if they expect to effect anything in this county.—Our white men are all right. M.

CABARRUS Co., Sept. 29.

THE CONTEST IN PENNSYLVANIA.—We repeat what we stated in our issue of yesterday, that our intelligence from Pennsylvania is of the most cheering character.—There is no variation in the accounts that reach us from our friends there, and they warrant the expectation that on the 13th of October next the Conservatives will achieve a signal and overwhelming triumph.—N. Y. Ledd., 26th.

The Heroes of the Union Army,

RESPONSES TO INVITATIONS TO THE DEMOCRATIC MASS CONVENTION AT INDIANAPOLIS—LETTERS FROM DISTINGUISHED OFFICERS.

The Indianapolis Sentinel of the 25th contains letters addressed to the Committee of Invitation by Gen. D. C. Buell, Gen. W. S. Rosecrans, Gen. W. B. Franklin, Gen. W. F. Smith, Gen. W. T. H. Brooks, Gen. A. Sanders Piatt, Gen. John J. Peck, Gen. G. W. Morgan, Gen. McClernand, Gen. H. W. Slocum, and Gen. Durbin Ward. As fair specimens of all these letters, we copy the following:

FROM GEN. BUELL.

ALBANY, KY., Sept. 15.

General John Love, Chairman Executive Committee, Indianapolis, Ind.:

MY DEAR SIR:—My engagements will not permit me to accept your invitation to attend the Democratic Mass Convention to be held at Indianapolis on the 23rd instant; but I am interested in its object and shall rejoice in its success.

Eight years ago the Republican and Democratic parties contended for the administration of the Government in the election of a President. The first, organized solely upon sectional issues, appealed for support to passion and sectional prejudice. Its leaders taught that a dissolution of the Union was preferable to conditions which the Constitution had established, and pledged themselves to hold no intercourse in society, business or politics, with the principal class of citizens in the opposite section—an attitude which could mean nothing but disunion or sectional war. In its public demonstrations it initiated a military organization, and with threatening motives, beating drums, and warlike tread, it filled the air with the premonitory mutterings of a battle-field.

Opposed to this revolutionary spirit stood the great Democratic party, which for an almost entire period of sixty years had administered the government with a wisdom and fidelity which were attested by the general welfare. Unfortunately, the sectional passions which had been aroused, disturbed its councils and divided its strength; and its opponent, representing a minority of the people, triumphed at the polls. War came. The North and South were arrayed in deadly conflict against each other; but it was not among the mass of the Democratic party that the idea of dissolution was entertained, for while more than one faltered of those in the opposite party who helped to stir up the strife, thousands of Democrats instantly rushed to arms to preserve the Union and maintain the laws.

It would be useless to revive these memories at this time for the purpose of meting out in just proportions the responsibility of the conflict which ended nearly four years ago, but in tracing the causes and devising a remedy for the evils which now oppress the nation, they are full of fitness. To-day these parties again stand opposed to each other in a Presidential canvass. The characteristics which distinguished them eight years ago, are even more marked now. The one arrogant, despotic, revolutionary; reckless of constitutional restrictions, of the respective prerogatives of the different branches of the Government, of the rights of the States, and the liberties of the people; still by profligacy and wrong augmenting a public debt, already enormous, and increasing the burden upon industry and trade by unnecessary and unequal taxation—the other, faithful as always to the theory of our Government and the true interests of the people, stands forth to remove its usurpations. If there is anything in our past history worth cherishing, if it is true that the liberties of a people are safer under inviolate constitutional rules than under the arbitrary dictation of any Government, still more under an unlimited power, arrogated by one branch of it, then the people of this country cannot too soon decree a change in the present management of its affairs. A return to the support of Democratic principles, by those whose influences, which it is unnecessary here to describe, have reduced into an unnatural political association with the Radical party, will effect this great object in November; and I trust that the strength and enthusiasm of your Convention will add another to the many encouraging indications that such will be the result.

With great respect, your obedient servant,

D. C. BUELL.

FROM GENERAL ROSECRANS.

ST. MARTIN, BROWN COUNTY, OHIO, September 21st, 1868.

Gen. Jno. Love, Indianapolis, Ind.:

GENERAL:—Indispensable duties prevent me from attending the gathering of officers and soldiers at Indianapolis, to which your letter invited me on the 23d inst.

But beyond the great gratification I should experience in meeting so many of my old companions in arms, and mingling our memories of the past with resolutions of future efforts and sacrifices for the honor of the land and flag we love, my presence there would accomplish little more than a simple statement of my views on the chief issues which now agitate the country.

I believe our free institutions and highest material interests are in grave peril. I shall therefore perform a solemn and responsible duty to my fellow-soldiers and countrymen, who love this nation more than party, by stating what I think the most vital issue before the public in the approaching Presidential election.

Above all other questions—expenditures, taxation, bonds, "greenbacks," or anything else—stands that of restoring the people of the Southern States to hopeful, cheerful self-government.

Restore them this, and as certainly as day follows the sun our political stability will be assured; our financial prosperity will speedily follow; the value of property in the South will increase; our public securities will go to a premium; our greenbacks will become par; coin and currency accounts, with all their evils and complications, will disappear from the books of our business men.

Believing, with all my soul, that the preservation of our Government from despotic changes, and all these inestimable blessings, depend upon this restoration of the Southern people to wholesome, cheerful self-government, I am equally certain that it can be done, and dare pledge my honor and life for them that they will give and observe all proper guarantees to renounce secession, slavery, and their dependent issues; to protect, educate and elevate the freedmen to the exercise of all the franchise they enjoy in Ohio, Indiana or Illinois; and faithfully to perform all the duties incumbent on them as good citizens under the Constitution and laws of the United States.

And what more could be asked of them, or what greater results could patriotism desire for the country, than depend upon this issue?

Not even the prosecution of the war challenged a more thorough renunciation of party preferences and personal dislikes on the altar of our country than does the attainment of this great good.

The desolate and ruined South, the oppressed tax payers of the West and North, generally, many, love of country, apprehensions of evils to come, every motive that ought to move the hearts of true and noble men, appeal to us to say by our votes we will stop that hopeless folly of attempting to govern the Southern States by what we call "loyal blacks," and give the people, under just guarantees, the right, peacefully and legally, to proceed to reorganize their own government within the Union.

With such convictions, I hold the man who would not express and act upon them a traitor to himself and his country, and despise the partisan who would find fault with any reasonable steps he might take to bring about so great a good to the nation.

Commending my convictions, and the reasons for them, to the judgment of my fellow soldiers and countrymen, I remain,

Very truly yours,

W. S. ROSECRANS.

FROM GENERAL WM. B. FRANKLIN.

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 17.

MY DEAR GENERAL:—I have received your note of the 7th. inst., inviting me to join the "Union White Boys in Blue" of Indiana, in the grand mass Convention to be held in Indianapolis, on the 23rd. inst. I regret that other engagements will prevent my acceptance of the invitation. I regret it more especially because your organization is one of the few which prove that the soldiers and sailors of the war were Democrats as well as Radicals. Had such organizations been formed and encouraged in all the States, I do not doubt that it would appear that a majority of the Union soldiers and sailors now living belong to the Democratic party, or do not belong to the Radical party.

I congratulate you upon the cheering prospects in your gallant State; and am

Truly, your friend,

W. B. FRANKLIN.

Gen. JNO. LOVE, Indianapolis, Ind.

FROM GEN. WM. F. (BALDY) SMITH.

NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 8.

Gen. John Love:

DEAR SIR:—I am to day in receipt of your letter of the 4th inst., asking me to join you in a grand mass convention to be held in Indianapolis on the 23d instant. I thank you and the rest of the "White Boys in Blue," for counting me as one of you, and possibly the 19th Indiana may be represented by some men who may remember me kindly. I regret very much that my private business, and other engagements, will keep me from being with you in what I hope will be a demonstration so overwhelming as to beat down arrogance in high places and crush tyranny.

All the White Boys in Blue look to Indiana to place herself right on the record at the November election. Yours truly,

WM. F. SMITH.

Annual Income, (which also increases continually,) 4,500,000

This Company has paid over $1,500,000 to widows and orphans during the last seven years and has conducted its business with such care and liberality that it has never contested the payment of a policy. It has also divided among its policy-holders over $1,500,000 cash value. It is a purely Mutual Company, declaring its Dividends yearly to all policy-holders. Liberal in its dealings, sound in its management,—it deserves the remarkable success which it is enjoying.

IRON TIES vs. ROPE.
FOR BALING COTTON.
The New Orleans "Annual Statement and Prices Current" of 31st August, 1868, says:
"The marked success of iron ties, for baling Cotton, has so completely superseded the use of bale rope, that the supplies of the latter have been hardly sufficient to constitute a market, the receipts comprising only 5,215 coils against 35,199 last year."
