WHAT I LIVE FOR.

BY [illegible]

I live for those who love me,
Whose hearts are kind and true;
For the Heaven that smiles above me,
And awaits my spirit too;
For all human ill and pain
For the wrong to be redressed;
For the right that needs assistance;
And the good that I can do.

I live to learn their history,
Who have died for my sake;
To hail their departure
When my life-day's work is done;
Martyrs, patriots, sages, heroes,
The noble of all ages,
Whose deeds crowd History's pages,
And Time's great volumes make.

I live to hold communion
With all that is divine:
To feel the sacred union
Of souls across the sea and time;
To spread the common
Beneath the [illegible]
Over all the earth
As the [illegible] sign.

I live that I shall be
[illegible]
When [illegible]
And every wrong righted,
The whole world be blest.
As Eden [illegible].

I live for those who love me,
For those who know me true;
For the Heaven that smiles above me,
And awaits my spirit too;
For the wrong that needs redressing;
For the [illegible] assistance;
And the good that I can do.

Give [illegible].—The New York Times thinks Charleston escaped easily in speaking of the fight there, it says:

On these occasions [illegible] the Confederacy and it was the flower and pride of them [illegible] during a period of two years. [illegible] and Ripley in succession have exhausted their professional efforts to make it impregnable. Everything that the most improved modern artillery and unlimited [illegible] can do has been done to make the place [illegible]. And it is impregnable.

Our fleet got to the entrance of the harbor. It never got within it. Had the iron clads succeeded in passing the obstructions they would still have found themselves in a [illegible] of batteries in run. They would have encountered an Inferno which like the poet of Dante's Hell might well [illegible] the flaming legend, "Who enter here leave hope behind." Not a port at which they could not have found their sepulchre.

"Midnigger, a thousand curses on it."

They pass out of the harbor. Off Fort Sumter and Moultrie, Beauregard [illegible] and their fleet there fore arrested and [illegible] the Rebels, Johnston, and Ripley. They [illegible] this, and a concentric fire from Ripley, Pemberton, the Washington Artillery, and the guns of the city fall on them. [illegible] by barges [illegible] as was done at the fall of New Orleans, is not a very difficult thing, [illegible] but to be anchored as they were and [illegible] what no ships were ever called upon to suffer.

A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer says a young lady in Wilmington [illegible] to Milroy to get a permit to buy [illegible] for her father's [illegible]. When the General asked:

"[illegible]?"

"[illegible]."

"[illegible] the Confederate States?"

"[illegible] the Confederate States, of course," she replied.

"[illegible]." This [illegible] Rebellion [illegible] "[illegible] starving John Bull [illegible] cotton, and he doesn't care a d[illegible] for you!"

As Bad as Yankees.—The Legislature of the Rebel State of Georgia [illegible] reported it [illegible] by the following [illegible]:

First, it [illegible] making a Government agent [illegible] and suppressed the [illegible] of our darling Article. Secondly, at half past one [illegible] passed six other paragraphs. Thirdly, at a quarter to ten a third agent called and suspended the [illegible] of the article. The Legislature entirely [illegible] the mouth of the press. Yet it is still Spain possesses a constitutional Government.

Fun is the most conservative element of society, and ought to be cherished and encouraged by all lawful means. People never get [illegible] when they are merry. Laughter [illegible] a fool ridiculous, and a friend to every virtue. It promotes good humor, enlivens the heart and brightens the intellect. Let us laugh when we can.

Mrs. Henningsen, a gifted daughter of Georgia and wife of Gen. C. F. Henningsen, has been presented with an elegant gold watch inlaid with gems, by some members of the Washington Artillery who have recently been in the Hospital in Richmond. Many officers and soldiers have since the war began experienced her motherly care and attention when sick in the Henningsen hospital, to which she has devoted her whole time.

Adj't and Inspector General's Office,
RICHMOND, Jan. 5, 1863.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 2.

I. THE FOLLOWING ORDERS ARE PUBLISHED for the information and guidance of all concerned:

Recognizing the necessity of officers of railroads having full control of their business in order to ensure safety and dispatch in transportation, military officers are prohibited from interfering with the engines, cars, running of trains, or with the control and management in any way of railroads.

II. When transportation of troops or freights by railroad is necessary, a Quartermaster or other authorized officer, shall make requisition for the same upon the superintendent or proper officer of the railroad, furnishing the necessary evidence of transportation, and delivering the troops or freight to be transported.

III. In the event that more freight is to be transported over any road than the road has the ability to carry promptly, the officer furnishing evidence of transportation will indicate to the railroad officer what shall take precedence. In the absence of any special order as to what freight shall go first the railroad officer shall be governed by any General order the Quartermaster General may issue in regard thereto.

IV. When troops or freight is to be moved out of the usual routine of a railroad, the officer having charge of such movement, will confer with the superintendent, or other officer of the road on which the movement is to be made the day and hour of departure, and when so fixed, the troops or freight must be ready at the appointed time.

V. In the event of any military necessity for an unusual movement at any particular point the commanding officer at such a point will communicate fully the character and extent of service, to the principal officer of the road or roads from which it is required, and ask the personal supervision of the proper railroad officers to the duty.

VI. Quartermaster and Commissaries will exercise discretion in shipping freight not wanted for immediate use, and that may be stored at safe and convenient points, taking care not to block up roads and thereby impede transportation.

VII. When it is necessary to send a special messenger with freight, such messenger must travel with the freight placed in his charge, and his transportation shall be so specified on its face, in order to prevent him from travelling in any other way.

VIII. Enrolling officers will permit conscripts, enrolled while in the employment of railroads, to remain at their duties until Colonel William M. Wadley, A. A. G., decides as to who of them it is necessary should be detailed for service on the road.

IX. Any violation of these orders, or remissness on the part of railroad officers to perform promptly all Government transportation will be reported to Colonel William M. Wadley, A. A. G., who will indicate from time to time where his headquarters will be.

By order:
(Signed) S. COOPER,
Jan 12-1w Adjutant and Inspector General.

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.
NEW SERIES.

IT IS CONTEMPLATED TO RESUME THE PUBlication of the North Carolina Christian Advocate at an early day, under the patronage of the North-Carolina Conference, and under the direction and ownership of a joint stock Company composed of ministers and laymen, to secure its permanency.

It will be its name, imports, a CHRISTIAN Advocate.—It will sustain and defend the doctrines and discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and labor to advance Christ's Kingdom on earth, and to promote peace and good will among all men.

Besides its earnest, religious character, it shall be an advocate of the moral, educational and industrial progress of North Carolina—a welcome visitor to every family and to the camps of our brave soldiers, and a faithful chronicler of what may be useful and interesting, and of the current news.

All our travelling and local ministers and the stockholders of the Company, are specially requested to act as Agents for the paper.

The old subscribers of the Advocate will be supplied with the new series, to the full amount due them at the time of its suspension, but as the mail books are not in the possession of the Editor, he must rely on the old subscribers themselves and the Agents, to furnish him with their names and post offices and the amount due them.

The Advocate will be well printed on good paper, and will contain an amount of reading matter equal to any paper in the State.

During the continuance of war prices, the subscription price will be $3 per annum, always in advance.

Agents who send ten or more new subscribers and the cash, will be entitled to a copy of the paper for one year. It is desirable that a large list be sent in at once.

A specimen sent on application.

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, IT HAS BECOME APPARENT TO ME and to all who are interested in the welfare of the State, and who have any feelings of humanity for suffering among their fellow-men, from the cries which reach us from the poor in all sections of the land, that starvation will be the fate of many of our heretofore favored people, unless the crime of speculating in the necessaries of life can be arrested; and whereas, it is my bounden duty to protect the citizens of the State, of which I have the honor to be the Chief Magistrate, against the evils consequent upon this crime, to the utmost of my ability:

Now, therefore, I, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor of North Carolina, do, by and with the advice and consent of the Council of State, issue this Proclamation, forbidding all persons, for the space of thirty days from the date hereof, from exporting any of the following articles beyond the limits of the State, to wit: any Salt, Bacon, Pork, Beef, Corn, Meal, Flour, Wheat, Potatoes, Shoes, Leather, Hides, Cotton Cloth, and Yarn, and Woolen Cloth.

From this prohibition the following persons are to be excempted: All Quartermasters and Commissary Agents of the Confederate Government, and of any State of the Confederacy, exhibiting proper evidence of their official character. Also, all Agents of any County, District, Town or Corporation, of other States, who shall exhibit satisfactory proof of their Agency for the purchase of such articles for such County, District, Town or Corporation, for public uses, or for distribution at cost and transportation, and not for resale or profit. Also, all persons whether residents or non-residents of the State who may purchase any of said articles for their private use, of which, before the articles are removed, their oath, before a Justice of the Peace, may be taken as evidence. The exception is to extend to Salt made by non-residents on the sea coast and in their own works, and to surgeons entering a part of this State from abroad.

Any of said articles that may be stopped in transitu from our borders are to be confiscated to the use of the State. The Colonels of Militia throughout the State are enjoined to see that this Proclamation is enforced.

I earnestly appeal to all good citizens to sustain and aid me in carrying out the object this Proclamation is designed, as far as possible, to effect.

(SEAL) In witness whereof, ZEBULON B. VANCE, Governor, Captain General and Commander-in-Chief, hath signed these presents and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at our City of Raleigh, this 13th day of April, A. D., 1863, and in the year of our Independence the 87th.

By the Governor: Z. B. VANCE.
R. H. BATTLE, Jr., Private Secretary.
