THE LAST VIOLET.

[illegible]

SPRIGHTLY SPARKS.

They sin who tell us love can die.

The night is long that never finds a day.

He that increaseth in knowledge increaseth sorrow.

The last rose of summer—last chad of the season.

To live without a purpose is to lead a useless and unhappy life.

Marriageable young men belong to the surplus population.

We suppose a clap of thunder may be called a 'swell-er report.'

Protested notes—Those emanating from your neighbor's violin.

Quarts should be shortened if the whole were only an one side.

A man should never be embedded with his hat until it is paid for.

To win, work and watch—that work a good deal more than you won't.

The man who cannot whistle a tune usually does most of the whistling.

The weather is so hot that lovemen ignite by spontaneous combustion.

A good wife is a good thing, but a bad husband beats even a good wife.

Beautiful are the admonitions of him whose life accords with his teachings.

It is a mistake to assume that a rose by any other name would smell as sweet.

A cent's worth of harvest apples is almost sure to relieve $25 worth of colic.

A Dutchman repeated the adage, "Birds of one feather goes not themselves."

The only amaranthine flower on earth is virtue, the only lasting treasure, truth.

Did you ever see a doctor in the cemetery looking at the monuments of his kill?

"Matchless misery" has been defined to be having a cigar and nothing to light it with.

The red flag is a signal of danger. If you doubt it, wave one in the face of a bull dog.

Never call a man empty-headed. Say he reminds you of a dilapidated contribution box.

Why is a woman who has four sons, all sailors, like a year? Because she has four seasons.

What is the best way for horses to pull together? Why, for each to try to pull a point of course.

Truth only smells sweet forever, and the sloth, however innocent, are deadly as the cankerworm.

Chimneys are not swept until the fire is out. When the passions are extinguished man puts his heart.

Why may a tipsy man fall into the river with impunity? Because he won't drown as long as his head swims.

Why is the house of a tidy woman like a mitten to adjourn? You give it up? Because it is always in order.

A millionaire in Austria has been murdered by his servant. Young man take warning don't be a millionaire.

True bravery is shown by performing without witness what one might be capable of doing before all the world.

Of some crops it is said that they don't amount to shucks. The peanut crop is exempt from such complaint.

The neighbors of an ill tempered woman are said to be almost invariably orthodox in their views of a future state.

Why is Hymen always represented as bearing a torch? Perchance because so many consider him the cause of torches.

Men are guided less by conscience than by glory; and yet the shortest way to glory is to be guided by conscience.

The universal heart of a man blesses flowers. He has wreathed them around the cradle, the marriage altar, and the tomb.

The time to dance is just after stirring up a den of yellow jacks. Parties attending picnics will do well to remember this.

It was undoubtedly a very mean old bachelor who said that the disease which has the most terror for women is the lockjaw.

Good temper is like a sunny day. It sheds a brightness over everything; it is the sweet cure of toil and the soother of disappointed.

Mental pleasures never cloy. Unlike those of the body, they are increased by repetition, approved by reflection and strengthened by enjoyment.

A more glorious victory cannot be gained over another man than this, that when the injury began on his part, the kindness should begin on ours.

A person who is too close an observer of the business of the crowd, like one who is too curious in observing the labor of bees, will often be stung by curiosity.

He who is great in his own estimation, is like a man standing on a mountain; all mankind seem little to him from above, and he, heaven knows, looks little from below.

Morning's light and evening shade alike proclaim the pity and the care of God. What is daylight but the sunshine of his favor, or darkness but the shadow of his wing?

Life is divided into three terms—that which was, which is, and which will be. Let us learn from the past to profit by the present, and from the present to live better in the future.

When you see a woman talking straight at a man, and beginning to nod her head and keep time to it with her upraised index finger, it is about time for somebody to climb a tree.

After all the talk of scholars, there are but two sorts of government—one where men show their teeth at each other, and one where men show their tongues and lick the feet of the strongest.

Adhere rigidly and underlatingly to truth; but while you express what is true, express it in a pleasing manner. Truth is the picture, the manner is the frame that displays it to advantage.

A religion that is false is usually intricate. The only two rites that characterize the religion of Jesus are noted for their simple beauty. The Christian worship comes out of the soul and not out of symbols.

The most powerful being on earth is man, the most beautiful is woman. The graces unite in her; in him the forces. He loves her as an embodiment of all the virtues; she worships him as the incarnation of omnipotence.

No Good Preaching.

No man can do a good job of work, preach a good sermon, try a law suit well, doctor a patient, or write a good article when he feels miserable and dull, with sluggish brain and unsteady nerves, and none should make the attempt in such a condition when it can be so easily and cheaply removed by a little Hop Bitters.—Albany Times.

DR. HARTER'S IRON TONIC.

Endorsed and recommended by the medical profession. for Dyspepsia, General Debility, Female Diseases, Want of Vitality, Nervous Prostration, and Consequence from Fevers, &c

GENTLEMEN: I was suffering from general debility to such an extent that my labor was exceedingly burdensome to me. A friend of a month did not giving much relief, but on the contrary, was followed by decided prostration and nervous chills. At this time I began the use of your Iron Tonic, from which I received immediate and wonderful results. The old energy returned and I found that my natural force was not permanently shaken. I have used three bottles of the Tonic since using it I have done twice the labor that I have did in the same time during my illness, and with double the ease. With the renewed nerve and vigor of body has come also a clearness of thought never before enjoyed. If this Tonic has not done the work, I know not what. I give it the credit. J. F. WATSON, Pastor Christian Church, Top. O.

The Iron Tonic is a preparation of Protoxide of Iron, Peruvian Bark, and Phosphates, associated with the Vegetable Aromatics. It serves every purpose where a Tonic is necessary.
