House and Lot for Sale,
IN SALISBURY.

THE subscriber wishes to sell his house and lot, in the town of Salisbury, now occupied by himself, as a tavern. The establishment is so generally known, that it would be of little service to describe it particularly; it is, perhaps, the most eligible stand for a public house in the western part of North-Carolina; it is within 80 yards of the court-house in Salisbury; is large and convenient, with extensive out-buildings, &c. A very moderate price will be taken for the establishment, and payments made easy. Any person wishing to purchase, will do well to apply soon, as the subscriber is now determined to sell, and remove to his farm in the country. Letters directed to the subscriber, in Salisbury, N. C. will be duly attended to.

Andrews & Jones'
N. CAROLINA FEMALE ACADEMY.

THIS institution which, during the present year, has been located in Williamsborough, will open in OXFORD on the first Monday in February next. The Principals have been induced to a change of residence, with a view to a permanent establishment where the premises will comfortably accommodate their pupils; and they have altered the time of commencing the scholastic year, for the convenience, and at the general request of their patrons.

The pupils are instructed in Needle-Work, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar and Parsing, Geography, Mythology, History, Belles-lettres, Natural Philosophy, Chymistry, Botany, and Astronomy.

The terms for board, washing, and tuition in all the above branches are sixty dollars per session, payable in advance. Music, vocal and instrumental, thirty dollars per session Drawing and Painting, twenty dollars per session. Dancing is also taught by a competent master.

The first session will end early in July, the second in December, when the only vacation in the year takes place

The system of education is in all the departments radical; by the aid of an excellent apparatus, the truths of Natural Philosophy, Chymistry, and Astronomy are illustrated experimentally, and are thus rendered objects of sense.—There are six teachers constantly engaged; three excellent Piano-Fortes are employed in the musical department, and the models for Drawing and Painting are numerous and good.

No expenditures are allowed but such as are authorized by Parents or Guardians, and the Principals are determined strictly to enforce the rule prohibiting finery in dress. In summer, colored cotton dresses, and in winter worsted stuffs will be worn by all the young Ladies.

All the pupils will board with the Principals, who pay strict attention to their health, their manners, and their morals. The public and private exercises of devotion are regularly observed, whilst every thing sectarian is carefully avoided.

Each pupil is expected to bring a coverlid, a pair of sheets, blankets, and towels, for her own use; otherwise an extra charge will be made of $2 50 per session.

☞ When payment in advance cannot be made, approved bonds will in all instances, be exacted.
