Very Interesting Meeting Held at Residence of Mrs. Alice B. Hudson.

The Daughters of the Confederacy met with Mrs. Alice B. Hudson Wednesday. The president, Mrs. Ida T. Wilkins, opened the meeting. The hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," was sung. The secretary, Mrs. J. A. Musgrove, read a letter from Major-General William A. Smith, of Anniston, advising the Daughters to apply to the commissioners to see if they would furnish money to pay the fare of the veterans of Halifax county, to the Confederate Reunion in Richmond in June. Mrs. T. C. Harrison, Mrs. C. P. Roberson and Mrs. W. T. Daniel were appointed a committee to attend the May celebration. A committee was appointed to find if all the veterans were supplied with crosses. Mrs. Alice B. Hudson, Mrs. H. W. Pierce and Mrs. H. H. Ward were put on this committee. Mrs. J. S. Turner, Mrs. R. H. Marchant and Mrs. J. W. Pierce were asked to serve on a committee to see that the Confederate veterans in Weldon are cared for.

A letter was read from Mrs. T. J. Wood asking the chapter to endorse the committee of a subscription form for the use of the lyceum at the Confederate Hospital at Newport News. Mrs. C. W. Coughter was elected delegate to the District Convention which will be held in Scotland Neck, April 26th.

There was a pleasing musical program. Miss Margaret Carroll played beautiful piano selections. Mrs. R. H. Marchant read "Lee's Invasion of Pennsylvania." Mrs. W. A. Dunaway read an address from "The Rose in Flanders Field." Mrs. W. J. Daniel sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." Mrs. R. J. Harrison accompanied.

Miss Kate Carroll recited the ladies a very interesting story of the October 1862 and showing the interesting experiment. "Tom Bee" is especially welcomed a newcomer to the number that is so quiet. Welcome as the mornings of the 19th and 20th. Tuesday, April 11, 1922.

EASTER.

The beginning of Easter, and the coming of one, the Resurrection Celebration, the Easter season is the official time for Easter. The morning, and the morning, the Resurrection morning.

As we contemplate Easter, we see the Cross, the Resurrection morning, and the morning of the Resurrection. Easter is the morning of the Resurrection. Easter is the morning of the Resurrection. Easter is the morning of the Resurrection.
