UNDER THE VIOLETS.

Her hands are cold, her face is white—
No more her pulses come and go;
Her eyes are shut to life and light
Fold the white vesture, snow on snow,
And lay her where the violets blow.

But not beneath a graven stone,
To plead for tears with alien eyes;
Yonder cross of wood alone
Shall say that here a maiden lies
In peace beneath the peaceful skies.

Old gray old trees of hugest limb,
Shall wheel their circling shadows round,
To make the scorching sunlight dim,
That drinks the greenness from the ground,
And drop their dead leaves on her mound.

Low over their boughs the squirrels run,
And through their leaves the robins call,
Ripening in the autumn sun,
The acorns and the chestnuts fall,
Nor note not that she will heed them all.

Over her the morning choir shall sing
Its matins from the branches high,
And every minstrel voice of spring
That trills beneath the April sky
Shall greet her with its earliest cry.

When, turning round their dial-track,
Toward the lengthening shadows pass,
The little mourners, clad in black,
The crickets sliding through the grass,
Shall pipe for her an evening mass.

At last the rootlets of the trees
Shall find the prison where she lies,
And bear the buried dust they seize,
In leaves and blossoms to the skies;
So may the soul that warmed it rise.

Then, born of kindlier blood,
Should ask, "What maiden lies below?"
Some one shall reply, "A tender bud,
That tried to blossom in the snow,
Was killed where the violets blow."

Webster's Unabridged Dictionary

FOR THE SCHOOL R

3,000 Engravings; 1,840 Pages Quarto. Price $12.

A NEW FEATURE.

To the 3,00 Illustrations heretofore in Webster's Unabridged, we have added fourpages of

Colored Illustrations,

engraved expressly for the work at large expense.

Nearly every State Superintendent of Public Instruction in the Union, or corresponding officer, where such an one exists, has recommended Webster's Dictionary in the strongest terms. Among them are those of Eastern, Northern, Middle, Southern, and Western States—TWENTY-EIGHT in all.

The State of NEW YORK has placed 10,000 copies of Webster's Unabridged in as many of her Public Schools.

The State of WISCONSIN about 5,000—nearly every school.

The State of NEW JERSEY 1,500—nearly every school.

The State of MICHIGAN made provision for all her schools.

The State of MASSACHUTETTS has supplied her schools—nearly all.

The State of IOWA has supplied her schools.

The State of CONNECTICUT has made provision for her schools.

☞ Over 3,000 schools in INDIANA were supplied during the year 1872, and many more in 1873 and 1874.

In other States many copies have been purchased for supplying schools of cities, counties and towns.

What better investment can be made for schools?

More than TEN times as many are sold of Webster's Dictionaries as of any other series in this country.

At least FOUR-FIFTHS of all the school-books published in this country own Webster as their standard, and of the remainder few acknowledge ANY standard.
