A $20 A Day Man!

A VOICE from Ohio. Here is portrait of Mr. Garrison, of Salem, Ohio. He writes: "Was at work on a farm for $20 a month. I now have an agency for E. C. Allen & Co's almanac and publications and often make $20 a day." (Signed) W. H. GARRISON.

William Kline, Harrisburg, Pa., writes: "I have never known anything to sell like your album. Yesterday I took orders enough to pay me over $25." W. J. Elmore, Bangor, Me., writes: "I take an order for your album at almost every house I visit. My profit is often as much as $20 for a single day's work." Others are doing quite as well. We have not space to give extracts from their letters. Every one who takes hold of this grand business piles up grand profits.

THE MONTANA STEAL.

The people of the United States naturally look to the Senate, the highest legislative body in the land, to rise above the prejudices of party and the expediences of political advantage and accord justice with an even hand. In times past this confidence of the people in their house of lords may have been justified, but it is not so at the present day. The illustration is in the case of the four Senators, two from each party, claiming admission into that august body, the United States Senate. It is natural to suppose that party men will have party feeling but it is just as natural to hope for justice at the hands of a body who ought to rise, in every particular, above party trammels, and legislate for the best interests of the people. Not because of right or justice, but simply because the balance of power was in their hands and the lines were too close to be comfortable, the Republican majority in the Senate has cast to the winds every principle of fair play, every vestige of political honesty, and has solemnly declared the election of two men whom no fair and impartial man in the country will for one moment admit were really legally chosen. The expedient of declaring that none of the candidates, Democrats or Republicans, were lawfully entitled to the seats was presented to their consideration but they were not willing to trust the issue again in the hands of the people of Montana, for fear that the claims of the Democratic applicants would be endorsed at the polls, and hence, with a shameless disregard for the facts in the case and with an utter contempt for the will of the people they have seated their own men. No one expected anything better than this from such unprincipled politicians as John Sherman, Ingalls, Quay and others, but that men like Gen. Hawley, Mr. Edmunds and Mr. Allison should have lent themselves to such a shameless debauchery of truth and justice is a sad commentary on the fact that political life is not by any means a purifier and ennobler of private character. It was simply a theft, pure, simple and unadulterated, and as much of a fraud upon the rights and liberties of the people of Montana as the august Senators could have perpetrated had they gone to the ballot boxes and deposited each a handful of illegal votes or as members of a canvassing board have declared a result totally different from that justified by the returns.

But the crime is not only one against honesty and purity in elections but it is against the beliefs and the traditions of a whole country full of liberty-loving people. It is an example and an incentive to evil and corrupt methods which we fear will not be lost upon others. When the judge steps from the bench, not only to shield the thief but to share in the proceeds of his rascality, then justice becomes worse than a farce—it is in itself a crime.

The New York Star gives vent to the following plain language on the matter:

The Montana crime is consummated. The Republican claimants, who were not chosen to represent the State, have been sworn in as Senators in violation of common decency, common honesty and all the honorable traditions of the United States Senate.

For the first time in our history the council of the States in the Federal Government has descended below the level of a ward faction caucus. That which local partisan courts refuse to do, because law and fact were against it, has been done by the only tribunal that can try on impeachment the country's highest officers. The local court gave true title to the county officers duly elected in Silver Bow by the honest vote of Precinct Thirty four. The Republic's highest legislative tribunal has awarded the Senatorial seats to those whose lawful selection that honest vote rendered impossible.

Such is the unprecedented crime of yesterday. The freedom loving world will await the swiftly coming retribution, premonitions of which are already plain in the recent elections East, West, North and South, including those in Montana itself. Those emphatic popular verdicts were influenced by detestation of the impending iniquity against the Mountain State as part of the conspiracy of political desperadoes to perpetuate minority rule by packing the Electoral College.

The Spring Medicine.

The popularity which Hood's Sarsaparilla has gained as a spring medicine is wonderful. It possesses just those elements of health-giving, blood-purifying and appetite-restoring which everybody seems to need at this season. Do not continue in a dull, tired, unsatisfactory condition when you may be so much benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies the blood and makes the weak strong.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtain, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking ten bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at R. R. Bellamy's Wholesale and Retail Drug Store, large bottles 50c. and $1.00.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty five cents a bottle.

Be Sure

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it." MRS. ELLA A. GOFF, 61 Terrace Street, Boston.
