Judge Graves has a good deal of dry humor in him. A newspaper man was summoned as a juryman this morning and was anxious to get off but the Judge told him to take a seat and stay in the Court House awhile as he might pick up more news there than he could out in the streets.

During Mr. Gieschen's absence his brother, Mr. Henry Gieschen, will have charge of his business here. We wish the travelers a safe and prosperous journey and a happy return.

The Deaf Hear.

That sounds miraculous, and yet one may become temporarily deaf on account of blood poison settling in the ear, and then find quick relief by using B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm.)

John W. Weeks, Decatur, Ga., writes: "Six months ago I had a pain in my ear and in a few days it discharged matter. Then I grew deaf and could not hear at all. I began the use of B. B. B. and the running of my ear soon ceased and I now hear, while my health is much improved and I feel full of gratitude to God and to the proprietors of so good a remedy."

S. M. Ellis, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "B. B. B. cured me of most stubborn eczema. I had doctored it without success for twelve years."

W. H. Davis, San Marcos, Texas, writes: "I am rapidly recovering from blood poison by use of B. B. B."

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, fair and warmer weather. For Wilmington and vicinity, from 10 a.m., fair weather.

Superior Court.

The following cases were disposed of in this court to day:

E. Kidder et al., Trustees, vs. W. E. Mayo, continued.

Eliza Hardy vs. James Hardy, verdict for plaintiff and decree of divorce granted.

The case of Martha E. Hodges vs. The New Hanover Transit Co., on trial yesterday and which was given to the jury last evening, was decided to day by the jury returning a verdict for the defendants.

The Encampment Committee.

The committee of ten appointed recently to arrange for raising the amount necessary to complete the arrangement as to the Encampment grounds met this morning at the office of Mr. George Chadbourn, President of the First National Bank. The gentlemen of the committee were divided into sub-committees and work assigned to each. They will at once take to the "war-path" and it is confidently believed that the amount necessary will all be raised in a few days.

The Why and the Wherefore.

Having been earnestly entreated by a number of those whose guessing faculties are not in very good working order just now to give the solution to some matters propounded in yesterday's REVIEW we will state that Mr. Talmage walked up the aisle on Palm Sunday with the palms of his hands in his hands and with the crown of his head on his head. If the Georgia editors really do wear red suspenders it must be for the purpose of keeping up their pants.

W. L. I. Entertainment.

The committee for the entertainment of the W. L. I. next week met to day but the only business that was transacted was a resolution to adjourn to meet with the ladies' committee this afternoon. The committee for the company is as follows: Don. MacRae, Jr., chairman, DuVal French, D. T. Cronly, W. N. Harriss, Ed. W. Moore, F. R. Hawes, W. E. Corbett, H. J. Dingelhoef, M. Sternberger, R. S. Collins, Walker Taylor.

We Won't Give Him Away.

A right good thing happened in the Court House this morning. A case was about to be taken up in the Superior Court for trial before a jury when one of the jurors arose and said: "May it please your Honor, I am incompetent to serve as a juror in this case, because I may become the proprietor of the property in dispute." Therefore Lawyer Marsden Bellamy, of counsel in the case, sprang to his feet. "What are you talking about?" he asked. "This is a divorce case! Do you expect to become proprietor of the woman?" There was of course a hearty laugh, which could not be restrained and the juror who was so anxious to escape has had to run a gauntlet of jokes. He is a clever gentleman, however, a good citizen, a member of a large industrial establishment, an extensive real estate owner and one who Fosters a spirit of public enterprise on every possible occasion and we won't give him away.

Sorrowful Tidings.

The sad news of the death of Mr. John Thomas Burr, second son of Mr. H. A. Burr, of this city, was received here last night. The young man was 19 years and 6 months old and the sorrowful news was wholly unexpected. Some little time since, his health being rather delicate, he purchased a small farm at Rocky Point and there embarked in the strawberry culture. Last Saturday morning he was taken with a chill, and last night, less than three days after the attack, he was a corpse. His disease was cerebro-spinal meningitis. His father and his elder brother were with him when he died.

Mr. Burr was one of the most promising young men in this city. He was a thoroughly honorable, honest and upright youth, respected by his elders and emulated by those who were younger in years. This is not adulation, but the simple truth and the heartfelt, tearful testimony of all who knew him. He will be interred to morrow in Oakdale and funeral services will be held at St. James' Church at 11 o'clock.

Wide Awake for May.

The May Wide Awake opens with a frontispiece that all American young people will hail with pleasure, for it is a portrait of the author of The Heir of Redclyffe and The Daisy Chain, Miss Charlotte M. Yonge; farther on, Mr. Oscar Fay Adams describes his visits with her at Otterbourne. Following comes a humorous story, entitled "The Baby's Masquerade." "Apple Blossoms" is a unique little story. "A Long Horror" is a powerful true story of a young French count and his wife. "The Monitor of Grammar School II.," and the "Cow Bells of Grand Pre" are both dramatic tales. "Bonny and Ban" ends satisfactorily as does "Gid Granger." The illustrated papers are very interesting; "The Aprons of Paris" is illustrated by Henry Bacon, and "The Upper Ten" has a dozen "taking" pictures from prints and photographs. "Japanese Kites" has some very quaint pictures. "Stenographers and Type-Writers" will interest many young women, as will "Margaret-Patty Letter" also. A paper on "Spelling" gives matter for serious consideration. "Men and Things" is delightfully readable. The poems of the number are choice: "Victor Hugo and the Mouse;" "What Baby Knows;" "The Unbidden Guest" and "The Fairy Prince." Wide Awake is $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Company, publishers, Boston.

Audit and Finance.

The Board of Audit and Finance held their regular semi-monthly session yesterday. All the members of the Board were present: the chairman, Mr. R. J. Jones, presiding.

Alderman Craft appeared before the Board in reference to the appropriation voted by the Board of Aldermen for Wilmington S. F. E. Co. No. 1, and rejected by this Board. He gave in detail the expenses of the company, showing that they had expended annually for the past two years, for necessary expenses of the company, over $250 more than the appropriations. After discussion, at the suggestion of Mr. Jones, the sum of $250 was voted the company to make up the deficit and in lieu of an increased annual appropriation.

Mr. Maunder moved that the Board reconsider its action at the last meeting in the matter of non-concurrence in the appropriation of $100 for the Assistant Chief of the Fire Department. The motion to reconsider was adopted, and a motion to make the appropriation $75 was also carried after debate, by a vote of five to three.

Mr. Calder moved to reconsider the salary of the Chief of the Fire Department, but the motion was lost—5 to 3.

On motion of Mr. Kenan, the appropriation of $7,452 for paving Nutt street was concurred in.

Consideration of the appropriation for the Water Works—in the matter of additional fire hydrants, was deferred for further report from the chairman of the committee.

The proposed purchase of the Gamewell Fire Alarm system was brought up, and on motion of Mr. Calder, who argued that it would be best to inquire into the cost of some other system before determining upon its purchase, the chairman appointed a committee of two—naming Mr. Kenan and Mr. Calder—to confer with the Finance Committee of the Board of Aldermen in regard to the matter.

Mr. Kenan moved that the Board reconsider the salary of the clerk of the Police Court. The motion prevailed, and on Mr. Kenan's motion the salary was increased to $450 per annum.

The Board approved the action of the Board of Aldermen in awarding contract for printing to S. G. Hall, for lumber to Parsley & Wiggins, for feeding prisoners to Mrs. J. M. Sheehan, for lights to the Gas & Electric Light Co., and for feeding and keeping mules and furnishing drivers for carts to T. J. Southerland.

Bills for current expenses amounting to $270.44 were audited and approved. Also, the purchase of a house obstructing Eighth and Red Cross streets, for the sum of $375.

Refreshing and Invigorating

The Committee and the C. F. & Y. V. R. R.

Col. Julius A. Gray, President of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. and Vice President of the North State Improvement Company, subpoenaed appeared before the railroad committee Saturday morning, as we learn from the Raleigh News and Observer. On being questioned with regard to the North State Improvement Company he stated that it was organized at Greensboro in 1883. Mr. Jno. D. Williams, of Fayetteville, is President. Its capital stock is $250,000, all of which is paid up. The object of the organization of the company was to build the C. F. & Y. V. Railroad. The stock has no market value. The North State Improvement Company built the C. F. & Y. V. under contract with that company for which the former was to receive $10,000 per mile of first mortgage bonds of the road.

The road was then completed and the first mortgage bonds of $10,000 per mile have been issued to the Improvement Company. The bonds for the first division from the South Carolina line to Greensboro, amounting to $1,500,000, were sold at 95 cts. with accrued interest.

The bonds for the second division from Greensboro to Mt. Airy, amounting to $734,000, were sold at the same price. The bonds for the third division from Fayetteville to Wilmington, amounting to $850,000, were sold at par with accrued interest. The North State Improvement Company bought the State's stock in the C. F. & Y. V., at $10 per share which may be regarded as the market value. The stock has not been listed for taxation. The road does not claim any exemption from taxation. Its franchise, stock, etc., are listed and the taxes paid on them. The real estate is such as was donated to the company along the line. All the moneys received from the sale of the bonds and all the money subscribed by various townships to the company, the latter amounting to $23,000, was spent in the construction and equipment of the road. Under the contract with the Railroad Company the North State Improvement Company is to receive $5,000 per mile in second mortgage bonds in addition to the $10,000 per mile of the first mortgage bonds. All the first mortgage bonds have been received and sold. The North State Improvement Company owns the majority of stock in the C. F. & Y. V. road.
