Baltimore, Md.—"I send you herewith the picture of my fifteen year old daughter Alice, who was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking three bottles she has regained her health, thanks to your medicine. I can recommend it for all female troubles."—Mrs. L. A. Amusements.

SCENE FROM "THE ROSARY, AUDITORIUM, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 1.

"The Rosary."

Can one evil mind poison a whole household? Is the human brain capable of producing disastrous effects upon a household by adverse suggestive thoughts?

Do we realize adequately how our mental attitudes influence our lives and the lives of those about us?

All these questions are asked in "The Rosary" a new play by Edward E. Rose, and produced by Messrs. Rowland & Clifford.

And the answer? Well, the play is the answer.

For one half its course it builds up a condition of affairs in a typical American family of today. The inner life of each member is shown, and there is the subtle feeling produced that all is not right, that one mind is not in full accord with the peace and happiness of that household.

There are no words spoken directly that tell this, but it is in the air. Nor can anyone point to the one who is working against the general harmony.

Then suddenly the crash comes and the house is chaos. The husband doubts his wife, drives her out and faces absolute ruin. Then comes the power of the mind that seeks only truth and goodness; the mind that has harbored only good thoughts. It is that of Father Kelly, the priest who solves the mystery and brings each member of the little family circle back to peace and happiness. At the Auditorium next Wednesday evening, November 1st. Prices 50c to $1.50. Tickets now selling at Whitlock's.

Metropolitan Concert Company.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal of August 17, 1910, has the following to say of Mr. Humbird Duffey—one of the members of the Metropolitan Concert company which comes to the Auditorium next Thursday night under the auspices of the Baraca-Philathea union of Asheville:

Mr. Duffey has one of the greatest tenor voices ever heard in this city, and it was a right royal treat to hear him sing. The quality of it, the power, the perfect control and the broad intelligence that goes with it, make him one of the most notable exceptions in the list of tenors.

Tickets purchased from any member of the Baraca-Philathea union can be exchanged for coupon tickets at Whitlock's. Prices 35c to 75c.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation on dextensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children and may be given to young children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

HE INVESTED 48 CENTS AND MADE OVER $100.

I wish to say I have found the Asheville Gazette-News a splendid advertising medium. A 48-cent "For Sale" advertisement, run in two issues, brought me twelve replies and netted me over $100 profit.
