A $20 A Day Man!

A VOICE from Ohio. Here is a portrait of Mr. Garrison, of Salem, Ohio. He writes: "Was at work on a farm for $20 a month. I now have an agency for E. C. Allen & Co's albums and publications and often make $20 a day." (Signed) W. H. GARRISON.

William Kline, Harrisburg, Pa., writes: "I have never known anything to sell like your album. Yesterday I took orders enough to pay me over $25." W. J. Elmore, Bangor, Me., writes: "I take an order for your album at almost every house I visit." My profit is often as much as $20 for a single day's work. Others are doing quite as well. We have not space to give extracts from their letters. Every one who takes hold of this grand business rises up grand profits.

Shall we start YOU in this business, reader? Write to us and learn all about it for yourself. We are starting many; we will start you if you don't delay until another goes ahead of you in your part of the country. If you take hold you will be able to pick up gold fast. ☞ Read— On account of a forced manufacturer's sale 125,000 ten dollar Photograph Albums are to be sold to the people for $2 each. Bound in Royal Crimson Silk Velvet Plush. Charmingly decorated inside. Handsomest albums in the world. Largest Size. Greatest bargains ever known. Agents wanted. Liberal terms. Big money for agents. Any one can become a successful agent. Sells itself on sight—little or no talking necessary. Wherever shown, everyone wants to purchase. Agents take thousands of orders with rapidity never before known. Great profits await every worker. Agents are making fortunes. Ladies make as much as men. You, reader, can do as well as any one. ☞ Full information and terms free, to those who write for same, with particulars and terms for our Family Bibles, Books and Periodicals. NEWSY, BRIGHT AND CLEAN.

UP WITH THE TIMES.

THE "STATE CHRONICLE" WILL BE what its name implies—a State Paper. It is not the Raleigh "Chronicle," and will not be local or sectional. It will aim to keep up with the news from Murphy to Manteo, or, as the politicians put it, from Cherokee to Currituck.

It will be the organ of no man, no ring, no section, no party. It will be Democratic in politics, but will not hesitate to criticise Democratic measures and Democratic officers.

The Daily Review.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1890.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

There is a firm in Cincinnati which each year beats 21,000 gold dollars into gold leaf, and as each dollar can be beat into a sheet that will carpet two rooms 16½ feet square, some idea may be formed of its tenuity. It requires 1,400 of gold leaf to equal in thickness a sheet of writing paper, and takes 280,000 of them, piled one upon the other, to equal an inch in thickness!

A gentleman who has just returned from South Africa says that it is one of the best countries in the world for profitable real estate investments. "South Africa," he says, "already has beautiful and thriving towns, and it is destined to be the seat of a great and progressive English-speaking race. When I was there some years ago I was surprised at the extensive improvements, at the energy of the people, and the natural resources of the land. It is the place of places to put away a few thousand dollars to let them grow."

Edwin Booth writes to the New York Tribune that there is no truth in the report that Lawrence Barrett's health is failing; that, according to recent letters, he has almost entirely recovered from the effects of the operation on his neck, and that he is rapidly gaining strength. Mr. Booth further states that Mr. Barrett will return to America about June 1, and will begin his season of acting in September. This will be welcome news to Mr. Barrett's many friends and admirers, who were greatly shocked at the report of his probable permanent retirement from the stage.

The death of Mr. Randall left vacancies in two of the most important committees of the House, Rules and Appropriations. The popular impression has been that Mr. Mills would succeed to the vacancy on the Committee on Rules, but it appears that General Forney, of Alabama, will be named by the Speaker. This arises from one of the unwritten laws which govern such matters. The Committee on Rules, according to precedent, is composed of the Speaker, the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and a member of the minority on each of those committees. To appoint Mr. Mills would be to give the Ways and Means three members on the Committee on Rules and the Appropriations but one—Mr. Cannon. Therefore, it is understood that General Forney, the oldest Democrat on the Appropriations Committee since Mr. Randall's death, will succeed the latter. Mr. Outhwaite, of Ohio, is expected to succeed Mr. Randall on the Committee on Appropriations.

Chess never enjoyed in any other country the official recognition which it had in Japan until about a quarter of a century ago, and it is now entering upon a revival there. During the rule of the Shoguns once every year the masters of the game met in Yeddo for a tourney within the precincts of the palace. Judges, umpires, strict rules, and all things necessary to the combat were provided, and after the fight was over the ranks of the various combatants were officially fixed. The number of ranks was seven in all, the seventh being the highest. Scarcely any one ever reached the seventh rank, but there was generally one or two in the sixth. Certain families took the lead for several generations. The revolution of 1867 put a stop to all this, but now the game promises to resume its importance. In October last a grand meeting of all the principal chess players in Japan was organized in Tokio. Over two hundred players assembled, rating from the first up to the sixth rank. Count Todo, the former Daimio of Tsu, who has the honor of belonging to the sixth rank, is among the chief promoters of the revival. Another meeting took place on the 18th of January, when a ceremonial in honor of the revival of chess was performed. There is considerable chess literature in Japan; one work contains problems the solution of which are said to make the player worthy to be placed in the sixth rank.

What It Costs

Must be carefully considered by the great majority of people, in buying even necessities of life. Hood's Sarsaparilla commends itself with special force to the great middle classes, because it combines positive economy with great medicinal power. It is the only medicine of which can truly be said "100 Doses One Dollar," and a bottle taken according to directions will average to last a month.

Happy Hoosiers.

Wm. Timmons, Postmaster of Idaville, Ind., writes: "Electric Bitters has done more for me than all other medicines combined, for that bad feeling arising from Kidney and Liver trouble." John Leslie, farmer and stockman, of same place, says: "Find Electric Bitters to be the best Kidney and Liver medicine, made me feel like a new man." J. W. Gardner, hardware merchant, same town, says: Electric Bitters is just the thing for a man who is all run down and don't care whether he lives or dies; he found new strength, good appetite and felt just like he had a new lease on life. Only 50c. a bottle, at R. R. Bellamy's Wholesale and Retail Drug Store.
