There are 2,700 courts in the United States engaged in granting divorces, and one marriage in every twenty eight is thus annulled.

George Bancroft, who was Secretary of the Navy under President Polk, is the oldest ex-Cabinet officer, both in age and date of service, now living.

Mary Miller, of Western Pennsylvania, probably the wealthiest colored woman in the country, died the other day. Her income was $200 a day.

Prof. Boone, of Indiana University, says that of 6,500 theological students in the United States not less than one fourth are colored graduates.

The House of Commons has voted three times on disestablishment for Scotland. The first time, in 1886, the adverse majority was 112. In 1887 it had fallen to 52, and last week it shrunk still further to 38.

Municipal elections will be held in all the principal cities and towns of Virginia Thursday of next week. The Democrats have nominated candidates wherever elections are to be held, but so far the Republicans do not seem inclined to make a contest anywhere.

The New York Flower Mission distributed last season 250,000 bouquets. This was said to be more than was distributed by either the London or the Liverpool mission during the same period. Besides the flowers they distributed fruit, milk, eggs and vegetables.

A ministerial club in San Francisco recently gave itself a banquet. And in connection with each course on the menu an appropriate passage from the Bible was printed. For instance, with the soup there appeared the verse: "Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the sons of the prophets."

The Emperor of Germany has his cards like other mortals. They are very simple, although those of the German nobility are generally very highly decorated with crests and crowns. The royal cards have absolutely no ornamentation. In plain gothic letters they read: "Wilhelm, German Emperor and King of Prussia."

It is announced by the Louisville tornado relief committee that every deserving case has received proper attention, and that a fund of $11,000 has been deposited in bank for the benefit of those whom the calamity left without means of support. To the signal credit of the city, be it said, all the money required in the case was contributed by the people of Louisville.

A remarkable coincidence is reported from West Virginia. A census of Elm Grove was taken Friday, preparatory to incorporating the village as a town, with the following result: Number of males over 21 years of age, 148; number of males under 21 years of age, 148; number of females over 16 years of age, 143; number of females under 16 years of age, 148; grand total, 592.

John I. Blair, the millionaire owner of Blairsville, N. J., and also the owner of one-half the railroads in Iowa, a man estimated to be worth from $40,000,000 to $100,000,000, was in Chicago the other day and, it is related by the Tribune of that city, changed his linen in the wash room of the Grand Pacific Hotel to save the expense of paying for a room. He is 88 years old and wears an ancient, scrubbed up hat that a poor man would be ashamed of. He is generous, people say, to everybody except himself.

Thin and impure blood is made rich and healthful by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cures scrofula, salt rheum, all blood disorders.

Mr. J. D. McClammy, as clever a gentleman as ever stepped in shoe leather, and a good business man to boot (no pun intended) has opened a first class grocery store at the corner of Fifth and Castle, where we hope he will succeed handsomely. See his ad. in this issue.

Rain and Wind and Thunder and Lightning.

A heavy rain and wind and thunder storm struck the city early this morning. It came from the West and bore down upon us about half-past 12 o'clock. The atmosphere was heavily charged with electricity, the wind blew hard and the rain fell in almost blinding torrents. The rainfall here was greater than at any other station reported, amounting to 2.12 inches, of which fully 1.50 inches fell in the hour from 12:30 to 1:30. Augusta, which reported 1.06 inches, seems to have been next in the list. The rain area seems to have been very general over the entire country East of the Mississippi River. The only damage here was the injury to Mr. A. D. Brown's house, as reported elsewhere.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, showers and stationary temperature, becoming cooler and fair on Friday. Local forecasts, from 8 a. m., for Wilmington and vicinity, fair to-day and to-morrow.

Mayor of Monroe.

Our clever friend, Mr. C. H. Polley, who was born and raised here but who has for many years past resided at Monroe, has been elected Mayor of that thriving town. This is the best evidence in the world of the esteem in which he is held by the people among whom he has so long resided.

Sailors and Firemen's Union.

Under the auspices of the International Amalgamated Sailors and Firemen's Union a mass meeting for seafarers was held in this city Wednesday night and a branch of said union was established for this port. The officers elected are L. M. LeGwin, President; John Tarry, Vice President; S. G. Hall, Treasurer; W. H. Temple, Secretary, and D. D. Spencer, Check Steward. The objects of this union are in the words of Mr. Loser, "to establish and maintain a fair rate of wages; to provide for members who are shipwrecked; to guard members against the imposition of landmarks and the brutality of officers in some vessels at sea."

Struck by Lightning.

During the thunder storm this morning the residence of Mr. A. D. Brown, on Fifth street, near Orange, was struck by lightning and set on fire. The alarm wires were deranged by the storm and hence it was some little time before the alarm was turned in. The fire department was soon on hand, however, and the flames were soon checked. The damage, however, was quite serious. The house was badly injured and the furniture was thoroughly saturated with water. The house was insured for $2,500 in the Oneida, of Hartford, Messrs. Atkinson & Manning agents, and $1,500 in the North American, with Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor. There was also insurance on the furniture for $2,000 in the Connecticut, with Messrs. Smith & Boatwright. The loss will probably be covered.

Happy Women.

What is it that makes women more smiling and happy-looking than men? We meet them on the cars, on the streets, in the country, by the seashore, always smiling, teeth a glistening, eyes a dancing. Ah! the secret is they aim to please. It is an effort in many instances for them to smile, and were it not for a desire to look pleasing and pretty many would "never smile again." Why? Because in a large majority of instances they don't feel like smiling. They feel more like crying. With their nervous aches, weakness and bearing down pains, life to them is a burden. What a gold-find to many a physician is a rich sick woman. Why should he aim to cure her and deny himself the pleasure of presenting his bills with the usual regularity. It seems from the following that the surest and cheapest way for invalid women to regain health and strength is by using Botanic Blood Balm (B. B. B.)

Mrs. J. A. White, 340 Wythe street, Petersburg, Va., writes: "I have used B. B. B. with happy results, and others have taken it at my advice and are delighted with its curative results."

J. N. Gregory, Butler Postoffice, S. C., writes: "My wife had been under the treatment of several good physicians, but continued in poor health, so I bought four bottles of Botanic Blood Balm, and it did her more good than those doctors had done her in ten years. She is now doing her own washing, a thing she had not been able to do for four years."

The Odd Fellows.

The Grand Lodge met this morning, pursuant to adjournment, but the only business of public interest transacted was the selection of Oxford as the next place of meeting, in May next.

The Trustees of the Orphan Asylum reported the sum of $2,100 in hand.

The members of the Grand Lodge went down the river this afternoon, on the Sylvan Grove, on an excursion to Carolina Beach. They will meet again to-night, elect officers, and adjourn.

The Grand Encampment met this morning and elected the following officers for the ensuing term:

Grand Patriarch—T. E. Phillips.

Grand High Priest—T. W. Stephens.

Grand Senior Warden—A. Broadfoot.

Grand Junior Warden—J. W. Stanley.

Grand Scribe and Treasurer—C. W. Blake

Grand Representative—John L. Dudley.

The appointive officers will be named to-night.
