JUDGE ALDEN.

This notorious swindler, we learn, is now in Richmond, and holds a "post" under President Grant, in the Revenue Department. There is but one post only, which he fills, and that is the whipping post.

A year ago, or thereabouts, this scoundrel, Alden, fled from this city like a thief, and we offered $50,000 reward for him, payable in Confederate money, and are now prepared to renew the offer.

Before running away from here, he stated that the Legislature had been bought up, and he offered to buy it up again, but had to leave suddenly before the terms could be arranged.

The immediate cause of his sudden departure from this city was to avoid the service of a writ at the hands of the Sheriff, said out by Mr. A. W. Dimmer, of New York. The facts of the case are these:

General Littlefield, (of glorious memory,) borrowed $7,000 of Mr. Dimmer and gave him his note for it. Mr. D. gave the note to Judge Alden for collection. The Judge presented the note to Littlefield who, being flush about that time, paid it without a suit.

Judge Alden, after collecting the money, informed his client, Mr. Dimmer, that Littlefield was broke, and had no property upon which the money could be made, but that he had a fine diamond breast pin, worth about $2,000, and that he could get the pin for the debt, and offered to give Dimmer that amount for the note, which offer was accepted and Alden paid Dimmer the $2,000.

A short time afterward, Littlefield went to New York, and he and Dimmer met, when D. informed him that he had sold the debt to Alden, and the circumstances under which it was done; Littlefield produced the note, cancelled, declaring he had paid it in full, and that prior to the time Alden had represented Littlefield as broke, and bought the note for the $2,000!

Mr. Dimmer came to Raleigh, employed counsel and had a writ issued against Alden and put it in the hands of an officer. It is said that "the early bird catches the worm," but the worm, meaning thereby Judge Alden, was a little earlier than the bird on this occasion, for, before the officer was stirring next morning, Alden, carpetbag in hand, hired a carriage in company with Fruyn, the man of Penitentiary swindle notoriety, and made a short cut for Page's depot, where they took the train for parts beyond our Sheriff's bailiwick.

We do not mention these facts so much for the purpose of exposing Alden, (for he'll expose himself sooner or later, wherever he goes,) but to let the Governor know his present whereabouts, in case correspondence between them prudentially caused at the above little denouement. For Alden, in those days, was a bosom friend of the Governor's and belonged to his reconstruction staff. He traveled about the State with Major Smith and other Holdenites, making speeches and abusing rebels. We are sure the old friends and confreres here will be glad to hear from him and learn that he is in a position to do well for himself—the first chance he gets.

The corruption of Gov. Holden's administration has already written the death doom of the party in this State; so, we expect that, after the August election, Judge Alden will return here, and he and Leslie, Dewees, Abbott, Estes, Davis, and such carpet baggers, aided by Holden, Windy Billy Henderson, Chicken Stephens, and John Pool, will have an reconstructed again. All the vacancies on the Supreme Court Bench being filled, we do not believe Judge Pearson will give aid, countenance or encouragement to the movement—certainly he will not write another letter.

There is a preacher in the mountains, belonging to the Northern Methodist Church, who has slowly commenced inoculating the idea of a sound reconstruction. The king of the Albion Lanster, of Penitentiary Committee fame, has held the same sort of talk. Gen. Banks, in Washington, has declared in favor of again taking military possession of the South, and Holden's inflammatory and lawless proclamation against the people of Alamance is in furtherance of the same scheme.

There is no doubt of the defeat of the Holden and the carpet bag dynasty in August, and equally as little doubt that Judge Alden, Dewees, Leslie, Estes, and other carpet-bag emissaries, would have us under military rule again if they could. There are might look for Alden, Leslie, Estes, Pool and Kelsey, with all the small fry and rascals, to hang who come the post office at Raleigh, Salisbury, at Asheville, N. C., to remain in full feather, for another pick at the carcass.

THE SITUATION.

In order that our friends may see what opinion is entertained, out of the state, in regard to our prospects in the approaching campaign, and of the position taken by anti-Radicals in the Address of the Conservative members of the Legislature to the people of this State, we copy the following article from the Richmond, (Va.,) Whig, of a recent date:

SOUTHERN POLITICS.

Throughout the South the people are moving towards the adoption of a sound line of policy. But a few days since intelligence was published giving the result of a Press Conference in South Carolina, in attendance upon which the editors of all the anti Radical papers of the State met, and unanimously declared in favor of recognising the civil and political rights of all classes of the male population, and a union of all men, of whatever previous political views, for the redemption of the State from a condition of corruption, misrule and ex rebeldom.

And now comes the good news that North Carolina has taken a great stride in the same direction, and is preparing to enter the August campaign untrammelled by the restrictions of past differences, dead issues, or powerless party names.

The Legislature of the latter State being on the eve of adjournment, the Conservative Senators and Representatives have united in an address to the people calling upon them to reorganize the opposition to radicalism on a basis which shall be broad enough to invite the co-operation of all opponents to corrupt and incompetent administration of the government.

We quote a paragraph from the address which appeared in the Raleigh SENTINEL of Monday, 28th March:

"In the battle we are about to join against Radicalism, reckless extravagance, corruption, imbecility and partizan tyranny, why should we stop to enquire whether our leaders were in the past Whigs, Democrats, Unionists or Secessionists, so they but lead us to victory, and save us from a defeat, the results of which would be nothing less than absolute ruin to the State? The man who now attempts to exhume the buried past, to revive the prejudices born of issues long since dead, and which ought to be forgotten, will, intentionally or unintentionally, contribute to the strength of our common enemy. Let the bickerings of the past be hushed; let us rise above the dwarfed idea that would lead to enquiry of a man's former political affinities; let us but ask, is he an opponent of Radicalism? Is he honest? Is he competent?"

The address goes on to accept the status of the colored man fixed by law as a finality, and to pledge every effort to elevate him, morally and intellectually. It review the iniquities practiced by Holden's administration and the present Assembly, and concludes by suggesting a plan of organization, which is similar in general features to that adopted by the Conservatives of Virginia during the recent canvass.

We are heartily glad to chronicle this action on the part of our sister State. It is most judicious. It attracts to the party of intelligence and virtue all those elements of political strength which can secure permanent success, and carries with it a moral weight all the more effective, because of its striking contrast to the Bourbonism, the obtuseness, the bitterness and partizan pertinacity of Pseudo Radicalism. The latter party scoffs danger in the progressiveness of its adversaries, but it knows no new mode of warfare. It has grown so used to appeal to force that it forgets the restoration of supremacy to the ballot-box. We are not, therefore, surprised that, following the inauguration of the movements recited above, Governor Holden should have dispatched to Washington a prayer for the suspension of habeas corpus in his dominion, while Governor Scott hastens to the Capital and declares "that the Winchester rifle is the best law for his party in the approaching South Carolina elections."

This will but accelerate the motion and swell the volume of the Conservative wave. Let our friends oppose law to violence and reason to threats, and all will be well. The power which has been usurped heretofore by these despotic rulers over free peoples, will avail them little against the indignation which their acts of oppression have called into existence. Feasting, modern Belshazzars, in the halls of those whom they have despoiled, even while the revelling was at its height, the foundations of their strongholds have been undermined, and the handwriting glimmers on the banquet walls. They have been weighed in the balance and found wanting. A few short years, and the existence of such a class of public enemies will be remembered only as are pestilences and scourges of the past, in thankfulness that they have departed hence and in prayer that they may be seen no more forever.

RECOVERED CORRESPONDENCE.

We picked up the letter which we give below, lying about loose, and publish it because it is "too good to be lost." If people will be so careless of their papers, it is not our fault if they find a different destination to that intended. This letter seems to have been written some two or three weeks ago, as the rumors about a "new party," that were rife then, seem now to have died out. But to the letter.

To Gov. W. W. Holden:

DEAR SIR:—I understand that you and the rest of our friends are going to form a new party, to be called the "Moderate Party." Now, that is the very idea, and I am glad you have struck it. It is the only thing that can save us, for, the fact is, we are "treed on the ground," and the dogs are barking. Secrecy, and unless some new hole is discovered for us to dodge into, our whole faithful party in this State, and you, my dear Governor, will be swallowed up alive.

The internal people all over the State are furious about the stealing and frauds of our party, and I'm afraid they won't stand it much longer. So, let us have a new party, and that quick, or it will be too late. Let us change our names, change our coats; as to our principles, we have none to change. Let every man that wears whiskers, as the Senator of Wilkes does, cut them off, and every man that has a smooth face, like you have, Governor, turn out a roaring pair.—We can paint Jim Harris white, and paint you black, if it be necessary for disguise, and fix up to twenty-four hours, so that "his mothers that bore him will not know him."

But I leave all these things to you, Governor, for you are an old hand at the business, and have done the same thing twenty times before; only let it be done quickly, Governor, for there is no time to lose.

I assure you, that the "ku klux and military bill" design of yours was a great thing, and made me hot proader of you than ever; but it wouldn't do, for that enough. Jo Turner, keeps up such a fuss about the stealing that the people have become more afraid of us than they ever of the ku klux or the devil himself; so that it is necessary for us to change our coats, and we may shine, if possible.

[illegible] "Pass the moderate [illegible] That's the issue, and it will result in you being elected U. S. Sen. [illegible] which will [illegible]

[illegible] as an old fogy, and will never up a stump of stealing. You, of course, are a moderate man, for if there ever was a Democratic party in the world, you have belonged to it, for you have belonged to them all.

Then, you don't have to come before the people this summer, so you can stand a little in the background and pull the wires, and lend to the "moderate party" all your influence with the negroes and the leagues, if you have any left; and at the same time relieve the party from the burden of your unpopularity with the white folks, which, the Lord knows and it grieves me to say it, is heavy.

The new party would be bound to reward you by sliding you into the U. S. Senate, towards the close of your term—do you see that, Governor? Of course you do.

Now, Governor, we must not take into the new party any such men as Graham or Vance; in short, any of those old fellows that have foolish, old-fashioned notions about honesty, for they might be troublesome about the time the stealing ought to commence in our new party. Then, they are not moderate men, for they won't even steal or swear lies "moderately." But all of our present Judges, except Mitchell, will do to take in, for all but him are dereation moderate in their knowledge of law and political integrity. All the Radical members of the Legislature will do, for they are moderate in ability, and in hunting up thieves and swindlers.

All the Supreme Court Judges, too, are moderate—very moderate—except Pearson. He won't do dirty work with a good grace, even when paid for it. What do you say of him, Governor? Shall we take him or not?

Littlefield, Swepson and the Ring will do to come in, for they haven't stolen the Capitol, yet, and I call that "moderate" in them.

In short, Governor, we can take in every body but those impracticable men, who won't sell their self-respect for office, as our folks all did at the close of the war.—And thus, Governor, we can hold on to the offices and have a glorious party, that will blind the people as bad as our old Republican party did, and we will show the old fogies what fools they are to be honest.

I will write to you soon, again, Governor, about our new party, and you must write to me and let me know how you are getting along with it. Keep this letter close and don't let anybody see it, for if Jo Turner were to get hold of it, he's just fool enough to step it into his paper, and then the 1st would be in the fire, sure enough.

Your "moderate" friend, WILKES.

For the Sentinel.

HILLSBORO', March 28, 1870.

Mr. Editor: We are greatly surprised in Orange, that the SENTINEL has taken no issue with the Hillsboro' Recorder, since the editor fled with the Governor and went over to William A. Smith & Co.

I send you a few extracts from the Standard, written by the Governor, himself; it may be our neighbors of the Recorder have not gotten over the fright which the Governor gave them when he threatened to suppress their paper. If the SENTINEL will make an issue with the Recorder, we tell you the people of Person, Caswell and Orange will. Yours, ENO.

From the Standard 1866.

Edward J. Hale & Sons, of the late Fayetteville Observer in a card published in the Fayetteville Daily News of 29th June, announce "that at the earnest appeal of many valued friends, they are considering whether to resume the publication of the Observer." We regret the card referred to exhibits no disposition on the part of E. J. Hale & Sons to submit unconditionally and cheerfully to the national authority.

We have also seen the American of 6th July, 1865, Statesville, E. B. Drake & Son. This paper exhibits little if any evidence that its editors are reconciled to the Federal authorities. Its tone, if not defiant and insolent like that of the Chronicle, is nevertheless bad. It says: "Gov. Brown of Georgia, has been paroled and returned to his family. Why has not the same act of grace been extended to Gov. Vance?"

We do not wish to refer to Gov. Vance, but the above attack on the President, forces us to do so. Gov. Brown opposed and denounced the Davis despotism two years. Governor Vance justified the Davis despotism and did all he could to prevent peace. Gov. B. preferred reconstruction to the ruin of the State. Gov. Vance would not listen to the proposal to reconstruct in any event, but declared he would fight till the last extremity. Gov. Brown has submitted unconditionally and cheerfully to the United States authority, and has gone home to aid in reconstructing Georgia and placing her under the old flag. Will Gov. Vance also submit sincerely and unconditionally?

We have seen a copy of the Milton Chronicle 30th July, published by C. N. B. Evans & Son, which breathes anything but a feeling of loyalty, towards the national government. We do not deem it necessary to make extracts from the Chronicle to show the sentiments it contains. It is sufficient to say that it is not such a paper as should be circulated in the U. S. Mails. The Senior Editor was Post Master under Jeff Davis and therefore stands in need of a pardon from the President before he can be a citizen of the United States, and the Junior Editor is a paroled officer having served in the so called Confederate Army.—If it be the intention of the Chronicle to continue to create disaffection towards the government, and apologizing for Jeff Davis and secession by protesting against the absolute and final abolition of slavery in North Carolina, and by denouncing the national government as a despotism with a despot at its head, we have no hesitation in saying that the paper ought to be suppressed.

With reference to treasonable papers, we will simply add, they will not be tolerated, in North Carolina; malcontents and traitors will be controlled and silenced, and if mild means will not do, then, severer measures will be adopted. We mean what we say. The day of Jeff Davis and his partizans is past.

THE KU KLUX TRIAL IN RUTHERFORD.—We clip the following from the Rutherford Vindicator of the 28th ult., in regard to the Ku Klux trial in that county. The Star, both of the editors of which were engaged on the trial, has not a word in regard to it:

THE TRIAL.—At a late hour on Saturday, the preliminary examination of the witnesses in the case of the parties charged with Ku Klux'ing was brought to a close, and four of the parties, W. C. Dobbins, W. A. Baber, R. A. McEntire and Asa Owens, were bound over to Court; Julius B. Fortune and Ollie Cabaniss were released, and one of the witnesses, Wesley Toney, Wm. Hoyland, Aaron Higgerson and A. Ramsey were also bound over to answer a charge of assault, with intent to kill B. Higgerson.

The Radicals, who were so anxious to make political capital of this unfortunate affair, will perhaps see that the game stands not Conservatives and Democrats.

These witnesses have caught themselves, and if found guilty of the charges against them, will embarrass Republicans with what testimony they gave their evidence against the parties charged with Ku Klux'ing.

Medal Awarded by the Paris Exposition, 1867.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of Sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work, Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention.

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, for a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity, making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs. Tourtine' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Wasson's Photographic Gallery.

TO COTTON AND TOBACCO PLANTERS AND CORN AND PEANUT GROWERS.

"The Norfolk Oil and Fish Guano COMPANY'S.

PHOSPHATIC FISH GUANO.

PRICE $60 PER TON OF 2000 lbs. AT NORFOLK, VA.

Manufactured at Norfolk Virginia.

This article is much superior to the Peruvian Guano as a fertilizer. It contains a much larger percentage of bone phosphate and soda, and nearly as much Ammonia, its effects upon the land will be felt for years.

The following extracts from certificates received from those who used it last year upon Cotton will have the effect to remove the prejudices produced by the use of manufactured fertilizers, and give confidence in the home made article.

H. Lieberman, Esq., of Bertie county N. C., writes: "I have used your Phosphatic Fish Guano in equal quantities side by side with Peruvian Guano and found the produce much in favor of your article, the weed was larger, Cotton heavier and the plant kept green through the dry weather.

J. J. Boston of same State, writes of same import. Our Circular for January 20th, contains these and other certificates of value.

Orders promptly attended to, either at any of our Agencies, Petersburg, Va., or at Gen'l Agents office and Warehouse, Foot of Commerce, New Warehouse in Town Point, Norfolk, Va.
