THE ISSUE IS JOINED.

This was to have been a filed day in the Senate, according to the correspondent of the New York Herald. Senator Quay is fairly in the lists against Senator Hoar who is backed by all the power of the Administration. Mr. Harrison wants to see the Force bill in the South. In his message to Congress he strongly urged a measure of this kind and it is interesting to note what he said in that document, which is as follows:

"I earnestly invoke the attention of Congress to the consideration of such measures within its well defined constitutional powers as will secure to all our people a free exercise of the right of suffrage and every other civil right under the constitution and laws of the United States. No evil, however deplorable, can justify the assumption, either on the part of the Executive or of Congress, of powers not granted; but both will be highly blamable if all the powers granted are not wisely but firmly used to correct these evils.

"The power to take the whole direction and control of the election of the members of the House of Representatives is clearly given to the general government. A partial and qualified supervision of these elections is now provided for by law and in my opinion this law may be so strengthened and extended as to secure, on the whole, better results than can be attained by a law taking all the processes of such federal control. The colored man should be protected in all of his relations to the federal government, whether as litigant, juror or witness in our courts, as an elector for members of Congress, or as peaceful traveller upon our inter-state railways."

Mr. Hoar would sacrifice everything for the sake of the Force bill. He plainly understands that it is "neck or nothing" with his party now and that the only way to keep control of the House is to steal the requisite number of votes in the South. These cannot be bought and they are not to be had by any tricks known to the Republican managers and hence they are to be taken at the point of the bayonet. He would sacrifice the Tariff bill, the River and Harbor bill and every other bill on the calendar to the infamous Force bill. On the other hand, Senator Quay goes on the principle that a half loaf is better than no loaf at all. He sees the almost utter impossibility of saving both the Tariff and the Force bill and as one must go he prefers to let the latter slide and save the former. The Tariff bill is founded on promises made during the last campaign—promises on which Mr. Harrison was elected through the money contributed by the rich manufacturers—and Mr. Quay is determined to redeem these. He is a wise, astute, unscrupulous party leader and his head is as long as old Hoar's is broad.

It will be a tough fight, as the forces are pretty evenly divided. In the last caucus there were thirty-five Senators present and Mr. Quay's majority was but one. The Herald correspondent says:

"It will be a battle royal if the contest begins in good earnest. The chances, however, are strongly favorably to Mr. Quay. He is quite as clever and far seeing as any of the gentlemen upon the other side, and it is hardly probable that he would engage in a struggle of this character unless he knew to a man precisely what strength he could command.

"The advocates of the Force bill are using the wires freely and are telegraphing all the absentees known to be friendly to the measure to return at once and lend the weight of their influence and votes to the defeat of the Quay faction. The proceedings in the Senate next week promise to rival in interest those of the House during the period early in the session when Speaker Reed enforced his arbitrary rulings upon the indignant but helpless Democratic minority.

"It is a strange spectacle which will be thus presented—two powerful factions of the Republican party contesting for control with a bitterness unknown between the Republicans and Democrats, with the latter united in purpose, calm and complaisant, enacting for the time being the role of indifferent spectators."

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Robert R. Bellamy, wholesale and retail druggists.

GAS vs. WATER!

We have just added, at very heavy expense, a four-horse power Otto Gas Engine to run our five presses. "It's a dandy," and makes our presses hum. Come and see it; no trouble to show to anyone who will call at our office. We try always to keep abreast of the times—and our establishment is the largest in the city, and will be kept so, if hard work, promptness, satisfaction and hard cash can keep it so.
