M., that they may then be examined by Medical Ex'g Board, and submit such claims as they have to Exemption or Detail. Any person who may have failed to enroll himself will be placed in service in the field unless he shall present on these appointed days a reasonable excuse therefor, to be judged of by the President."

II. All free persons of color between the ages of 18 and 50 will be enrolled by officers of Home Guards and brought before Medical Ex'g Board and Local Enrolling Officer for examination and proper disposition. It may be so edited, that some have been found to have entirely neglected or refused to comply with what is every reasonable requirement on them—report themselves, record their cause for being out of the army, and receive a certificate to that effect. No man can be presumed to be exempt, but the contrary, until his claim to exemption becomes apparent. Therefore no further notice will be given, but all between the ages of conscription, not accounted for in this office by the 21st inst. will be arrested wherever found, and no one can feel himself injured.

LOOMS! LOOMS! LOOMS!!!

THE Subscribers having bought the right for the Counties of Orange, Chatham, Wake, Granville, Person and Caswell, to make, use and sell Kendall's celebrated are now engaged in putting them up for sale. This loom is a great invention. It is easily kept in order and with proper attention, will weave from 15 to 20 yards of cloth per day, according to the kind and quality of the cloth woven. No looms make better cloth. They weave thick or thin, as may be desired. From the same drawing in, simply by changing the treadle strings, which can be done in ten minutes, Plain Cloth, Double Plain, Jeans, Tweeds, Satinet, Blanket, Twill or Serge, Fortian, &c., may be woven. Also double width and seamless bags, if the warp is prepared for that purpose. Any person who knows how to warp beam and draw in the warp well, in the common looms, can successfully operate on these looms at once. They work with a crank, and are easily worked by a boy or girl 15 years old. They can be worked by hand, water, steam or horse power.

"FAMILY HAND OR POWER LOOMS,"

We have the sole right of labor, material, &c., a limited number of looms will be put up. Orders will be filled in the order that they come.

The price of these looms before the war, for hand power, was $100. We will sell them at the same now, if paid in provisions, wheat, flour, corn, bacon, lard, &c., at old prices or their equivalent in bank, State, or Confederate bills.

LUBRICATING OIL.

THE undersigned is now prepared to furnish to the public a very superior article of LUBRICATING OIL, especially for Cotton and Woolen Factories. We claim that this Oil does not gum, and may be run at greater speed with less power than any other Oil except sperm.

Mr. W. H. Porter, Superintendent of Phœnix Cotton Factory, says of it: "I have been using your Lubricating Oil for 2 or 3 months, and find it to be superior to any other Oil now in use for lubricating."

Mr. John Kershaw, Sup't of Glenn's Creek Factory, says: "I can cheerfully say your Lubricating Oil is a superior article. It does not gum in the least, but keeps the journals clear and bright."

Mr. A. F. Beckerdite, Chief Engineer of the C. S. Arsenal and Armory of this place, was requested to try it and says: "I think for fine machinery—such as Cotton Factories—and for heavy machinery when the motion is slow, your lubricating Oil will compare next in quality to Sperm."

Other cotton manufacturers have tried it and pronounced favorably of it.

The Crisis in the North.—After asking "Have we a Congress?" the Springfield Republican says: "Things seem to look quaky. A government dollar is worth but five and a half cents; speculation is running up the prices of the necessaries of life even faster than the government paper runs down; the wealth of the country is passing from the many to the few, and the laboring classes are becoming dispirited and sullen; and Congress has not by the wisdom of the course to adopt the measures that are essential to avert the ruin to which all these things tend."

The New York Tribune says:

"The Nation is drifting steadily toward bankruptcy. We are now in the grandest crisis of our national history, and we choose dwarfs to do the work which might well employ angels. Something must be done to stop the tendency to ruin or the country is lost beyond redemption."

Preachers Exempted.—Some three weeks since, the Enrolling Officer of this District conscribed two local preachers of the M. E. Church, South, and one of the Christian Church, on the ground that because they were not ordained, they were not preachers in the discharge of full ministerial functions. On application to Col. Mallett, it was ascertained that he had instructed Capt. Swann in the course he had pursued. An appeal was taken by Rev. Dr. Craven, at the instance of the parties, with the intention to test the case thoroughly. The appeal was sustained, and the preachers were discharged. Hence this question is settled while the present law continues in force. Every man in every denomination who is authorized to preach and is discharging his duties, as required by his church, is entitled to exemption.—North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Bacon by the Wholesale.—We have the very gratifying information that the Commissary Department has recently come in possession of three millions of pounds of excellent bacon, which will be none the worse, we presume, from having been cured beyond the limits of the Confederacy. The reclaimed districts in North Carolina are also furnishing large quantities of nice bacon. Several days ago, we stated, on official authority, that the tithe of bacon in Georgia would exceed five millions of pounds. All of these facts tend to show the army and the country that the period of abundance is passing away, to be followed, we hope, by a season of plenty if not of peace. There are considerable quantities of bacon in many sections of this State and North Carolina, which should now be sent to market whilst high prices are yet prevailing. Bacon is now over fifty times the rates current before the war. Three pounds of bacon will sell for $20 in Treasury notes, and these twenty dollars will buy one gold dollar—so that bacon is actually selling at 333 cents per pound in specie, or its equivalent.

Richmond Whig.

Removal of the Remains of Henry Clay.—The remains of Henry Clay, after an interment of twelve years, were removed last week, upon the death of his wife, and placed side by side with hers beneath the beautiful monument erected to his memory in the Lexington, Kentucky, cemetery. The wreath of immortelles placed upon his coffin by his friends, the gifted poetess, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, prior to the removal of the body from Washington, was found to be in an almost perfect state of preservation, being but little faded, while a golden ring bearing the initials "J. W.," which rested near the wreath, was as bright as though just from a jeweller's shop.

Prompt.—A young man named Hilton, of Lancaster District, S. C., who has volunteered and done service, and twice been discharged for disability, was lately accepted as a soldier by the examining Physician, and ordered by the Enrolling Officer to report to the Camp of Instruction on the Wednesday following, it being then Saturday. His wife wove cloth next day (Sunday) made it up into pantaloons Monday, he left Tuesday and duly reported to Camp of Instruction on the appointed day.

A Handsome Contribution.—A gentleman waited upon Jerrold one morning to enlist his sympathies in behalf of a mutual friend who was in want of a round sum of money. But this mutual friend had already sent his hat about among his literary brethren on more than one occasion. Mr. —— was grieved at the indelicacy of the proceeding. On the occasion to which we now refer, the bearer of the hat was received by Jerrold with evident dissatisfaction.

"Well," said Jerrold, "how much does —— want this time?"

"Why just a few and two noughts will, I think, put him straight," the bearer of the hat replied.

Jerrold—"Well, put me down for one of the noughts."
