JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

From the Petersburg Index.

A REIGN OF TERROR.

North Carolina seems to be rapidly driving towards civil war. Citizens of Alamance county have been arrested without warrant, and confined without the charges against them being made known, and the writ of habeas corpus is disregarded by Commander Kirk, of the State militia, who arrested them. What aim has Governor Holden in view? What does he hope to gain by anarchizing the State, in which he hope to hold the highest office? Is it possible that these outrages are merely the playful gambols of a modernized edition of "Kirk's Lambs?"—New York Herald of Tuesday.

Additional news has been received that Hon. John Kerr, Hon. S. P. Hill, Sheriff Griffith and other prominent Conservatives of Caswell county, were arrested at Yanceyville yesterday by Kirk's militia. The Congressional candidates in that district were speaking, when the Court house was surrounded by soldiers.—Associated Press Dispatch, 19th.

The wife of Hon. Josiah Turner, editor of this paper, was twice fired upon by an assassin last night. Mrs. Turner was at the window of her dining room, and the muzzle of the piece was so close that the powder burned her face.—Raleigh Sentinel.

* * * * *

These are some of the pregnant details of the system of electioneering which has been adopted in North Carolina by Holden and his faction. In receiving them day after day we feel with the New York Herald that North Carolina is rapidly drifting towards anarchy, civil war—destruction.

While bands of lawless desperadoes, led by such cut-throats as Kirk, are roaming through a country heretofore quiet and peaceful, while their deeds of violence are the comment of every journal, and they need only the request of a Radical candidate to cause them to arrest and imprison inoffensive citizens, the Conservative party of the State is exerting its utmost influence to prevent outbreak, to repress retaliatory measures, to prolong the course of forbearance which has marked the bearing of the North Carolinians.

But how long can this state of things exist without provoking a return of blow so frequently and promiscuously struck? The people love the law; but can they always put up with the oppression of lawbreakers, and see their firesides invaded, have their rights of person and property violated, have their women threatened with violent death, and give no single effort at self-protection?

Will they not ere long argue that those whom the law fails to defend are under no obligation to the law, and so arguing will they not inevitably take upon themselves guardianship of these sacred rights which are dearer after all, than peace, or plenty, political franchise, or assured relation with the Federal government?

It must be so! And we reiterate the Herald's enquiry, "What does Governor Holden aim at, if not a civil war? That must be his aim, and it will surely be attained unless some power is found to check his usurpations and acts of despotic violence. And when it comes, of course the poor long sufferers will be guilty of rebellion by a hundred hard names, and Kirk will ride through them with rough dragoons sabring and hanging like bloody Claverhouse.

Is there no remedy for these evils imposed by a Governor upon his people, except that which is the greatest of all evils—domestic strife? We see none except the courts defend the outraged prisoners, and even then the protection will be technical and can only reach individual cases.

We trust that help will come, that the majesty of law will awe the offenders, or that Holden may shrink before the storm which his minions have called into existence. If not, we know not to what course our people should be advised. Either line of action is fraught with terrible consequences. To submit, and thus permit a perpetuation of the radical rule which is responsible for all these crimes, would seem suicidal. To provoke worse iniquities by resistance would give rise to terrible scenes. But there are calamities which cannot be endured. There are wrongs which justify the shedding of blood. Holden is treading upon the crust of an earthquake, and only himself will be responsible if the catastrophe should follow. Let him beware lest he overstep the bounds which thinly divide his power from his gallows.

BECOME OF THE KING OF PRUSSIA.—A Prussian writer has estimated that if King William of Prussia received so much in proportion to the land he rules as the minor German princes of Thuringen he would obtain somewhere in the neighborhood of thirty million dollars in gold yearly, whereas he receives now about two and a half millions. For instance the Grand Duke of Saxe Weimar, whose land includes an area of 1,402 square miles, draws, besides revenues from the crown estates, retained for his own use, a civil list of $200,000. The Duke of Saxe-Coburg Gotha, whose principality includes 759 square miles, has a civil list of $70,000, and besides this, one half the surplus from the crown lands, which amounts to $50,000 yearly. The Grand Duke of Saxe-Meiningen, with 953 square miles of land, receives a fixed civil list of $72,200, and besides this the half of the surplus from the crown domain of about $81,000. The Duke of Saxe Altenburg, with a land of 510 square miles, has a civil list of $110,000. The principality of Schwarzburg-Sondershausen, 333 square miles, brings the Prince a domain rent of $110,000. The Duke of Anhalt draws a civil list of $56,000, and a domain rent of $130,000. A very simple calculation will suffice to show that these revenues are large in proportion to the land governed, though all must admit that these incomes are small enough to maintain a court in good style. We question whether some of them would not be glad to make such a sale of land and people as the ex Duke of Nassau did, who appears to enjoy himself upon the fifteen million florins, which he received from Prussia, after 1866, for 1,751 square miles of territory and not quite half a million of subjects.

DURATION OF LATE EUROPEAN WARS.—In the Crimean war of 1853-6 Turkey declared war against Russia October 5, 1853. Russia declared war against Turkey November 1. France and England declared war against Russia March 27-28, 1854. The battle of Alma was fought September 20; battle of Inkerman, November 5. Sardinia joined the allies January 26, 1855. The Malakoff was taken by the French September 8. Sweden joined the allies November 21, and hostilities were suspended February 29, 1856. The war between the Western powers and Russia lasted two years, lacking one month.

The Italian war of 1859 was begun by the rejection of the Austrian ultimatum by Sardinia, April 26. The Austrians crossed the Ticino April 27. The French entered Genoa May 2. The battle of Montebello was fought May 20; battle of Magenta May 30 31, and the battle of Solferino June 24. The peace of Villa Franca was signed July 11. Hostilities were active but ten weeks.

The Schleswig-Holstein war of 1864 began by the invasion of Schleswig by the Prussians February 1. The Prussians took Duppel April 18, and Alsen July 9. Treaty of peace between Denmark and Germany signed at Vienna October 30. Actual hostilities covered a space of twenty two weeks.

The German-Italian war of 1866 was begun by Prussia, July 14. Italy declared war against Austria June 20. The battle of Custoza was fought June 24, and the battle of Sadowa July 3. The treaty of peace between Prussia and Austria was signed at Prague, August 23, and between Austria and Italy at Vienna, October 4. Actual hostilities between the belligerents lasted only five weeks.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

THE EXTENSIVE USE OF THESE WATCHES for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers, and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 450,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over all others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other manufacture of any kind in the United States of which this can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in watchmaking originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which answer testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of mainspringe, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and safest.

Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps, protecting the movement from dust and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, and by far the cheapest watch of its quality now offered to the public. To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mention'd improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch guaranteed by the Company.

To prevent imposition, buyers should see that every dial should bear either of the following trade marks:

American Watch Co., Waltham, Mass.
Ami Watch Co. - - - - - Waltham, Mass.
American Watch Co.,
Crescent St. " " " Waltham, Mass.
Appleton, Tracy & Co. " " Waltham, Mass.
Waltham Watch Co. - - - Waltham, Mass.
P. S. Bartlett " " " " Waltham, Mass.
Wm. Ellery " " " " Waltham, Mass.
Boston Watch Co. - - - - Boston, Mass.

For sale at retail by all respectable dealers.
