With Our Youth

Chai BBG

With a slumber party on January 4th, Chai had loads of fun, "munched out", had a chapter rap session, and made plans for the future.

On Sunday, January 6th, Chai initiated their beau, David Portnoy. At 7:30 a.m. David was surprised to find many Chai girls waking him up and making him wear a ridiculous tutu, pink and yellow ribbons in his curls, and hideous makeup. Chai kidnapped David for the afternoon. After a lively breakfast at Sambo's, David gave Chai a soccer lesson, and everyone played a fun game of soccer. It was a fun day for the girls, but an embarrassing one for David.

On January 12th Chai BBG presented a get-together and discussion entitled "Let's Bridge the Generation Gap". The discussion was led by Wilma Asrael. This program was held at Pam Gorelick's home for both BBW chapters of Charlotte and their sister chapter, Chaverim. Through this program Chai hopes to strengthen the BBG-BBW relationship.

On Friday, January 11th at Debbie Tager's house, Chai and Chaverim held an oneg shabbat. Chai has planned a creative service which they will present at Temple Israel on a Friday night very soon. Chai will be visiting the Clemmons Home for the Aged and is also organizing a program concerning anti-semitism in the United States, which is scheduled for March.

Mickey Aberman

If you were watching WSOC-TV during the Cerebral Palsy Telethon during the late night and early morning hours you probably noticed some familiar faces behind the telephones. They were the members of the Mickey Aberman AZA Chapter. Besides giving this service to the Telethon they contributed $250 to the Cerebral Palsy Foundation.

They are now busy making plans for the Sweetheart-Beau Weekend, February 8-10 and selling Barton's Passover Candy (when they call you, please place an order with them). Next month the chapter will be sponsoring their Judaism Institute; speakers, dates and times will be announced as plans are finalized. An attic sale is planned for early spring so save all your collectibles for this important chapter fundraiser.

Beth El Youth

The 7th, 8th and 9th graders of Temple Beth El will be hosting a conclave Feb. 2-3. The theme of the weekend is "The Jewish Connections". Participating congregations - Greensboro, Gastonia, Winston-Salem, Durham, Chapel Hill and Raleigh.

Last month they went roller skating at Kate's Rink. They also recently held a pizza luncheon at which time they formulated a program for the rest of the year.

Couples Club Ushers In '80

Although 1980 is well on its way, twenty-two members of the Temple Israel Couples Club are still reminiscing about their recent holiday trip to the Beach.

The group stayed at the Howard Johnson Motor Lodge in luxurious ocean front rooms. All rooms were together and no other guests were on the twelfth floor so the accommodations were really private. The Couples Club even had their own hospitality room for cards, games and socializing.

On New Year's Eve a cocktail party took place in the hospitality room prior to a festive evening meal. Following dinner, the hotel hosted a super party in the lounge. Lavish decorations and party favors enhanced the festive mood. A live band and entertainers were featured into the early hours of the morning.

Also included was a 2 a.m. buffet breakfast which topped off a really delightful celebration. It was the finishing touch to a truly memorable evening.

Those couples who attended were more than pleased with the arrangements. Co-chairmen Lillian and Irving Bienstock are to be complimented for the time and effort they expended. The outing was an unquestioned success and everyone there expressed decided interest in a similar affair next year. So positive was the reaction that Avery Waldman has volunteered his services as Chairman of the Couples Club 1981 celebration. We can't wait!

Ort

Ort will be hosting an art auction to be held at Raintree Country Club on March 8th at 8 p.m. Everyone is invited to enjoy an evening combining a little culture with a dab of art education. Marlin Art Galleries of New York will be supplying the pieces of work, and Charlotte ORTists will be supplying the wine. All proceeds from this event will go to the Bramson 2 Project.
