CONSERVATIVE TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
JOHN MANNING, JR.,
OF CHATHAM COUNTY.

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE.

For House of Representatives,
[illegible]
SPECIAL ELECTION [illegible] NOVEMBER.

CONGRESSIONAL CANVASS.

John Manning, Jr., Esq., the Conservative candidate for Congress, Hon. Sion H. Rogers, Hon. A. S. Merrimon and other distinguished speakers, will address the voters of the 4th Congressional District at the following times and places:

Smithfield .... Nov. 15
Nashville, Nash county .... " [illegible]
Durham's, Orange county .... " 23
Brassfields, Granville county ..... " 30

OUR CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

The Convention which assembled at Franklinton on Friday last, made a most happy selection of a candidate for Congress in this Congressional District at the special election rendered necessary by the death of the lamented Judge [illegible]. The result of a harmonious interchange of views was the nomination with great cordiality of John Manning Esq., of Chatham county.

Mr. Manning is a gentleman of fine talents and intellectual culture and large general information. He is well informed in reference to public affairs both State and national, an able debater and unyielding in energy. He has genial manners and makes warm friends wherever he goes. He is said to enjoy the respect and confidence of the people of Chatham who know him best to a universal and enviable degree.—In his political notions and principles he is eminently Conservative and in all respects well fitted to represent the District in Congress with usefulness and credit to his constituents and honor to himself.

It is his purpose to go at once into the canvass and to address the people at as many suitable places as he can, between this and the day of the election. Let the people everywhere turn out and hear him in the cause of truth and good government. We trust that all our friends will be active in behalf of our party and the country, and that as many gentlemen in the habit of public speaking as can will also address the people. Let each and all be fully awake to the importance of carrying the election. We need the moral weight of success and we need more than that—we need an able head and an eloquent tongue to aid Mr. [illegible] in pleasing the rights of our people before the present Congress. Let every man do his duty and we will succeed by two thousand or twenty [illegible] majority!

THE RADICAL CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

The Radical Convention which met in this city last Thursday, nominated Mr. Joseph W. Holden, son of Governor Holden. We learn that the Convention was boisterous and disorderly as usual, and that Mr. Holden secured the nomination by some sort of intrigue which gave great and incurable dissatisfaction to many of the colored people outside of Wake county, and to several prominent white Radicals. [illegible] but the nomination illustrates the fact, and an important one too, that the Radical party of this District endorse Governor Holden with [illegible] crimes and outrages perpetrated upon the people of the State. The nominee was [illegible] of the late plundering Legislature, and speaker of the House—he was a [illegible] of its crimes and participated in them. He was check by jowl with the "carpet-baggers," and aided them in every way he could, and he, like his father, is in a great measure responsible for the [illegible] that now curse the State and [illegible] the people. He endorsed the [illegible] by his father upon the people of the State and especially the people of Alamance and Caswell just before the late election, and insisted that the people should pay the expenses, $300,000 or $500,000 of this lawless and [illegible] war. He has done all he could to engender [illegible] strife and hostile feelings between the white and colored people, on one occasion in an excited harangue invoking the god of [illegible] against the white people.

This is the man whom Governor Holden forces the Radical Convention to present to the Republicans of this District as their candidate for Congress.

Will the people of any race or color vote for him? Are the Republicans prepared to [illegible] Governor Holden and his [illegible]? Are they ready to [illegible] the crimes and outrages of Holden's [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] by Kirk and Bergen? [illegible]

THE APOLOGISTS OF CHIEF JUSTICE PEARSON.

"We have already [illegible] by the hands [illegible] one or two [illegible] apologists of Chief Justice Pearson, who [illegible] through the columns of the Old North State, and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

a [illegible] that the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] that the Old North State [illegible] [illegible] paper [illegible] This [illegible] when it is [illegible] that the Chief Justice, generally, addresses his published communications to that paper.

We have an extensive correspondence with the leading men of all parts of the State. We travel a little through the State and intermingle much with the people and we are fully warranted in repeating the assertion, that the popular demand for the impeachment of Judge Pearson is greater than for that of Gov. Holden. The Old North State concedes that it may be some of the Judges ought to be impeached. Every man who has an intelligent appreciation of the [illegible] of Judge Pearson's [illegible] [illegible] the Judges [illegible] into contempt, when compared with his, his allowing the [illegible] of his imperilled fellow-citizens the efficiency of the great writ of habeas corpus!! This the people of all classes know to be the fact, and demand his deposition from the high position, which he has disgraced and forfeited.

One of these apologists asks why the counsel for the prisoners didn't come out and make public complaint! This is puerile and ridiculous! No one expects these gentlemen to do so foolish a thing, but the people of the State, from one end of it to the other, know what these gentlemen thought of the conduct of Judge Pearson, pending the great controversy, during which he perpetrated the offence. Everybody knows they condemned him in the most unqualified terms, and the counsel for Gov. Holden could not and did not pretend to apologize for, much less endorse his lawless conduct. Let the Legislature impeach the Chief Justice and the proof promised will be forthcoming from such witnesses as no one will doubt.

COST OF A CONVENTION.

Some one has said he opposes a Convention because it will cost so much! This objection is groundless. Let us see. A Convention would be composed of 120 delegates and it need not sit more than thirty days. The delegates ought to have say four dollars per day. This would make the sum of $14,400 for the per diem of delegates. All the other expenses would not exceed $6,000 or $7,000, so that the whole cost of the Convention need not exceed the aggregate sum of $22,000.

Now the salaries of supernumerary officers alone for one year, will pay this sum. We think of a few of them now. We used to have three Supreme Court Judges and the Court was better in all respects than now. Now we have five—dispense with two and thereby we save $9,000 in one year. We used to have eight Superior Court Judges and these did a thousand fold better than twelve do now—but take off four of these and there are $10,000 more saved in one year. There is no necessity for a Superintendent of Public Works.—We never had such an officer before, and he does almost nothing now. Dispense with that office and thereby save $2,500 more. The Solicitor of the Wake District used to be the Attorney General. We could dispense with the present office of Attorney General and thereby save $1,500 more. Thus in dispensing with these unnecessary officers alone, we would save in one year, the sum of $19,000! There are other offices that may be dispensed with to great advantage that would swell the saving in one year to $25,000 or $30,000.—This money cannot be saved without a Convention, because the Constitution prescribes these officers. That the cost of one is no objection.

The Judge of Probate of Stokes county advertises [illegible] acres land for sale in that county for taxes. The Sheriff of Ashe advertises 2,[illegible] acres.

VIRGINIA CONGRESSIONAL DELEGATION.—The following is the delegation elect to the next Congress from Virginia:

First District—John Critcher, Conservative.

Second District—James H. Platt, Republican.

Third District—Charles H. Porter, Republican.

Fourth District—W. H. H. Stowell, Republican.

Fifth District—R. T. W. Duke, Conservative.

Sixth District—John T. Harris, Conservative.

Seventh District—E. M. Braxton, Conservative.

Eighth District—William Terry, Conservative.

Three Radicals and five Conservatives.

THE NEXT HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.—It is claimed here to-day that the result of the elections will insure a conservative organization of the next House by which the Speaker, clerk and chairmanship of the leading committee can be secured.—This, it is said, can be brought about by a coalition with the revenue reformers in the Republican party elected in the West.—Wash. Cor. Balt. Sun.

THE PULPIT RAMPANT.

Sunday the 6th of November, one of the most beautiful and peaceful days ever vouchsafed—a day to inspire worship, and to bend sacred communing with the God of Nature and of Grace—was desecrated, as usual on the Sunday preceding the annual election, by the rampant partisan politicians of the pulpit. The excuse given in one pulpit was that a political circular had been sent to the preacher, invoking his aid in the election, and ready enough to beat the party drum, he launched forth upon the "ignorant foreigners," who take an interest in the elections annually going on. The changes were rung by this preacher, the Rev. Dr. Bellows upon the "ignorant superstitious foreigners" among us. Not one allusion was made to the 700,000 ignorant and superstitious negroes who politically cohabit with the party for which the reverend doctor consents to electioneer once or twice a year, to the disgust of some of his congregation, and to the moral or religious profit of not one attendant. The most that can be produced as the result of one of these sermons is to make a man a little more secular, a little more worldly, a greater hater of his brother man, and every way more selfish and devilish. They excite the passions of the hearers, intensify their animosities, and result in the end, on all sides, in positive harm. We protest now and always against political preaching of any kind in the pulpit. We do not like it when ministers of the gospel are Democrats, and certainly we do not like it when they are something else. Among the most conspicuous of these Sunday pulpit slanderers was Rev. Dr. Curry, who singled out Gov. Hoffman by name for his special anathema and vituperation. We know not what character of man the Rev. Dr. Curry is, except from his discourse, which proves him to be both a bigot and a calumniator,—a bigot, because his discourse shows that he is without charity; a calumniator, because he bears "false witness against his neighbor." Those of us who know Governor Hoffman, know that he is in the best sense of the word a Christian gentleman; that he stands as pure and upright in his office of Governor of the State as the Rev. Dr. Curry can possibly stand in his own pulpit. Gov. Hoffman certainly is no man's man. He has made enemies by thousands for daring to do right in his vetoes and even in the one bill approved, which it is declared he should have vetoed, he sustained a principle common in the best religious, educational, and business institutions of the country.

One word more. If the pulpit is to be respected and be made useful to the cause of religion and the country, it will steer clear of these political harangues. They are made at a suspicious time, for a suspicious end, on pure party grounds, and to bolster up a party which, in its character or its men, its principles or its opinions, are certainly no better than the party, men and principles denounced. Again, it is taking an undue advantage of a man to invite him to hear a sermon on religion and religious duty, and to treat him with a tirade on politics. Such a hearer usually knows ten times more about politics than his forced teacher—a teacher who seizes an opportunity to say in the pulpit just what he pleases, but permits no opportunity of answering what is untruly or unfairly said.—N. Y. Express.

GOV. VANCE AT BALTIMORE.

In the speech made at the Democratic rally before the election in Baltimore, Gov. Vance, as he always does, made some capital points. The following excellent extract we copy:

"The negroes are a kindly disposed, affectionate and faithful people.—During the war they committed no outrages, but were faithful to their owners and employers. The negroes have committed no wrongs down in his State that were not instigated by carpet-baggers. Their good conduct during the war deserves consideration at our hands. They deserve nothing but kindness at our hands, and he hoped that here in Maryland they would treat the negro with kindness.—For a long time after the war, while the South was suffering from the reconstruction measures of Congress, the people were in despair. They began to believe that republican institutions were a failure. But the scene has brightened. The democracy have gained and continue to gain all over the Union. But the probability is that the republicans will have control of the next Congress. But he predicted that the radicals would change their course, and that the tide of centralization and tyranny upon the part of the general government would soon cease. Since the war four great principles of our government have been violated—the freedom of the press, the privilege of habeas corpus, the right of trial by jury and the supremacy of the civil over the military power. But the effect of these violations will render these great principles stronger than ever in the hearts of the people.

When a Conservative Congress shall have control of the government, they will hedge around these great principles with such safe guards that they can never again be assailed with impunity. You can do more to effectually preserve your liberties by going to the polls at your next election and electing Democrats than in any other way."

NEW YORK CITY.—The total vote polled in this City on Tuesday was 121,059, of which Hoffman, Dem., for Governor received 86,163 and Woodford, Rep., 44,896. Hoffman's majority 51,267. Hon. A. Oakey Hall was re-elected Mayor by 24,363 majority. He was opposed by Ledwith, who claimed to be a Democrat, but was supported by the Republicans.

A Card to Sensible People.

Rational reader, if the aspect of the weather was uncertain, you would not be foolish enough to venture out without an overcoat or an umbrella. Have the forecast, then, to protect yourself at this dangerous season with something more important than either of these articles. Strengthen your stomach and nervous system; regulate your liver and your bowels, tone all your organs and cheer your animal spirits with that agreeable cordial tonic and alterative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. So shall you surely escape the diseases which fasten upon the feeble and debilitated. "Suffer and be strong," says the proverb; but "Be strong that you may not suffer" is the wiser maxim—and of all strengthening preparations this is the safest, the surest, the most genial. As a remedy, as well as an antidote, for dyspepsia, fever and ague, and liver disease, there is no combination of vegetable specifics at present known which even approaches it in efficacy.

Anticipate the enemy. The elements of innumerable diseases are afloat in the raw, damp, mephitic winter air. Will you defend yourself against them or not, good reader? That is the question. A bottle or two of the great [illegible] of the age, Hostetter's Bitters, will so strengthen and brace up your bodily powers as to enable them to "bear a siege to scorn." The morbid matter which was exhaled in perspiration through your pores in summer finds no such free egress now. A powerful counteracting agent is therefore needed, and you have it in Hostetter's Bitters. They neutralize the materies morbi from which disease originates, and regulate all the secretive organs.—Nothing can be more harmless or more healthful—nothing so potent to prevent or cure biliousness, dyspepsia, [illegible] and ague, constipation and general debility, as this wonderful corrective.

J. P. GULLEY & BROS.
AT THE LOWEST CASH PRICES.

IN coming before the public, we desire to tender our many thanks to our friends and the public for the liberal patronage we have received at their hands; and hope by strict attention to business a continuance of the same.

We have in store and to arrive a well selected Stock of Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Notions, Clothe, Cashmeres, Flannels, Shawls, Blankets, Cloaks, &c. Also a good stock of Clothing for Men and Boys, from Four to Fifty dollars per suit. Also, Boots and Shoes, N. C. and Northern, at any price you want. We have a splendid Stock of Hats and Caps, low, also Silk Hats, Double and single barrel Guns, different grades. In a separate department we have a nice line of sugars, coffees, allspice, ginger, pepper, Rice, flour, soap, molasses, salt, soda, cheese, crackers, &c., all of which we will sell as low as any house in the City.

Now let us tell you one and all
You must come to see us; this fall
If not before; Come during the Fair
For such a chance, to buy goods; is very rare.

STATE FAIR—EVERYBODY.

AS it is presumed that everybody is coming to the State Fair, I have a word to say to everybody. If you fail to call on Pink C. Harding on your arrival in Raleigh and supply yourself with some of his elegant Cigars and Tobacco you will find that you won't enjoy yourself one bit. Everything will go wrong with you sure. And when you return home, you will be mad with yourself and everybody will be mad with you and I will be mad with you too. Now I know you wish to avoid all this unpleasantness. Then be wise in time and be sure to come and see,

PINK C. HARDING.

I have an attractive Store, attractive goods, and prices that will be sure to suit.

Strangers visiting the City will call and make themselves at home, and will find all the latest papers and a comfortable quiet room to while away an hour pleasantly.

I deal exclusively in Cigars, Tobacco, and Smokers goods.
